THE RSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1894. H. A. LONDON, Editor.

Democrars, and especially Southern democrats, cannot afford to disvide and disrupt their party. Todo so would be worse than folly; it would be a crime and political suieide. And yet some prominent papore with their imprudent utterances are doing all they can, unwittingly it may be, to bring about such a calamity. For many years the democrats have been struggling to obtain control of the federal government. Not discouraged by repeated detents, but in each succeeding campaign rallying again to their standard, the democrats have at last secured the political supremacy in this country and are in control of the executive and legislative departments of our government And now, ween at shall we be guilty of the folly, of the action. iong continued struggles?
