TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

$1.50 PER YEAR

The Chatham Record.

VOL. XIII. PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., NOVEMBER 6, 1890.

NO. 13.

One square, one month For larger advertisements liberal con-

The Chatham Record.

RATES

ADVERTISING

One square, one insertion-

Our Ship That Never Comes Iu. Where the waxes forever dance in alon On the occan's pointed breast. The mormalisesing in verses we As the notes of the mandolin.

But we walt on the shore in vain to great Our ship that never comes in This fairy ship we can almost see In our day dreams abid and bright, It is treighted down with the gifts that we Are wishing by day or night.

It is filed with the heart's own precion good,

And with never a touch of sie, Our ship that never cone - in.

A BAD MISTAKE.

BY HELEN COMMENT CHAYES.

oWhere is Lois?" said Mrs. Clymer, ettishly, wit does seem as if we were perpetually losing sight of her. I'll never take charge of any one again, while I'm traveling, as long as I

Mrs. Clymer was dressed in pearls mobile, with perfectly-fitting gray gloves, distingue eyeglasses, and books that had come straight from

Adele Clymer, with lone of crope gold, deep dimples in check and chin, and a gown that represented the very latest fashion plate, stood languidly at her side, with a skye terrier whining in her arms and a scent-hottle dangling from her wrist, and little Mahoi's yellow curls and flappingbrimmed Gainsborough that brought up the rear not imple need justs.

"Lois is so odd, mamma," said she. "Lois is holding that cross baby so that its murse can go to the refreshment counter and get a cup of eaffer. The mother has god a two-year-old child on her lap that she can't leave."

Ottoodness fire! And such a minon people?" said Mrs. Clemer, with an nugry dutter of her fan. "What can the child be thinking of? Call her:

"But they're such pretty children, manufact" pleaded Mabel, with wistful glances at the other end of the great, will religing station. "Do be against?" said Mrs. Clymer "Adole, tell your consin I desire sin will jour us at once in the drawings here! room ear-the Osceola, I believe it is a There is such a cross d at that end this? of the depot?" said A tele, unwinlingly. "And Ponto is so rectoed Can't our colored deeply at this rude re-Mabel go, mamma-avoid contact with the vulgar cash long ways?" and crewd. Mrs. Oymer hastened. Adele Camer lifted her eyesglasses. through, closely followed by Adele, and transfixed the speaker with a said the cold-visaged matron, as she me?" she said to Lois, in a very audispread out her skirts and opened her room passengers." Ponto a chocolare. The lettle dear is error if it had been a sceptre, she so freifiel! Porter, pail down the stalked out of the car. fectly unembarable. What can have didn' like the children to be called become of Mabel? Oh, here she dirty, when their appearance is really only an accident of travel."

"Minima," whispered Makel, pur' Leis laughed, ting her cherry lips close to her "Don't mind her," said she, "Here mother's well-powdered ear, o'Lois is a flask of cologne and a clean like to know?" cried Mrs. Clymer, rest. I will see to the children.

she was a tall, slight girl with an bama half so much Ivory pale complexion, large blue eyes. And thanks to Lois Warntour's gensweet mouth, like Raphael's Madonna, cand refreshing, that based until they and she was dressed with a simplicity reached the depot at Albany.

her consins, the Clymers. next the sunny window.

Lois, quietly, "but, if you don't mind, that dirty child? It's the business of I will not go in the Oscrola! The other | its mother to take care of it, not yours. cars are very comfortable, and " And come-quick! The carriage is slightly reddening, othere is a consider waiting - and, greethess me, here

"It's a dollar and a half extra in the him find you in this car for anything.

in the other car, with a great many and hunded wer to her Bittle children, to whom I can be of "I am surry," she stammered. "I tem - Conrier Journal.

use. If you don't mind, I'll go back | into the ordinary car."

to travel first-class?" with a faint smile.

wif the friends we are going to visit with smiles, should know that any of our party

Miss Wardour, with an almost imper- | sin, Miss Wardour, has been able to ceptible shrug of the shoulders, be of use to her!" Cood-by, Consin Effeida! I dare

Mrs. Clymer looked after the grace ful, retiring figure with a Medusa-like

"If I d'da't know that it must be timelic, of should almost be tempted Lois-ois she the governess?" to think that she was-laughing-at

"I'm so vexed to think that papa just because she happened to be a dis- ess left me at Philadeinhia with only common schoolteacher, too, only think of it! Well, mamma, never mindperhaps people won't know that she belongs to us. If she is mean enough 'troduce wher consin, Miss Wardour," to want to save her dollar and a half. why, let her!

"But it isn't proper," cried Mes-Clymer, ofor a girl of i er age to separate herself from her chaps rone in not until she had promised suon to this way.

of dare say she's quite capable of mansion of the Percevals taking care of herse f." said Adele,

"There?" cried Mrs. Clymer. "I lag woman, you know." knew some treatile would come of "it!" Valid put the box of dog-seruckers in widow, "I am quite sure of that?" Lois's shawl strap, because there train starts.

Unwillingly enough, Adele comwithe dogsmarkers? Oh, ve-f" sald Lors, laughing: "I had a most forgotten them. Here they are. You ee, Adele, how comfortable I am

·With a swarm of dirty calidren like The lady seated next to Miss Wards ment, and in her reflued anxiety to she, cand my little ones have come a tenderly carrying the discontented dog, estony stare, which made her blush little Mabel. "You ought to have Pento, who whined perpetual protests. deeper than ever, settled down into ottlair No 4," ble undertone, owe are drawingfan. "To sit down, Adoo, and give And, carrying Ponto's box of cracks civilly, they ought to travel in draws edges. - Brooklyn Caizen.

*This is something like comfort," "How dured the woman speak to too!"

shade and bring men foots ool. Adele. - 15d 1 do wrong in addressing your hair is all coming out of crimp her?" said the little widow, with a with the heat. This weather is per, half-terrified air, "It was only that I over the old story?" said Adele, im-isn't going to travel in the drawing- packet handkerchief in my torg. If Johnny will get a little water in this "Not going to travel in the drawing- tumbler, we'll soon brighten the little room car! And why not, I should faces up. Put back your head and

". How kind you are?" said, the pale Lois Wardour herself appeared in fittle lady. "If I had expected to the luxuriously curtained doorway of most such a benefactors, I shouldn't the "Osceola" to answer this query. have dreaded the journey from Ala-full of pleading lights, and a serious, theness, she fell into a slumber, deep of Dexpensive affire that contrasted with surrageous - perfectly outcariously with the elaborate tollettes of leageone!" said Mrs. Clymer's voice, raised to a pitch somewhat above the "Lois," cried the fretful matron, "low tone" which is generally con-Owhere on earth have you been? You salcred ou most excellent thing in keep me in a constant worry. Do sit woman." Here I have to leave down and be quiet for a few minutes. Ponto said the girls and come all this if you can! That's your seat No. 7." way into this horrid, crowded, stuffy indicating the least comforcable one, place to extricate you, Lois Wardon's from the common mor you have "Thank you, Cousin Effects," said elected to travel with? Pag down

Osceola?" shriliv put in Manel. of The pule little lady, suddenly heard the conductor tell the fat man so awakened from the depths of her slumbers, sat looking up with a ferri-"And," added Lois, "a dollar and fied air, as she clutched the crying in- gasks and whee's. The founder has very much attached to each off et, and shalf is some consideration to me faut whom Mrs. Clymer had take a expacity of 100 car wheels per day, no doubt Jack has fold Gumbo

"Kutie, can it be possible that this "But I do mind, very much," is you? My darling-my dear little sald Mrs. Clymer, tossing h r head, sister!" And to Mrs. Civrney's deep discom-We Ulemers are always accustomed fiture, the saw the personage whom in "I am not a Clymer," said Lors, her mind she had set down as "that dowdy little widow," clasped in Mr. "And I should be mortified to Frederic Perceval's aristocratic arms. death," sharply added Mrs. Clymer, In a second her face became dressed

"Your-dister!" she cried. "Really, my dear Mr. Perceval, this is a genu-"Let us hope that they will not line starprist! If we had only known make the appailing discovery," said it before! I am so glad that my con-

.. We have been expecting Katherine say Adele and Mabel will be plenty of from the South for some time," said company for you-not to mention Mr. Perceval, who was the son and heir of the wealthy and well-born family whom Mrs. Clymer had come to Albany to visit. "But we hardly found on each side of both jaws, knew when she would come. darling, how tired you look. And impossible," said she, slowly and disc this young hady"-with a glance at

"I do not know who she is," said the young widow, her soft brown eyeshining full of gratitude as she raised insisted on sending her in our party them to Lake face. "But my governtant relative," said Adele, crossly. "A the nurse, and I don't know what I should have done had it not been for

And Mrs. Clymor made haste to in-

Lois Wardong pa ted with her newmade friends then and there, going directly to the educational institute which had secured her services, but visit the Southern widow at the stately

"I have only my Saturdays and Sundays," said she, "I am a work-

"You are an angel," said the young Mrs. Clymer (when she pleased) wasn't room for it among our things. was an adept in the art of making herand the poor per is half-starved. Go self agreeable; but not all her smiles quick. Adele, and get it before the and graces were able to make any entrance into the learts of either Freds going?"-- Picayune. erick Perceval or his sister, Katherine

Mrs. Perceval, of The Manor, was polite to the Corners as guests, but polite reserve interposed itself perpetnally between herself and all intimet comfortable!"specred her cousin. "I'm quite sure that hateful, spiteall about the Little mistake I made," said Adele. e And our little campaign here is entirely frustrated. She has The gates were a enod at that mes —this very dusty traveling," said Lois Ward on here every Saturday. and I just rish you could see Fred Percival look at Lors? For sure he's falling in love with her."

"It serves you right," said shrewd been kind to Mrs. Kent on the train,

"So I should if I'd had any idea. who she was," said randful Adele. "But if people expect to be treated ing-room cur-!

oshe had had her pecket picked, you know," said Mabel. "She-"

with, there is no use going over and patient y. "If she led traveled in the Osecola, it would have been all right."

... Whereas now," said she, wit's all wrong!"- Saturday Night.

A Japanese Mint. at the mint of Yeshle, Japan. When the men enter in the marning they are made to divest themselves of their own clothes and put or others belonging to the mine. At the end of a day's work a gong sounds, when the somewhat curious spectacle is presented of 300 men springing from the ground on which they have been scated, throwing off their clothes and rushing, a naked throng, to one end of the yard. Here they pass through the following ordeal in order to prove that they have no silver on them; their back har is their hands and hold them us to view. they deink water and then bullo und lastly they run to the other and of the yard, clearing two or three hurdles on their way, after which performance ing .- [Coleago Tribane.

Handling Multen Metal. handlest in six hours by the new syst one led in teaching him the way out.

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

"When I was at the ports." * and Bette out I had four t.

* Valle girl ret off for chair, fight down upon the foor; And all the other little girls 15 can to much out of 1 didn't bergli a single b

Said Betty, orthogy,

Within a cert backwards a school back Full of delight to find That Betty—bless her little heart?—

Holm't laught" said lictry,

"Those it was me that fell!"

— (Mary E. Bradley, in St. Nicholas.

The fish carled the dolphin is rema kable for the enormous number of teeth it has, no less than 47 being making 90 in all. It is a fively and playful animal, averaging 7 feet in ength. Being of a very sociable nature it is seldom seen alone but preters to associate in little flocks which are in the habit of accompanying ships for considerable distances, tumbling and leaping about in the most frolic

The mother-dolphin is exceedingly fould of her little ones and nurses them. with the greatest tenderness and care,

CHARLEST PROBBERS It is said that animals can soil who love them, and it would seem that a Memphis parcot was equally discrimmaring. A tady who disliked nets wis ited very frequently a friend who owned a fine parrot, and was one of the few victors who did not make triends with the bird, who always remained silent during for visits. had noticed how the parrot seemed to know that this particular visitor was no admirer, but it astonished everybody one day, when the lady gross to say farewell, by calling our "Goodby, burry up: I am glad you are

AN ORNAMENT LITTLE GIRES CAN MARC. Do you want to make a posity ornament of the milkweed pods? If so, buy a yard and this e-quarters, of colored sifk velling. Fold it so as to make a receptacle at each end with two raw edges of the goods in the gether. Make a row of herring-home or form stitch, with embroddery silk all around the outside edge; then till each end with milkword seeds and plumes, elise the rule raw edges in the aniddle, tie a ribbon around them, attuck tassels at intervals of an inch apart on each end, and hang the beautiful thing on some picture, bracket, or projecting shelf. The milkword pads should be kept unopened mitit put in de the veiling; a remove the outer Jersk and libers ate the planner; the brown seeds will settle in fanciful shows around the

THE BOOK SAVED THE CRAIN. At Parkersburg, W. Va., the other d y, a fast passenger train from Cin. *foop down, then throw back his field "Let me die," said be, which had connait to New York, on the Baltic wielly with a fish reasonise in it, uniform in which I is must me bartles, more & Ohio Southwestern railroad, month. When that ish was a small May used forgive me for ever parting. Indians were in the habit of barying was saved from retain destruction by one it was allowed by the finish and one any other!" Atlanta Monthly. the intelligence of a do... A mule had, the bird to remain in the strayed on a high tree-leswork and bad, guller. Each pack good (by a nost), A Swimming School for Young Scals, become entangled among the timbers. Varied in numbers, that I wanted 13 tracted by the braying of the male, meanest to us. Behind Jun a cold anwent to the trestle, saw the predicas other points; then further back maps, the water the ground slopes quality. ment the mule was in, and can back to prentice, with one single bold, who and it is along this incline the centures his master's house, where he set up an nnearthly howl. The howling awoke the farmer, and he followed the dog to a long pole. Every man should, as the trestle just in time to flag the passsenger train, which would have surely been deraited and thrown into the gap below had it not been for the dog. A silver collar, paid for by a purse raised by the pussengers on board the train, now ornaments the neck of that particular dog. - Chicago News.

TWO KNOWING METER A kli sumu, in Texas, writes as follows: We have in our corral twentytwo nucles, and each morning one of the mules, a most rascally fellow, would be out. The corral is about round and composed of barbed wire, In a cur-wheel foundry in Deiroit, magning, so I put some of the drivers wislow $250,000 in government bonds. Mich., a very ingenious system for non-the watch to each the fellow, which It was a big pile of money for him in wheels to and from the seeking pits, much for Jack, one would say, for he York Press has been introduced. The work is is a cauning rascal; but he has sucdone by machinery entirely, a series of ereded in getting his mate out, also, overhead troters moved by a wire For the last three nights teambo has tope connection carrying the ladles, abscrolled out. These two mules are And there is a recently-windowed in he from Lois' lap with no greate touch and about 150 tons of metal can be oftwasn't no trick at all, 'and has suc-

Fish in Japan

After Swallowing the Prize They are Made to Disgorae.

From an article entitled a An Arist's Letters from Japan," by John Laquote the following:

At no great distance from us, perhaps a quarter of a mile, a light thickered over the water. On surapproach we could distinguish a man connected with it, who apparently walked on the away the glass, and thus the pattern is dark surface. He was evident tisherman or a shrimper, and his ome long-legged monatic ford. He knew his path, and, far out, fornowed with emery, which grinds the glaslonginess as does a craw in a marshy landscape. Then I saw him hermore, for he headed up the river towards an a line of five coming towards as, course and our own against it, came worthless the labor of neary dothe leating of a cry in anison. The swam many binds, glossy black and they spread like a fan before the dark slandow of the hows, the cords which fastened them glistened or were lovek disappeared-unavailingly; each bird disgrace. was foreibly drawn up to the gunwale, and seized by the neck engineed by its string-bearing coller. Then a squeezea white tish glittered out again and was senttled away, dropped back into the water, and, shaking itself, was at small matters as to allow the big selelearning to manage his feathered two; rabilists themselves, the cover two sice In the stern stood the steersman using a frem tribes some screens being dropply huntsmentenesseraging a pack, office, are very quarrelesses and heat for Hou! How!"-making the rev whose their positions, make 2 a dia a most rhythm we had beard when the flating deafenine which may be heard forbon down upon as."

business with Jay tomid he Then have of the young while I am generous man in business, but who is: " were however, the soul being the most the little man since I bearned what he Herald. did for Jim Usk's widow. Tosk was the dress parade member of the old too high for a male to jump over and firm of Gould & Fisk, while tound the new for him to crawl under, so we was the money maker. Fisk left also though. Still the mule was out every | solutely nothing, but found gave his

A Boom in Trade.

to charge me for this applied same price .- Throch.

FEATHERED FISHERS. The sparkle and brilliancy of glass. Is very much increased by a process of Cormorants Trained to Catch grinding and pullshing, technically called reliass cutting." A great varicty of patterns is used in out glassware but all are worked out in essentially the same manner. A glassicate ting ameline consists of a wheel-inlarge factories usually several feet in diameter-generally made of wrought from and turned by some motive; ower, Farge, in the Century Magazine, we Over this which is suspended a reserand water, which drops slowly on the recoxing wheel. The glass, after the design has been drawn upon it, is applied to this wheel. The sand cuts

When the centing is completed the movements had all the strangehoss of whole article is padished. It is not applied to a wooden wheel supplied some track of ford, adding to the ferfeerly smooth and then non-wheel supplied with purry powder, which produces a brilliant polish.

The greatest vare is taken to select, opening between the hills. Sublenty for entring, glass which is without a haze of light rounded the corner of thaws or air bubbles. Sometimes an the nearest mountain, then grew into all hubble well we in be out eway and thus a valuable piece of glass saved: Above the rustle of the river's but again a little air bubble may make line of flame broke into many finestand, a beautiful place of glass yet, massive we could see the beats rushing of whe and out in exquisite design, which had upon us. As quickey as I can write it, in community to under for a New York they came in an even line, wide about hom. The entire had spen weeks upon - perhaps lifty feet or so -enough for at and it certainly showed the work. It us to pass between, whereupen we re- was alm stas brilliant as a diamond; versed our movement and drifted but it was comparatively valuel so, for along with them. In the front of each, by one corner was a dittle-hole no larger boar, hong upon a bent pole, blosed a than a point of a needle. I was large cresser filled with pine knots, caused either to an air bubble so small making above a chest of smoke, that it was not discovered, or there starred with sparks and long needles was some little unexenness in the surs | rooted energy. of red cluders. Below in the vitcle turn of the glass. Wearever the cause, of each light, and on its order time the hole was there-so small that it could be discovered only by the fact surength enough to kick the bucket. white commonants, straining so at the that the vessel leaked, and a new cords that held them that they are piece had to be made-Youth's Compatrion.

Last Days of Benedict Arnold.

All the family tradition pore to of the master-ticker at the leave, and temorie and edi-reproach. The great aim you not lively: was fascined to bis wast and lost in theme which he had so gullantly went . The he taken after each meal," rend the gill toring strow of liberal ask'rt, and so wretchedly not loft him no fee. Income, as declosion left, the pre-Life a four-in-hand driver, he seemed pose by night or day. The iron trans- scription; we shouldn't think one dose to feel his blers' more nears. His which had with social the fatigue of semany trying battlefields and soil more. Tast? suddenly, with a clutch pull-1 back, trying marches the against wilderness, Then came a rebellions flurrering, and broke down at last un or the slow

In the last sad days. In London, in-June 1801, the family tradition ways that Armold's mind kept beverling to lefs wild Triendship with Washingtons thrown back into the heat. The bird. He induly any constitute preserved the American uniform which he wore on the day when he made his everyor to work again. They swam with a sign the Vactor and now as browen in creet, their eyes apparently looking spirit and were or life, no feet the over everything, and so indifferent to get incincuts a many he cannot be this uniform and partiation and doc. ders to be unnoticed on their rais; but weated to meelf with the epocation and swortden it which Washington lend given him after the vistory of Saratogo,

For about six lamids I feet up from block with the minute. The make-Jay bould and Jim Fisk's Widow. In others, who then described to be In conversa into vesterality with a converted to the agree makes and other gentleman who has but considerable up any coordate shift for themselves said: "I doubt if very many persons, mg to swim are highly amorang. They give Mr. Gould redit for generosity domaier about in the water at first to of any kind. I can't say that he is a ratally helpless as a larger. It is soon Three always had a warm side for graceful of swimmers. Chicago

A Nailless Horseslore,

The latest form of the miless horse show ain he seemed firm's to the host without either units or screws. It is flannes, which peoplet movared at an handling the moden metal from the they did, and saw him he down and these days, although it would be in bracken from the base of the show. capolas to the flasks and carrying the actually roll under the fence. Not scarcely a flea hite now," New Windchaster is open at the back, the opening being on feel fix a clamping series. The compared names Mi Zer-Row much the you gold upon it. The low is the back is then operated to boat the sine firming to the Dealer-Twom charge commything book. Spot or was and books me thus dimension with The stores was to Mi Zer-Thanks; and since you are just on buttle meroing and taken of so reasonable I'll take two more at the strength, the eby resting and cooling Indicate | Sew York Temperature

A Wail of the Unappreciated.

The parts all have song their songs in tones of loxing praise.

Of spirite men and all that set for countless years and days.
Latti I think it almost time to make Pegasus.

printer half in some word for them, as never find a chapter.

I know a cover fellows now that somehow staxed behind; And why, no one could ever tell, for they

But comelions, in this wirked world, they've

There's old Jim Ports, what outlift to be in Congress right teclay.

He hand no head for business—could never make d pay: that when it comes to tariff, or internal rev-Note what old done in the o'r know nin't worth a besking threach But pure odd, dim in brains man, is I have said before.

And several ment specialists ment sound the grows store. And there we can the country, according to And we figher how the workingman is lestn't and his rights.

Distance with all some good for Lee not some

And executively the Law, him and hands him to the skit.

And leaves us men of solid worth plans stranded man and dry.

The amaged a dengine.

HI WORDI'S.

It is the icommutate that whistles at Tre worth. White we have I note Sain in Amerien there is Antswern in Belgium. Telling a hait-raising story to a baid ment is a deplorable instance of misdis No matter how week and wasted a man may become be always presuses station she had the smallpox, I heart. Flyklins-Yes. She's marked ura althograph its port worth so much

A Paris milliner has made a tennew that the last years of Ponceller strike by to string her purrot to say Arneld in London-were years of longer every some a fair effect enters, "Oh, notice would be post for low up very Depositor of the endler in?" President - "Nor he has more away," total transfer of President (saids) - "N-0; To avoid agreet?

Visitor-"You ought not to keep the pigs so near the house," Countryous -Why note: Ye - the count healthy." C .- oth you me wrong; why, those officerory I have not much ready momes. Will you take your full out in made " Oh, yes, I High that we can arrange that but what is you. thus loves? I'm a counct player." tranger to releasing his environities (-This is an Loran limber I ship from a mount in Ohio. Mrs. Fangle. Blow.

the function.

interesting? I have read that the St. Paul Island as control the chort schanical broughstransference through A farmer's dog in the vicinity, as fastenes to the wast of the distances, results of the seals in Rating S. a. underground passens in it is were emergency was recessed till these arrays be Soon on account scale in Pages. made with the multivipal use of this aerial forces. Bornonzione has net had four mises of compressed airpiles completed for public consumpthis correspond district of Birmingham refer the concentration of having power without being obliged to creek a boiler long distance miles even from the spot where it is compressed by the coverines; and the loss by etcaknow." fulction, etc., is recombiningly wouth-

> Making Silk from Wild Hemp. Navennira Sakasaloro, a druggist, of Hillotte, in Chai, Japan, ofter many year-of experiment and patient research, has succeeded in converting wild being into a sub-many possessing asserted that a trial of the turead has been made at the -lik weaving e talelishment in Kinto and other factories with excellent results in every case; The plant in question grows wild en-