

FOR FARM AND GARDEN.

Storing Potatoes for Seed. A successful potato grower in Ohio expresses the opinion that it will pay farmers to retard the sprouting of potatoes in late winter and early spring by artificial means, such as cold storage or refrigeration in small ice-houses.

Manuring Always Valuable.

Peter Henderson says: I never saw soils of any kind that had borne a crop of vegetables that would produce as good a crop the next season without the use of manure, no matter how rich the land may be thought to be.

Insect Pests.

Prof. Lintner, the official entomologist of the State of New-York, made some very useful remarks at the recent meeting of the American Pomological Society held at Boston. He said in the course of a very interesting address upon the subject of insect pests: "The farmer and fruit grower should be acquainted with all of the more common insects that occur in his vicinity, their names, (not necessarily the scientific ones), their injuries, and their habits. He should be able to distinguish between insect foes and insect friends, so that in fighting the former he will not destroy the latter.

Setting Up Corn.

Most farmers still prefer to cut up corn in the old-fashioned way, stooking it around a standing hill. If properly done, this is an efficient protection against the stook falling or blowing down. The best way is to place a few hills around the one used as a centre, taking care to put an equal weight as near as may be on each side.

Farm and Garden Notes.

It is a mistake to suppose that sour fermented slop for hogs is better than a fresh mixture that is sweet and clean. The hollyhock likes a rich and cool soil. So do lilies. Indeed, most bulbous plants delight in such situations.

Hint on Treatment of Poultry.

A poultry house should be well ventilated. Provisions should be made for an outlet for the vitiated atmosphere. The air should be "changed" every fair day by opening the doors and windows and allowing a draft to pass through the building. During this time it will be best to allow the fowls to have the run of a yard and to take exercise in running about, picking up scattered grains and scratching the ground.

Some European Footwear.

In Servia, Bulgaria, and Roumania boots made of bullock's hide or leather, and which are simply a flat piece of leather drawn over the foot all round and fastened by leather thongs or birch bark crossed over the leg, which is encased in either stockings or a piece of red cloth, are worn by the peasantry.

What She Would Say.

He was feeling his way. "If I were to tell you, Miss Smith," he said, in a low earnest tone, "that I am about to start on a long journey, even across the sea, and that it may be months, and possibly years, ere I return, what would you say?"

BARK-GATHERERS.

How the Natives of Peru Collect Cinchona for Market.

Busy Workers in the Forests of the Andes.

A writer describes the gathering of cinchona in South America as follows: The party roam about until a sufficient number of trees are found in the vicinity to make it practicable to settle down and establish a camp in a suitable place. A small house is built for sleeping purposes and for covering the bark, that it may not be exposed to an occasional shower of rain.

Horse Radish—How to Raise.

Horse radish is an entirely hardy plant, hence can be planted either in fall or spring. The practice, however, is to plant in the spring; and among those who make the most of their land, and crop every foot as much as it will carry, it is placed in the ground for example, as a second crop.

The Men are Judges of the Proper Age at which a tree may be deprived of its bark, and know the best trees for this purpose.

Having selected a tree, it is sometimes cut as near the ground as possible and the bark taken off; at other times the tree is made barkless while standing. Cutting is usually considered the better way, that the stump may put forth more leaves and again grow up, while a barkless tree is sure to die.

A Novel Idea.

There was a church festival in Hensonsvale, and this is the way in which Miss Belle Abbott introduced a new feature into the well-worn list of such entertainments. A placard was prominently displayed at the festival reading: "SOMETHING NEW. DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT."

Fat Incomes.

The Duke of St. Albans draws a net emolument of nearly $6000 a year, the gross payment to the holder of this hereditary sinecure being nearly $7000. This office is in the royal hunt department of the queen's household, of which the master of the horse is the head.

Minister—Which do you love best, Bobby, your papa and mama or your two rabbits?

Bobby (after some consideration)—Well, I think I love ma and the jack-rabbit the best.—[New York Sun.

A Burst of Generosity.

"Ma," said Bobby, "if you'll give me another piece of pie do you know what I will do?"

What will you do, Bobby?

"I'll give my little sister half of it," said the generous boy.—[New York Sun.

CLIPPINGS FOR THE CURIOUS.

Europe's population is 337,000,000, according to reports prepared for the International statistical congress.

An average human pulse at infancy is 140 per minute; at 2 years, 100, from 10 to 19, 80; at manhood, 76; old age, 60.

An Oil City man claims the prize for sunflowers, having one in his garden that measures fifty-four inches in circumference.

Thirty-six thousand two hundred and nine persons died in London of the plague which visited the English metropolis in 1603.

The English guinea was first coined in 1673, and derived its name from the fact that the gold of which it was at first composed came from Guinea.

The highest denomination of United States legal-tender notes is $10,000. No bills of the value of $10,000 have ever been issued in this country.

As early as 1505 adventurous French fishermen of Normandy and other coast provinces of France plied their vocation off the shores of Newfoundland.

Tobacco was discovered in San Domingo in 1496; afterward by the Spaniards in Yucatan in 1520. It was introduced into France in 1560, and England in 1583.

The first steps looking toward the foundation of the present city of New Orleans were taken by the French governor, Bienville, in 1718, when a party of convicts were sent out to clear up the swamp that was chosen as its site.

A large flock of "chimney sweeps" took to roosting in a chimney of the house of John A. Butts of Thomaston, Ga. One night he covered the chimney with a board, and early next morning replaced the board with a bag. When he removed the bag it contained 567 imprisoned birds.

Mules and horses in the far West frequently die of a peculiar trouble. The beard of wild oats or barley becomes fixed in the animal's jaw, encysts, and grows there, assisted by the tartar of the teeth. A calcareous formation of this sort, oval in shape and weighing a pound, was recently taken from the mouth of an Oregon horse.

Just in front of the spot where President Cleveland stood in the room of the board of commissioners in the City Hall of Philadelphia when he received the public at the recent centennial, there is a threeshare spot in the carpet. It was formed by the people marching up to him, shaking hands and then turning towards the exit. Many thousands of threads in that turn wore the carpets to shreds in a few hours.
