

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

FOR PRESIDENT: GROVER CLEVELAND, of N. York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: ADLAI E. STEVENSON, of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR: ELIAS CARR, of Edgecombe.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR: RUFUS A. DOUGHTON, of Allegheny.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE: OCTAVIUS COKE, of Wake.

FOR TREASURER: DONALD W. BAIN, of Wake.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL: ROBERT M. FURMAN, of Buncombe.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: JOHN C. WARBOROUGH, of Johnston.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL: FRANK I. OSBORNE, of Lenoir.

FOR CONGRESSMAN, FOURTH DISTRICT: B. H. LUNN, of Nash.

THE STATE CONVENTION of the republicans in North Carolina was held at Raleigh, on Wednesday of last week, and nominated a full ticket, as follows: for Governor, Hon. D. M. Furbush, of Iredell county; for Lieutenant-Governor, J. M. Meady, of H. Wayne; for Secretary of State, Rufus S. Amis, of Hillsborough; for Treasurer, Henry U. Dockery, of Richmond; for Attorney General, H. L. Grant, of Wayne; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, E. C. Parish, of Guilford. Strange to say, every nomination was made by acclamation, without a single ballot, which shows that the bosses had prepared the slate—had fixed up a ticket—and the convention was allowed simply to ratify it. There was never exhibited a more notable instance of ring rule.

The convention was composed chiefly of negroes and Federal office-holders, a set of men who are not at all fitted to control our State government. It was an assemblage that would have disgusted any intelligent and decent white man in the State. A negro was called to the chair and presided over the convention, and two other negroes were the secretaries. The principal speakers were negroes, and they were honored in every way possible, until the nominations were made and then they were all left out, not one having been nominated for any office.

The nominees of this convention are as respectable and intelligent as any republicans in the State, and make a formidable ticket. There is no use of guessing this fact, and it therefore becomes the duty of every man, who desires to prevent republican rule in North Carolina, to rally to the democratic standard. The contest now is between the two old parties. One or the other will carry the election in November. There is no doubt of that!

Which shall it be? Many honest and patriotic men have been deluded into the belief that the republicans would not nominate a State ticket. Indeed some of the republican leaders had given assurances that they would not nominate a State ticket, and upon each assurance the party did nominate a ticket. But those assurances were like all republican promises do not amount to anything. It seems that Col. Harry Skinner was the only one wise enough to suspect these republican assurances and to suggest a plan to keep them from being broken. It will be remembered that the State convention of the People's party unanimously nominated him for Governor, and in his speech of acceptance he stated that he would accept the nomination with the understanding that he could withdraw, if the republicans should prove false and nominate a State ticket. If the convention had acted wisely and concurred in Col. Skinner's acceptance on this condition, it is the republicans who would have been afraid to nominate a State ticket, and the People's party might have carried the State. But fortunately his suggestion was rejected, he was unanimously thrown overboard, Mr. Skum was nominated, and now the republicans have a full and strong State ticket, and the People's party has no earthly chance of carrying the State.

Why do we say this? Because nearly every former republican will vote solid for the republican State ticket. Many republicans have been pretending that they had abandoned their old party and had joined the People's party, but now nearly every one of them will return to his old love and vote the full republican ticket from Harrison down. This is undoubtedly true, and the votes on election day will prove it. Yes, on the day of election, when a republican is called upon to vote for either Harrison and Furbush, or Weaver and Exum, he will not hesitate in favor of the former, and we confidently assert that Weaver and Exum will not receive the votes of 5,000 former republicans in the entire State!

Where then will Weaver and Exum get their votes in North Carolina? From former democrats? Can this be true? We cannot believe it.

That was a very shrewd trick of the republicans. They have done all they could do to divide the democrats, and now that they have divided them they nominate a State ticket and will try to elect it by the democrats dividing up. Shall they succeed? Will good, honest democrats allow themselves to be run as cats' paws by the republicans? By voting for Exum and the other nominees of the third party, you are giving half a vote for Furbush and the other republican nominees. Do you really wish to do this? How can any true Abolitionist, or former democrat, hesitate as to his duty? Which should he prefer to be the next Governor of North Carolina, Elias Carr? or Judge Furbush? It is certain to be the one or the other. Shall it be Elias Carr, the democratic Alliance man? Or shall it be Judge Furbush, the republican lawyer?

If the republicans obtain the control of the next legislature they will have the power to put every county in North Carolina completely under their control.

Simply by increasing the number of magistrates in every township and appointing only republicans. In this way they could control every county without changing the present system of county government. Had you thought of this? If not, think of it. By having a majority of republican magistrates they will elect only republicans as county commissioners, county superintendents of public instruction and finance committee. Would this not well nigh ruin our good old State? And will good, honest men thus endanger our State by indirectly aiding the republicans in doing this?

The prize fight between Corbett and Sullivan was a disgrace to the civilization of this Christian country. We are rejoiced that the grandeur, brute, Sullivan, was knocked out and that he can no longer boast of being the "world's champion," as he proudly called himself. Now, if the negro, Jackson, will knock out Corbett and become "the world's champion," it may take away some of the "glory" of prize fighting.

The Republican party, and that party alone, is responsible for all the burdens it which the farmers complain. How then can any farmer support that party? Or how can the farmers divide in their opposition to that party? The only party that stands any chance of defeating the republicans is the democratic party. Therefore every farmer should vote the democratic ticket.

Judge MacRae Accepts. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 7, 1892. To Messrs. H. A. London, W. P. Roberts and P. B. Means, Gentlemen: GENTLEMEN—I am in receipt of your favor of the 6th inst., informing me of my nomination by the State democratic executive committee as the democratic candidate to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, occasioned by the death of the lamented Hon. Joseph J. Davis. In accepting this distinguished honor, permit me to express my appreciation of the sentiment of personal esteem with which the nomination was accompanied, and to assure each of you of my high respect and regard. I am, gentlemen, most truly yours, J. S. MacRae.

Afraid of a Discussion. The chairman of the people's party State executive committee declines the invitation to a joint discussion, which Chairman Simmons has extended. Joint discussions should be favored, at least at the principal points in the State. Let the people have the opportunity of seeing and hearing the men they are asked to vote for. The th. P. party opposes a joint discussion.

Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9, 1892. Mr. Harrison's letter of acceptance was very brief and to the point. It was a full meeting of the National Alliance at Washington, N. C., at which the delegates from Richmond county, who attended the recent meeting of the State Alliance at Greensboro, were present. There was discussion upon the report made by our delegate in the effect that the third party had captured the State Alliance and was trying to make our noble organization nothing more than a "third party."

After discussion by the people it was unanimously agreed that the president appoint to the office of secretary of the National Alliance a person who is able to handle the affairs of the party, and to give the Alliance a more permanent and efficient organization. In accordance with this action the undersigned committee have to offer the following suggestions:

Mr. Harrison's attempt to do the Federal bill in such a way as to leave the impression upon the mind of the people that a Constitutional liberty was being taken—was not only a heart and soul—and at the same time make those opposed to it be made to feel abandoned it is the most direct of aim—supremely ridiculous and meets only with meeting smiles in every quarter. Democrats and republicans alike know just where Mr. Harrison stands upon this question, that if he be re-elected and the House of Representatives be controlled by the republicans, he will in his first message to the Fifty-third Congress ask that a bill similar to the Congress be passed. There is only one way for this country to escape the horrors of the tariff bill, which is one session of the country would be required to establish the election and that be to elect Benjamin Harrison for the republican party.

A Few Tariff Figures. The tariff on the value of iron and steel in 1890 was $1,000,000,000. In 1891 it was $1,200,000,000. In 1892 it was $1,400,000,000. The tariff on the value of iron and steel in 1890 was $1,000,000,000. In 1891 it was $1,200,000,000. In 1892 it was $1,400,000,000.

Parties in Alabama. Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 11—About 300 members of the Iron Advance met in the city hall to discuss the light against organized Democracy and members. Plans of the mass meetings held yesterday resolutions were passed in favor of Weaver and Field and the other organized Democracy.

Died Many Years Ago. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Word was received at the treasury department this afternoon that Inspector of Buildings Edward Omeagher died on Monday while en route to Montana on departmental business. Mr. Omeagher was one of the four Irishmen sentenced to be hanged in Manchester, England, for aiding in rescuing Col. Kelly and Capt. Deasy in 1862.

Scotland Neck Democrat. The Halifax postoffice seems to be a source of trouble to the republicans. Our postmaster is a republican and has been in the penitentiary and another is charged with selling his vote at the national republican convention for $200. It is said that the present postmaster was laid up when he left for that convention and when he returned he was "flush" and could meet bills and get and let.

An Alliance Protest.

Editor Star, Wilmington, N. C.

A full meeting of the National Alliance at Washington, N. C., at which the delegates from Richmond county, who attended the recent meeting of the State Alliance at Greensboro, were present. There was discussion upon the report made by our delegate in the effect that the third party had captured the State Alliance and was trying to make our noble organization nothing more than a "third party."

After discussion by the people it was unanimously agreed that the president appoint to the office of secretary of the National Alliance a person who is able to handle the affairs of the party, and to give the Alliance a more permanent and efficient organization. In accordance with this action the undersigned committee have to offer the following suggestions:

Mr. Harrison's attempt to do the Federal bill in such a way as to leave the impression upon the mind of the people that a Constitutional liberty was being taken—was not only a heart and soul—and at the same time make those opposed to it be made to feel abandoned it is the most direct of aim—supremely ridiculous and meets only with meeting smiles in every quarter. Democrats and republicans alike know just where Mr. Harrison stands upon this question, that if he be re-elected and the House of Representatives be controlled by the republicans, he will in his first message to the Fifty-third Congress ask that a bill similar to the Congress be passed. There is only one way for this country to escape the horrors of the tariff bill, which is one session of the country would be required to establish the election and that be to elect Benjamin Harrison for the republican party.

A Few Tariff Figures. The tariff on the value of iron and steel in 1890 was $1,000,000,000. In 1891 it was $1,200,000,000. In 1892 it was $1,400,000,000. The tariff on the value of iron and steel in 1890 was $1,000,000,000. In 1891 it was $1,200,000,000. In 1892 it was $1,400,000,000.

Parties in Alabama. Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 11—About 300 members of the Iron Advance met in the city hall to discuss the light against organized Democracy and members. Plans of the mass meetings held yesterday resolutions were passed in favor of Weaver and Field and the other organized Democracy.

Died Many Years Ago. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Word was received at the treasury department this afternoon that Inspector of Buildings Edward Omeagher died on Monday while en route to Montana on departmental business. Mr. Omeagher was one of the four Irishmen sentenced to be hanged in Manchester, England, for aiding in rescuing Col. Kelly and Capt. Deasy in 1862.

Scotland Neck Democrat. The Halifax postoffice seems to be a source of trouble to the republicans. Our postmaster is a republican and has been in the penitentiary and another is charged with selling his vote at the national republican convention for $200. It is said that the present postmaster was laid up when he left for that convention and when he returned he was "flush" and could meet bills and get and let.

Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin.

Central Office, Raleigh, N. C.

The following is the weather crop bulletin for the week ending Monday, September 12, 1892. The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather and Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina State Weather Service, for the week ending Monday, September 12, 1892, show that the past week has been unusually dry. The rain is reported to have been very light in most places. Light showers occurred on Monday evening and Tuesday morning. The temperature has been very high, with the maximum in Raleigh, N. C., being 94 degrees on Monday. A light rain fell on Tuesday, September 13, 1892, and a heavy rain fell on Wednesday, September 14, 1892. The temperature has been very high, with the maximum in Raleigh, N. C., being 94 degrees on Monday. A light rain fell on Tuesday, September 13, 1892, and a heavy rain fell on Wednesday, September 14, 1892.

Richmond Statistics. WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The census office is issuing a bulletin giving statistics for the year 1891. The population of the United States in 1891 was 62,628,266. The population of the United States in 1890 was 62,628,266. The population of the United States in 1891 was 62,628,266. The population of the United States in 1890 was 62,628,266.

Attacked by a Lion. We read in the Raleigh Star of a man who was attacked by a lion while hunting in the mountains. The man was severely injured and was taken to the hospital. The lion was killed and the man was discharged from the hospital.

Children in Europe Meeting. The children of the United States met in Europe to discuss the light against organized Democracy and members. Plans of the mass meetings held yesterday resolutions were passed in favor of Weaver and Field and the other organized Democracy.

Tornadoes in the West. News from the West reports that a tornado struck the city of St. Louis on Monday, September 12, 1892. The tornado was very destructive and caused many deaths and injuries. The damage to property was also very great.

THE COTTON CROP. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The cotton report of the Department of Agriculture indicates a large crop of the crop this year. The average is 78.8, against 82.7 last year. The average for North Carolina is 76.

Three Boys Drowned. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 10.—While bathing in the Tennessee river this afternoon Frank and Ralph Curtis and George D. Smith, young school boys, sons of prominent parents, were drowned. Dr. D. S. Curtis, father of the two first named, who were supposed to be in a futile effort to save them, was also drowned. The boys were in the river in a very rapid current of the river.

Johnson & Barber.

Nos. 108 and 110 Park Avenue, Formerly Main Street, RALEIGH, N. C.

DEALERS IN GROCERIES, WAGONS, CARRIAGES, BICYCLES, AND CANNES. FURNITURE A SPECIALTY.

We carry a large stock in all our lines with prices to suit the times. See us before buying elsewhere. Save money, and get honest goods. July 25, 1892.

YOUR CASE IS NOT HOPELESS. Electric. AIDS NATURE IN NATURE'S OWN WAY. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO INVESTIGATE.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

THE STATE ARCHIVE. RALEIGH, N. C.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

Johnson & Barber, Nos. 108 and 110 Park Avenue, Formerly Main Street, RALEIGH, N. C. DEALERS IN GROCERIES, WAGONS, CARRIAGES, BICYCLES, AND CANNES. FURNITURE A SPECIALTY.

We carry a large stock in all our lines with prices to suit the times. See us before buying elsewhere. Save money, and get honest goods. July 25, 1892.

YOUR CASE IS NOT HOPELESS. Electric. AIDS NATURE IN NATURE'S OWN WAY. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO INVESTIGATE.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

THE STATE ARCHIVE. RALEIGH, N. C.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.

Woolcott & Sons' 112 N. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C. June 25, 1892.