Mr. AIRY celebrated in grand style yesterday the completion to that place of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad. The trowd of visitors from the surrounding country was estimated by the thousands, and excursion shrewdest democratic members of trains brought many hundreds from o her portions of the State. It was the grandest railroad celebration yet beid in this State, surpassing even the late grand celebration at Oxford. It was a celebration in every way worthy of the important event it commemorated. Who the republicans will put up to be slaughtered is not yet apparent. John Sherman is far in the lead, having purchased all the delegates that could be had, and he is prepared, with unlimited cash, furnished doubtless by his Wall Street friends, to go. into the delegate market at Chicago and outbid all competitors for a sufficient number to ensure his nomination. It is bardly likely that the convention will be foolish enough to nominate Sherman; with him at the head of him as badly as Grant did Greely in 1872. Besides Sherman, no other
