A LIBEL CASE.—The editor of the Wadesboro' Intelligencer was tried and acquitted at Raleigh, last week, lished a libel upon J. L Stone. Now, I thought if one ietter on the war would start a boom for me I would write again, though shad were caught in Haw river as on a different subject. Now, it is a long time before the election a d i have not decided to be a candida e, but if I should and be elected the Clerk might treat me as he did the Magistrates who were appointed by the Legislature, fail to give me my certificate until it would be too late to qualify. Now, if we judge the tuture by the past it will not require a very -mart man to beat a smart man: therefore I may have a good showing. I suppose one of the leading issues in the next campaign will be the internal revenue. Now, that is getting to be mightily mixed up and I would not know which side to take, as the moonshiners have fallen out among themselves and can't do anything for watching each other. And it is said that some of the revenues are in the same fix. Now, the cry Soldiers' Reunion.—The Record's will soon commence, Give us good suggestion, to have a reunion of men to fill our offices! Climbs Like a Cat.

BOSTON, April 8 -- Among the inmates of the Home for Feeble-Minded Children in South Boston there is a little ten-year-old girl whose case has thus far baffled the best authorities on mental diseases. Her peculiar trait is ber incrdinate desire to climb to the top perch on any object, be it ever so high, to mount and balance herself upon seemingly inaccessible ledges, and there rest content. On entering a room, and knowing she is unobserved, she will fling open a door and catching hold of the edge with her hands, and pressing her knees lightly together climb to the top and seat herself, wholly unconcerned, and apparently perfectly happy. She will swing back and forth with no fear of falling; indeed, she has never been known to lose her balance.

She frequently climbs with wonder ful agility upon a wardrobe, twelve feet high, or again will mount to the top shelf and there coil herself up like a cat. She has been known to ascend an eighteen-foot pillar supporting the ceiling and roost upon its Full line of SURAH SILKS from ledge One night she left her bed and deliberately climbed down the spouting from the fourth story to the street.
