Last Monday and Tuesday mornings were the coldest this year, and made even the most doubting begin to believe in the ground hog tradition.

A few days ago Mrs. Robert Poe, of Oakland township, shot at and killed a large hawk with a pistol, as it was trying to catch some of her chickens.

Dr. John H. London, of Chapel Hill, will be at Pittsboro on Monday, the 12th of March, and remain three days, prepared to do any kind of dental work.

If you need a suit of clothes or a nice hat, W. L. London & Son will suit you either before or after. They want to close their winter stock before their annual stock taking, so now is your time to buy cheap for the cash.

W. H. Edwards, dentist, of Wake Forest, N. C., can be found in his office at Mr. Eklund's Hotel, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday following, from 10 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock in the evening, prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

The Pittsboro Lyceum will meet tomorrow (Friday) night at the residence of Mr. J. J. Jackson, and the selections for reading will be from Tennyson's poems and the subject for discussion will be "Arrogance, or the description of the heavens."

W. L. London & Son have received this week a nice lot of clover, timothy, berds grass and orchard grass seeds, which they will sell cheap. Our lot of Acid Phosphate on hand. W. L. London & Son's is headquarters for all kinds of plows and plow castings. Fresh Buist garden seed just received.

An Afflicted Family.—Mr. Thomas Johnson died near Backney's Cross Roads, in this county, a few days ago, with the grippe, and in a day or two afterwards his daughter also died with the same disease, and now her husband is quite sick. Mr. Johnson was about 82 years old, and was a very industrious and honest man, and lived on a reuter on the same plantation over forty years. He and his daughter were members of Mt. Giload (Baptist) church.

Superior Court.—The February term of the superior court of this county will begin next Monday. There is not much business to be done. On the issue docket are 27 cases, on the civil issue docket 20 cases, and the appearance docket 9 cases, and none of them are of much importance. Chatham has less law business than probably any other county in the State, in proportion to its population.

The presiding judge will be Hon. George A. Sanford, of Asheville, and this will be his first visit to our county.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Dr. Isaac Jackson, of Whiteville, accompanied by his wife and Miss Maggie McDaniel, is here on a visit to his old home, and his many friends are pleased to see him looking so well.

Miss Lina Cason, of Marion, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. T. Bland.

Mrs. Charlotte Grimes, of Grimesland, is here on a short visit.

We are pleased to learn that our former townsman, Mr. Ivey Hill, has been promoted to a $1200 clerkship at Washington, being the third time he has been promoted in two years.

Mr. G. W. May, Sr., who has been a revenue storekeeper in another county for several years, has returned to his old home.

Mr. Willie Headen has gone to Guilford College to attend school.

THE HARD TIMES.—Kind reader, just think a moment and say if you can remember any period of your life when some body was not complaining of "the hard times"? The very years that are now recalled as the "good old times" were then called "hard times," and thus it has been since the creation of the world and will continue to be through all time. And while it may be that the times now seem peculiarly hard and it is difficult to get hold of any money, yet we think that every intelligent man in Chatham must admit that in many respects the people of this county are really in a better condition than they have been in several years. While they may have less money now than at some other times, yet they now owe less than they once did. And we venture the assertion that the farmers of Chatham now have more corn in their smoke houses and more corn in their cribs than they have had in many a year.

Then why not look on the bright side of life, fully appreciate what we have, and think how much worse off we might be? It was only a few years ago that a large majority of the farmers in this county had to borrow money to buy western corn and meat. Certainly they are better off now than then.

Southern Pines.—For the first time we visited, on last Saturday, Southern Pines, the noted health resort in Moore county. We had hoped to meet there the Burgesses Corps and other distinguished visitors expected from New York, who were to spend an hour or two there on route to New Orleans, but their train being four hours late did not arrive until 5 o'clock, after our train had returned. But while we missed meeting them, yet the day was quite enjoyable, for the large crowd there was entertained with amusing sports, in which negroes were the participants. Several were blind-folded and given wheelbarrows to roll between certain points, and it was amusing to see how wide of the mark they would roll. Then there were foot races, in which they would jump over hurdles, or rather fall over them, for many a racer spread himself full length on the ground in his efforts to leap over the hurdles.

Saturday was the day for the first "round up" of the hunters during the "Week of Old Time Southern Sports," which had been extensively advertised to be held at Southern Pines, beginning on the 1st and ending on the 8th, and there was quite a large and attractive display of game exhibited as the trophy of the hunters, consisting of deer, foxes, wild turkeys, partridges, rabbits, &c.

This being our first visit to Southern Pines we felt some interest in learning all about it. As is well known it is a resort chiefly for Northern invalids who are afflicted with bronchitis and lung diseases. It is situated on a high sandy pine ridge, at an elevation of 600 feet above sea level, and the ozone from the surrounding pines is said to be very invigorating and health restoring. Many remarkable cures have been made, as is shown in the persons of many of its residents, who came there emaciated with consumption and are now as hearty and healthy as anyone would wish to be. One of these, Mr. R. M. Couch, the popular proprietor of the Hotel Ozon, told us that he came there from New Hampshire about five years ago with but little hope of surviving that dread disease, consumption, and now he looks as hale and hearty as any one. There are many very neat cottages, some of very striking architectural design, built and owned by Northern invalids, or rather who had been invalids but are now quite healthy. There are several hotels and all are said to be well kept. We can certify from personal experience that the "Ozone" is all right in every particular. A very large low house is now being built, which will be one of the largest in the South.

Not only has Southern Pines become famous as a health resort, but it is also becoming noted for its vineyards and orchards. The barren sand hills of the surrounding country, which were formerly considered worthless and unfit for cultivation, are now dotted with vineyards and orchards that are bringing in fortunes to their owners. Hundreds of acres have been covered with vines and fruit trees, which yield most profitable returns to their enterprising owners, and this industry is yet in its infancy compared with what it will be in a few years.

For the month. Letter From South Carolina.

ANDERSON, S. C., Feb. 3, 1894. Ed. Record: I will give you a little news about John C. Calhoun's farm. It is 14 miles from Anderson, and is the same county. They have a large college out there. It is an Agricultural and Mechanical college. It is one of the Governor's lobbies. They have six hundred students and four hundred were turned off for the want of room. It is a cheap school. It just started last year. They are furnished with military suit of clothes. It is called Calhoun college. Calhoun married Calhoun's daughter and when he died left the place for a school. That is the reason they named it after him. Calhoun's furniture is just as he left it. They have a large school in Anderson that has over a hundred scholars. This is a military school also. Then they have a female college here in Anderson. They believe in education, and it is a good thing, if they will apply themselves, for the colored population have lots of schools and they tell me they are more anxious to get an education than the whites. A man said he knew a rigger boy that walked five miles to school and back every school day. That rigger intends to have an education.

Well, the "blind tigers" are doing a big business in most all the towns and that makes Tillman mad. He has one hundred constables in Charleston at three dollars per day. That is nine hundred dollars per day, and yet the "blind tigers" are doing a fine business. Tillman's dispensary sells his whiskey for five dollars per gallon and they say it is the meanest whiskey that was ever made, but when they get "blind tiger" whiskey they will then try the other.

There is a man that keeps whiskey all the time, but sometimes they search his house but never find anything. He has got a concern, when the come to search his house, that he turns the crank of, and the whiskey runs out in his back lot. The Gov. says he will stop it if he has to call out all militia in the State, but he don't do everything he says he will. Poor South Carolina, I am sorry for her.

Anderson is building up very fast. When they go to build a house they have about ten hands and they put it up in about a week. All the lumber is first ready for putting right up. They finish the houses and give the owner the keys so much, and they are finished according to contract and I think that is the best way, and they work hard all day long and they do more in one day that way than if they were hired by the day.

I never saw a better time in my life. I am invited out somewhere every day and as I have nothing else to do I always go. They send me back in a carriage.

There are some very fine widows up here and they live in fine houses. I can't tell just when I will come home. Yours, R. G. EUBANKS.

High Point Enterprise: There is a man living near High Point who takes no interest in anything except his home affairs. He came back from the war without a cent. He had a large family and he went to work. He refused to take the oath of allegiance, has not voted since the war, and takes no interest in county, State or National affairs. When election time comes around he is deaf to all entreaties of his friends to go and vote. He is so raised his children and has plenty to do him in this world.

State News.

Winston Republic: We heard a gentleman this week tell about Joshua Hudson, of Newwood, Sturdy county, who is 99 years old and has been married three times, and has descendants numbering 325 children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He has never tasted a drop of medicine in his life. He is in good health and had good eyesight up to four or five years ago.

Charlotte Observer: Seven years ago Mr. W. D. Wallace, of Sharon, ran a long splinter in his foot. He picked, as he thought, nearly all of it out. At times, however, his foot festered and troubled him considerably, and he finally concluded that there must be part of the splinter still in his foot. Lately it has pained him so much and to such an extent that he came to town yesterday and had his foot examined by Drs. McManaway and Wilder. They cut the foot and found a large piece of the splinter or still in the flesh. It was removed, and Mr. Wallace will now, it is thought, have no more trouble.

Durham Sun: A highly sensational report comes from the neighborhood of Cole's mill, in this county. It is to the effect that a young married man by the name of John Devern, who leaves a wife and several children, eloped last night between 9 and 10 o'clock with Mrs. Viola Brown, who leaves a husband and three children. They left in a wagon and went in the direction of University station, and it is supposed that they took the early train going west. Both of these parties have been married twice before. It has created a considerable stir among their neighbors. [Devern was arrested at Greensboro and brought back to Durham.—Ed. Record.]

Beaufort Herald: The fishing and oyster industry of this place and Morehead City is an immense thing. The waters around here are equal to the gold mines of California. How many men in the county who depend entirely for their living by what they catch from the water. And here of late since the deep sea has come in to use boat leads are caught at one haul. Last week fishermen went inside of the bar and dropped their seines some of which are 200 yards long, and they would begin to haul in and take out the fish that would be entangled in the meshes, and before they would pull in half of the net the boat would be full and they would have to cut the seine in half and leave it for somebody else's boat. 200 tons of fish lately from head City one morning last week. We do not doubt but that the fishermen would get better prices for their fish if we had a better financial policy, but our people cannot complain of hard times as long as fish will run. Carter county is indeed the richest county in the State.

Killed His Father. GAITHERS, Ga., Feb. 4.—Clifford Thompson, a well known young deaf mute printer, killed his father, James H. Thompson, this morning by cutting his throat with a razor and inflicting two other cuts. The young man came to the station house at once and gave himself up to Chief Williams. He was soon surrounded by friends, some of whom could converse with him in the deaf-mute language.

He told his story briefly. He worked all 3 o'clock this morning, and when he got home was told by his mother and little sister that his father had been drunk the night before and treated his mother badly. This morning Thompson was still drinking and cursing and abusing his wife. The little sister appealed to Clifford to protect her mother, and he warned his father to let her alone. Clifford says his father drew a pistol on him and he cut him with the razor with which he was preparing to shave. His mother and sister witnessed the killing. No inquest was held. Clifford's story is not disputed.

Moonshiners Defying Tillman. SPECIAL TO THE CHATHAM OBSERVER. SPANISHBURG, S. C., Feb. 3.—A report comes from Reidsville, in this county, that moonshiners from the dangerous Glassy Mountain section, in Greenville county, have been stationed for several days in and around Reidsville, with wagon loads of whiskey, which they deal out to the whites. They make "no-homes" as to their business. The party of illicit whiskey sellers are armed to the teeth with Winchester, shot guns and pistols. Deputy Marshal Kirby has gone out to Reidsville to arrest the men if possible.

Burned to Death. MELROSE, Pa., Feb. 2.—Two children of James Seaton were burned to death and his wife frightfully burned in her efforts to save them from her burning home today. Mrs. Seaton went out for a few minutes, leaving the youngest child in a rocking chair and the other little one at play. On entering the door when she returned she was driven back by the flames, which enveloped the younger child. Seeing the other child at a window trying to get out she sprang to save it, but was overcome by her own terrible burns and fell in a swoon. Her reason is coming.

E. J. Fuller was convicted last week of the murder of Parker and sentenced to be hanged on the 10th of March, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court. Great interest was aroused at Fayetteville in the trial, and much sympathy is expressed for the prisoner.

When a person takes a cold it is not infrequently accompanied by a cough. Constant coughing if not relieved at once by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, it leads care for all such ailments, will weaken the patient, intensify the irritation covering the cough, and head-ache and fever are developed, often ending in inflammation of the sinuses.

Calvin Coley and Theo. Coley, colored, have both been convicted in the Franklin county Superior court of the murder of Tucker, the peddler, and are to be hanged next month.

For the Intelligent Voter the coming year will be fraught with more interest than a campaign. By what is done this winter the fate of parties and the history of government will be determined.

The most valuable paper that comes to this office is the New York World. Fearless and independent, working at all times for the best interests of the people, and never for the selfish ends of any ring or individual, supporting the right and condemning the wrong wherever found, it becomes a great power for good throughout the land. Its policy is defined by its well known motto: "Equal rights to all, special favors to none." The reputation of the Weekly World as an incomparable newspaper is fully established. It reaches for the very best and fullest news of the entire country, and gets it. The celebrated "Tariff Male" articles are again running in their weekly and are creating widespread attention. Its miscellaneous pages are replete with articles of valuable and interesting information to every one. It is a large 12 page, 8 column paper for only $1.00 a year. We have succeeded in making special arrangements by which we can furnish the Record and the Weekly World one year both for only $2.25. Address the Record, Pittsboro, N. C.
