

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1861.

LOCAL RECORDS.

—Now is the time to set your taxes. Don't delay it.

—One pair of mule-bags and a Nis-ten wagon for sale by B. Noss, Jr.

—A lot of coffee—walnut, oak and pine—for sale cheaply by B. Noss, Jr.

—Summer weather seems to have come at last, and winter clothing has been discarded.

—It seems to be generally conceded that the magistrates of Chatham did a good day's work on last Monday.

—Farmers are now busy harvesting their wheat and oats, and we regret to hear so many complaints about both these crops not turning out well.

—On last Tuesday night Mr. Harrison Pope and Mrs. Roxana Turner were married by the Rev. C. Bland at the bride's residence, at this place.

—Our recently elected town authorities have had considerable work done on the streets within the past week, thus verifying the old saying, "A new broom sweeps wide."

—A few days ago the dwelling of Mr. William Castleberry, of Williams township, placed of Mr. T. T. Brooks, removed to Greensboro, and Mr. G. W. Womble in place of Mr. J. M. Jordan, who was appointed by the Legislature and remained to serve.

—W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Byram on Monday evening, Tuesday, and Wednesday. On Wednesday, and Friday following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kinds of dental work, Office next to Byram & Son.

—Now but whether having you will need a man dressed in black and vest. You will find the Rev. W. L. London & Sons, also, their dress goods, nice hats, for 50 per cent. A large lot of gingham, calico, from 10c to 60c per yard. A bazaar of fairs.

—We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Joseph H. Central Hill, of Mr. Vernon Springs, who died Tuesday night after a long sickness, aged about 68 years. He was one of the most prominent citizens of his section and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

—If you want a new cloth you will find it at W. H. London & Sons' the finest lot of fabrics in this place. Groceries of all kinds, always the cheapest, 25 lbs flour 15c per pound. Another lot of hats, 10c to 50c and 60c. A very Avantie double shaved plaid best that was made.

—The many friends of the Union in La Grange, of every kind, will regret to hear of the death which occurred last winter. For several years he had been a member of their room, because of an affectionate eye. He was a most valiant, respected citizen, and a man whose Confederate soldier during the war.

—On East Saturday a colored man, Goldsmith, alias Soddy Shadman, attempted to hang himself. It is said that he had a quarrel with his wife, and in a fit of anger, went to a tree near his cabin and cut one end of a rope, fastened the other end around his neck, and was thus suspended until his wife saw him run and cut him down in an attempt to save his life.

—The Read Law.

In order that our readers may read the above-mentioned record, that was adopted yesterday on last Monday, we furnish it as follows:

The General Assembly of North Carolina.

—Sect. 1. That the board of commissioners and the board of justices of the peace of any county in the State, before session, at any regular meeting, or at any meeting called by the board of commissioners of any county, may, by a majority vote, adopt an alternative method of assessing and keeping in repair the public roads in such county, as hereinafter provided.

—Sect. 2. That the board of commissioners and board of justices of the peace, at any of said meetings, may provide for a fund for the construction and keeping in repair said private roads by levying an assessment, by way of ad valorem tax, not exceeding fifteen cents on the hundred dollars valuation upon all property in such county subject to taxation for State and county purposes, whether such property belong to citizens of incorporated towns or otherwise, and said board of commissioners and board of justices of the peace shall also levy, in case said property tax is levied, a poll tax upon all persons not exempted as provided by law not exceeding forty-five cents, which shall be included in a separate column on the tax book, and shall be collected by the sheriff or other tax collector of such county; as other taxes are collected, and which taxes shall be kept separately and shall constitute, when collected, the county road fund, to be expended only in the construction and repair of the public roads of such county.

—Transcript, that this section shall be construed so as to allow said board of commissioners and board of justices of the peace to adopt the provisions of this act at any time, notwithstanding they may have at any previous meeting rejected the same.
