The Chatham

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1895.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

The passenger train on the Chatham railroad leaves Moncure daily, except Sunday, at 10.30 a. m. and 3.45 p. m., making close connection at Moncure with the train that leaves Raleigh at 9 a. m.

—Look out for the blue X mark and renew your subscription.

—Bynum & Headen have the celebrated Landreth's garden seed for sale.

—Call on John L. Cornwell for a nice shave and hair cut, and for confectioneries.

—T. B. Fowler will have for sale at his stable, next week, 35 mules, broken and unbroken.

—When you come to court next week be sure to renew your subscription to the Record. If you do not come, send it by some neighbor.

—If there be any truth in the old ground-hog tradition there will not be much more wintry weather, for on last Saturday the sun shone only a few moments late in the afternoon.

—If you want your eyes correctly and properly fitted call on S. Rapport, optician, at Mrs. Price's home where he can be found till the 15th inst. Greatest care in adjusting glasses for children. Eyes tested free.

—W. H. Edwards, druggist, will visit Bynum on Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, before the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kind of dental work. Office next door to Bynum & Headen.

—On last Friday night the revenue officers made a raid in the edge of Moore county, near Cape Fear river, and destroyed an illicit still and about 1,000 gallons of beer. They also arrested two men, Hector McNeill and Ben Cameron (colored), who were found at the still.

—Remember you can get the W. L. London & Son prices on pots and boards to cover roofs. They will sell these goods very low for cash to make room for the spring stock which is beginning to arrive. They will receive their stock of spring calicoes next week.

—If you need a good buggy, speed wagon or cart, W. L. London & Son will sell you one at prices so low that they will astonish you. Remember W. L. London & Son sell the genuine Oliver chilled plow, the best plow made. They have reduced the price on these this season, for cash, to $2.50 each.

—If you want to get more than the worth of your money go to Bynum & Headen's to buy anything you want. They keep everything at the lowest prices. They are offering great bargains in clothing and dress goods. Coats worth $5.00 for $3.00, Dress goods worth 50c for 25c. Dress goods below cost of importer's price. When you come to town be sure to give them a call.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Tim. Tyson friends of Capt. L. R. Ellington will be pleased to hear that he has been promoted to the position of Inspector of the watchmen in the Interior Department at Washington.

Among the young lawyers licensed by the Supreme Court on last Monday were Messrs. S. S. Alston and W. I. Poe, of this county, to both of whom the Record extends hearty wishes for a brilliant career in their chosen profession.

Mr. H. F. Norris and family, of Apex, have been here on a visit to Mrs. A. P. Cross.

Mr. Lewis Rollins, of Chalk Level, is here on a short visit.

We regret to learn that Senator Wickersham is not well.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The February term of the superior court of this county begins next Monday and will continue during the week. There are not many cases either on the civil or criminal docket, nor any of them of much importance, the most important being a civil action transferred from Moore county, which, however, will probably not be tried at this term.

This will be a decidedly reformed court, for all its officers—Judge, Solicitor, Clerk and Sheriff—were elected at the last election as reformers. The Judge is the Hon. L. L. Green, of Watauga county, and this will be the third court held by him since his election, his first two courts having been in Durham and Granville counties, where he seems to have made a favorable impression. We trust that he will make the like favorable impression here.

OLD CITIZEN DEAD.—The many friends of the venerable Jordan Tyson will regret to hear of his death, which occurred at his residence in Oakland township, on Tuesday of last week. In his death Chatham loses her oldest citizen, for he had arrived at an age that is rarely allotted to mortal man, having been born on the 1st day of May, 1797. Yes, he would have been 98 years old next May, and yet until two years ago he retained his physical and mental health unimpaired to a remarkable degree. In August, 1892, when he was 95 years old, we remember seeing him at Gulf, where he had ridden four miles to hear Senator Vance speak, and when he returned at the head he could have heard it clearly.

For many years before the war, as well as during and after the War, Mr. Tyson was one of the most prominent and influential citizens of this county, and for many years was a member of the Board of County Commissioners. He was also a member of the Legislature from this county in the session of 1858-'59, and was a member of the Constitutional Convention which framed the present Constitution of North Carolina in 1868.
