

LOCAL RECORDS.

Every friend of the Sunday school cause in Chatham ought to have a copy of the Record.

The closing exercises of Fair View Academy will begin promptly at 10:30 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

Mr. G. P. Alton, of Hickory Mountain township, reports that he has recently clipped 160 pounds of wool from 20 sheep.

Don't forget that the shuttle mill at Pittsboro is still buying dogwood and paying cash for it. Bring a load whenever you come to town.

Dr. J. H. Daniel, of Jonesboro, will be in Pittsboro next Monday and remain Tuesday and Wednesday, for the treatment of any persons afflicted with cancer.

The Daily Mail, at Raleigh, displayed a most creditable journalistic enterprise in its issue of Memorial Day, which is doubtless generally appreciated by its readers.

J. P. Steadman, Esq., is selling good white corn at bottom figures. Cradle figures, etc. at low prices. A large lot of "Pittsboro" extra daily. Hensley's Emery is low. This is a hard matter to keep it in stock.

Now that weather is here you will want to keep cool. See that London and other fine goods. Chatham has a large stock of dress goods, hats, etc. and other goods.

The very latest! Brown & Heaton have just received their spring and summer goods. Ladies dress goods, gentlemen's suits, etc.

Regina made clothing is selling cheaper at W. L. London's than you have any idea. Call and see them. While there look at his Straw Hats, his handsome Cravats and Scarves.

O. S. Poe has a big stock and he is selling lots of goods. If you have cash or better to S. Poe's the plan to get the best of it.

The editor of this paper wishes to express his thanks to the friends who supported him and think it desirable to suppose that at 15 or 20 others who promised their support are dead, because if they have not died, they have miserably lied.

Superior Court.—The May term of the superior court of this county closed on last Saturday. Very little was done on the civil docket, only two jury cases having been tried.

Grand Jury.—The grand jury of this county held their term on the 11th inst. and returned a bill of indictment against the following named persons:
