TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

$1.50 PER YEAR Strictly in Advance.

As the Snow Drifts By, Billed the sedge's dying quiver,

As the snow drifts by Stilled the palpitating river, As the snow drifts by , Silled the monthly, to sing westlands, Chilled neath ley too in the moorlands, Dulled and dimmed the distant stariands As the snow drifts by,

Life is obling stowly, slowly, As the snow drifts by Drifting o'er me white and hely, Drifting slowly by ; Peace with assess seather pain's sorrow, Skies all levt a glories terrow. From life's golden great to-morrow,

As the snow drifts by,

Love is drawing near and nearer, As the snow drifts by — Faith's sight growing clear and clearer, As the snow drifts by, see doubt, faith, all braisest and bleeding Justice—increy, blindly plendiet; Dull defeat—leve interesting,

Love is drawing near, and nearer, As the snew drifts by: Love is calling clear, and clearer, As the snow driles by Out beyond the silent westlands, Out beyond the ley morrowds, Out beyond the e-dd-swept starbands;

As the show dritts by, this ago R word,

CHERRIE'S LECTURE.

DV MAT CHIM.

tilt's a slome of burning shapeto allow this noble place to go to runn! We have been living here five years, and all that time he has been wanderthe in some foreign country material in the path that divid all her father's place from the Leven property.

She had an inconvenient helpit of speaking out her thoughts when alone, or when she thought here it alone, but this time she had an and to. "So it is," said a low voice behind her.

And wheeling quickly round, she confronted a tall, bronted, gray-eyed

He took off his hat with a courteours

"Where is this reprehensible young man?" he impaired. She shook her head.

"I do not know, At the Antipodes, probably," she replied "It is, or some to be, nivery good piece of property," each the stranger, learning against the roof; will at the side of the path and taking a view of the house and lawn and orelards.

"It is a beautiful place, but easily neglected," said Cherrie, indignation overcoming reserve.

"Perhaps be thought agents would attend to it, and take care of it."

"He had no right to think sof. He ought to have remained at home hanwelf !" said Cherrie, hothy.

"You take a great interest in the place?" with a momentary glance at her. She flushed slightly,

"I do. The neglige of this beautiful home ters been my pet grievance for years. I hear that Mr. Lyon, in tends coming home some time soon." "Well, better late then What would you have him do? "

"Dismiss his Tize agents and take charge of affairs himself!" she errod, asked, with bright, sparkling eves, "Oh, I would like to lecture him - even I, intell him life has duties as well as pleasures, and we cannot always consult our own desires. This is his home, waving one slim, brown hand toward the mausion, Card he should not neglect it and let it fall into decay and ruin. He could come ograsionally, even if he had to go away again."

The listener opened his gray eyes a trifle wider, and stole a glanes of deeper interest at the girl's animated

"Mr. Lyon has certainly missed a great deal in not knowing you," he said, in his low, lazy wore. "I presume you live near here?"

"Yes " she said, comic and and dealy remembering what she had almost forgotten that she was talking to a strange young man.

hurried down the path and through a little back gate into her own domain.

The young man impered a little longer by the wall, in the cool shade of the apple trees, looking thought-

"You need a beture, Mat Lyon, and jest as severe a one as this girl is capable of giving," he muse I, enapping a twig with fingers whiter than many a giri's.

home; but she had hardly hung up her hat in the hall, when Liting, he sister, opened the partor door and came dancing out in an animated Lelian acid about my voiting Ref?"

The Chatham Record.

VOL. XVII.

PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., MARCH 7, 1895.

"Oh, Cherrie! guess who has called on us this morning! He came over to see papa, and then he come into the parlor and talked a long time." "Mr. Bushley?"

"Mr. Lyon!" Cherrie cehood, stupidly, a dark-red flush mounting to owls," her fac.,

"Yes, Mr. Lyon. He came home yesterday, and he is perfectly churms ing -tall, and with the loveliest gray eves, and --"Gray eyes!" gusped poor Cherrie, with a dreatful studing at her heart.

"Yes; and the most polished man- frankness, ners. Now, Cherrie, he is coming again this evening. Pray do not say anything rade, or make one of your ris, instead of her fairer sister, but awful binnsters!"

But, with a grown, Cherrie rushed up stairs. She had already mode the greatest blunder of ail. She tried to of mankind, and as alon to see the rocall what she had said to that grays truth. Saturday Night. eyed stranger down by The Wall, but the more she thought about it the worse she feit.

It cortainly can sel her to behave in as follows: a very subduct manner that evening, though her cheeks new crimson when the a strong astringent, and though Mr. Lyon does not deserve it, ought her father infronteed her to Mr. used medicinally, can leadly be taken not to have it, unless be will uppress Lyon, and she met the laushing in any quantity habitually by most clate it more them he has in the past, glamer of the sene hands one, express people size eyes she list made aequesistance 350 and Littley were very written, living at home and taking care of his Lehan was fair and phromonal profession a not plate, a waite vapor slowly property. It's a disine, I win!" said while Cherrie and Sender and brown, Cherrie Blount, alon I, and stapping and dependent more on expression then features for her beingte.

There were some people who liked for face the feet, waite others ofpetred Lillian's fair fees and punk-and Liting's friends were all months. The direct the vilaces but all the poor old people and the children know Cherrie, and bloom! her as the kindat, sweetest-tempered miderth refe is a strange gert and takes r great many spicer functes in her head," said Lillian, to Mr. Leen, with an apologethe are. Wiley visitionshift and even includes all the old vagrants. have other qualities as well, and to be of respectible appearance enters the arouted tooks

Chorne but her lip, flushed, and

Lily, dear. My humble afforwarenest posibly interest Mr. Lyon," "I think you might be a little kind-or to me, said Mat.

hine all she could.

He settle I down at home, dismissed the agents, and took charge of his property himselt. Workmen were were put in exquisite order.

after his ratura, he met Cherrie in -Good Words, the path down by the roe's wall again. She would have harried by him with the brostest mood-morning but he scorped right before her.

done to offend you, Carrier" he erreie. He expressed himself as struct.

"Then why do you treat me as every day their treated as though I height, at is not so easy tounderstand, vere a veritable placate."

Her face flamed up. Leaguest bear to be Involved at, and I have not forgotten how I talked to and "the enormous expanditure you the first time I - in you."

He smiled. words set me to thinking, and I found that the aboriginal man was so slow Come, look now, and see the change cases, when he happened to be at you have wrought in my home or work with a particularly lord and renet Will you, Charrie?" She stood affent, her face drooming, der that shielding hat-bring. "You are a good wirl, Cherrie-kind erenture that essues near you. Have right to lecture merevery day, I' "Sir, you are boughing at mel" snatching away the hand he had very much shorter than was formerly clasped, with an indignant flesh of supposed, New York Times.

Then all at ones her mouth tremblod, her eyes filled with tears.

"You are very unkind, sir, to-But he stopped the broken little to mevespeech with kisses, and plended his. Rabinos-Em awfully sorre, dear, now my well she had to believe him.

Bat 1-1 am not a suitable wif-He laughed.

"Yes. And have I not been going to see your old people and your rarg god children? And everywhere I have heard nothing but praises of you. If you eannot or will not be my wife, "Bah! that old man! No; Mr. I will have no wife. I will shat up this house and go away again, and it muy become the home of lests and > "I cannot allow that," smiling and looking over toward the lovely house awaiting her,

> "Then you must give me heart and

"Heart you have already, and here is my hand," faltering, yet with

The possips of the village were somewhat astoniched that it was Cherclusions

They are short-sighted as the rest

Analysis of Tea.

Attenuets have been made to deter-"What a modifing idiot he must mine which of the constituents of tea have then lift med. How he must have are responsible for the physiological laugh it? she thought, hiding for effects, both bull and good, attributed searly (see in the pollows of her led, | to its me, but as yet they are for from "I hope this will cure my be diese complete. The peneral conclusions section for howevers, may be summed up

Tannin is, of course, w. Il known to

If a few fin by powdered ter Jeaves are placed on a water class, govered with a juper cap and the glass placed rises and condensus in the cup in the form of endopiest needle genous substance theine, the netive principle of tea-

The oil which is supposed to give ten its flavor, is of a lemon yellow color, and has a strong smell like that of the templant. It is undoubterly the oil which has abrania; results as those instanced by: the writers of a landrel years ago, but which, in smaller quantities, helpto make the so refreshing. According to some authorities, trobic has somemore truly autritions. Encretore, what we want in the ten we drink is no tunnin as possibles.

Now, the their is discolved out of the leaves much more quickly than the tunnin, and thus we see the reason pot in which to put the leaves and rebetter still, of pooring the infusion sugged, and the house and grounds, off the leaves into another pot. Either And one day, two or three months on the leaves more than five minutes.

Lapps Resemble the Japs. Positivey Bigelow, who is fairly fasly and persistently? What have I these people who live near the arctic by the resemblance of the Lappa to "Nothing at all," she replied, the Japanese. It is the small stature able. If food and privation should ernelly? I would rather be because I make the Lapps to be wanting in save from pseuliarities of race, why the Japanese are of the same low stature, "Throw it is a stilly weakness, but Mr. Bigelow called attention to the spaces and knower purde by the Lappes, time and labor spent by incivilized races in the making of simple tools, "Nother have I, for your indicated. We are by no means certain today out I was an fille, selfish fellow, in fashioning his tools, save in special sur home, if you will share it with asting substance. An interesting series of practical experiments does just been mode. The same tools the And bending his head, he tooked any Indian used served their purpose, and the rough material was precisely of fully, to turn out the finished impleome pity on me, dear, and take the ments. It was found that the time pressure for the behoning of the axe, or coronomial tool, or pape was

An Incentive.

Mrs. Robbins John, Lilon't think I will get up to day, I had too weak

By the way some one his inten the house across the street, and is going

Mrs. Robbins John, I gives I will get up after all.

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

THE PEN DOCKINGS OF THE PAGE The sun is climbing in the sky, We're glad to know Days will be longer by and by, And beliebler grow.

The sun is glimbing in the sky, The snow will go; Days will be warmer by and by, And floriers will prose.

-Youth's Companion.

AN UNEXPROPED THE

Two Delaware boys have just returned from an involuntary voyage to Europe. They went out fishing in the Delicence River, and, a for coming up emblenty, could not find their way to shore. After drifting for two hours torm came up and the best was driven before it all night. When morning came and the storm ended the love were out of sight of land, and with no idea where they were. So they prudentity made no effort to go anywhere, and finally were rewarded by the sight of a steamer. As it came closer they hoisted sigmals of distress, and were picked up by a v-oi bound from Philadelphia to Hamburg. The boys were certical to Handwag because the stram-hip only malited oth r vessels at a distance. Of course the boys worked their power, and did so well that when they returned to Philadelprid them a smedl our for their serviews - Golden Days

Pomp vas a large mastriff owned by a man in Orange, N. J., and Federa's lattle but of a dog, which is the property of the children of the household erystals. Those erystals are the nitro- called, are great friends and almost constant companions. A very needtestured dog is Pomp, though his size makes him Jeared by the tramps wis stop at the gate now and then. He cans happen to be a loop, when the transpectates alone, but Fid's barkin would be certain to wake him, an the effect on the nerves, and give such then he would simply look at the fellow standing at the gate. That would be enough. There is som thing it that back of his which would emusany variational to be state about oron ing the gare. But Pours never dis embraces a great variety of people, what the same effect, but it seems to turbs bracelf when any person yard; and Fid, who is disposed to back at any and every person who much theire as we can get, a little oil opens the gate, is so promotly rebuied en lest a more interesting subject. For the sake of the flavor, and as little. By the big dog's quiet manner and inquiring glance that he quickly changes his morner and runs with wagging toil to great the visitor. Nor . Pompent all quarrelsome. He meets other dogs But she made a point of avoiding for the rapidly increasing custom of on the street in a dignetical manufer, using a perforated holder in the teas paying no attention to the ear was presumes to lark at him, and exmoving this after a few minutes, or, changes polite salulations, in dog language, with those who are his equals in blood and breeding. The way the boiling water should not stand | only fight in which Pomp is known to have engaged took place one day this week, and it was all on Fid's account. Test Hashins, who claims the largest ownership in Fid, took the little fel low with him one afternoon, when he miline with the Lappe, at a recent was sent on an errand. Test's errand "No, you shall not run away this meeting of the Volting Code in Least was to a stable, and as he entered the show a borne does which was best there propert that and serve the cooks. But is allow rather severe treatment before he manned to save himself by run-

Ted had not finished his errand at the stable when Fid came back, as companied by Pomp, and entered the place as bold as a lion. The stable doe so care at him immediately, as if to tear him to bleeds, but he had rockened without his heat this time. B fore-list wavenry way near. Fid he was arzed by Pomp, who got a good grip at the back of his neck and shook him well mutil the stableman interfered. The stable dog then attempted to resent the result offered him and showed field, but Pomp got him by the neck again after a short encounter and say interference this time. When Pomp dropped him he slank away, as if aslumed of himself, and Pomp started off home as tuil of dienity as was case tomary, and with Fid playing around him, wagging his tail, perhaps in halt, but more probably in pride over the victory that had been won. When Ted rold me the story he said: "Now, don't you suppose that Fid told Pomi all about that does at the stable and brought Pemp down on purpose to tussh him?" It certainly looked so, and that is what I told Ted,

A Record.

"How are you getting along with your new servant girl?" asked the

"Our new servant girl?" repeated the hesters with some indignation in her week. "Why, she has been with us tour days!"-Washington Star.

MADAGASCAR.

Has Sent an Expedition.

Its Queen is Bound to Wed Her Prime Minister.

bers berseen 100,000,000 and 500,000, the lever. mm, divided into numerous tribes, the highlands called Imerus. the Portuguese, who moment it St. forations, and the dough, forced Lawrence. The French have coveted around them, is transformed into holit ever since 1112, when a company low tubes in exactly the same way that called the Societe de l'Orient was the housewife shapes her doughants. formed under the patronage of Care. The mearons is est off in lengths of dinal Richelies, with the object of ten feet and ining to dry apon-worslen colonizing it; but all sit imply at cone frames before it is put on the market. con-1 have been me-more soul.

By the treaty of Pages (1811) a nonher of Freuch - 01 wents on the east coast became British, as dependenceof Mauritin , then eved, and to thes was added on 1815 a portion of the nearth-not consequenting Port Leagues and Diego impres. In 1815 diplomatic and commercial relations were entered into between Great Bernan and Radama I., King of the Rosas, who was neknowledged as a consign of the whole island. By the means concluded between the British and Malamay in 1865 the same title of supre many was accorded to Oreen Resolusing, and he the Establish Malaysia treaty of 1838 to her successor, Rama-

By the treaty of 1885 Transco obtained the Port of Diego Sparez as a anval station. The Malagusy Government has a ways declined to admit the political rights claimed by France, although Great Britain formally reconnized the French prot ctorate over the

Although all the nets of the governmention done in her hance. Hannya-Iona Nanjaka III., the present Queen of Madagaseur, has no political unthority. She reigns, but her hasband, Runtiala Rivony, the Prime Minister, rules. He succeeded his cider brother as ruler of the island, after a coup Wetat in 1831. In 1881, on the death of Renavalona D., he causal the Princess Bazathalrahety to the throne, ignoring the claims of her obler sister, who was noted for her in-

The Prince of who was then twentyone years of age, had a few months previously lost her husband, Prince Ratrono, and was in desperately craitened eireamstanc -. The prope to of the family was such, in fact, that her uncle had to earn his livelihosel as a lor cher. Raintlana Rivony, who was lifty-five years old, married her me own as she had assumed the royal dignity, in accordance with an invariable custom obtaining in the fair chance for disappearing, and see ishaid. By when the Queen is bound | what he will do. to marry the Prime Manister.

Take all the Haymethe Oreen invers intelligent. She was educated by name of the Erench Order of St. Joseph of Cluny, but was subsequently converted through the influence of the Anglo

Of late years great efforts have been needs to improve the army on European methods. According to a British officer who during the operations against the French in 1881 85 served with General Wildoughby, common b er-in-chief of the Hoya army, the 14,000 men, armed with the Saider ride. Their artillery resists of two battern sof four seven pound mounted gunsceach, which can be splaced on a war footing of six guns, and six butteries of six formelled Gattines gross each weapon fitted with a feed machine to carry 8,000 pounds, New York

Where Macaroni is Prepared, Macaroni is largely made by ma chinery in this country, but there are still the little Italian bakeshops where the tubular paste is prepared by hand much as it was in those old days when the Sicilians got their customs and tracel their blood to the maritime Greeks. In a certain small bakery in Bloocker street, the proprietor of which comes from themes and bears a historic name, you will see the succulent exhibitors turned out with a sing pineity which smacks of the bowlingli aud the wheat mortar stage of bread-

Tables are set in front and the show window is decked with the most men. Wrshington Star, tempting confections of Roman taste; ! but there is a larger room in the rear. and there you will find two Italians The Big Island to Which France with barelarms gending and cracking the hard Dakota wheat, sifting it with a revolving research to separate the broken kernel from the bean, and knew ling the mass with astroit wooden block until it is like just a The wheat has been excefully washed Madagasear, which has given rise to nt the start, and if the day be fine, much excitement in Europe. France dried in the sun. After it has been having sent an expedition to suislue broken up and thomped for an hour the natives, is the third largest island, the dough a taken out and placed in in the world, and is situated to the a cylinder with a perforal dibettom. east of the African continent, from A plunger is placed on top of the which it is separated by the Mozanis cylinder, and the whole available loque Channel. The population num- force of the shop bend their weight to

NO. 28.

From out the perforated bottom got craing one of which is Hove, its dozens of macatom tubes start writeinduting a province of the entired girns toward the floor. Lettle plus, a triffe smaller than the holes and hel-The island was discovered in 1500 by in place by pure, half close the per-- New York Mull and Express

Testing Bridges,

The life of treat bridges is considered by some as unitarity it provided tincy are well careal for, while other oncharge believe it to be from 19thy to 100 years. The great cost of the renewal of iron bridges remiterant maportant to determine acceptable as prea de when a structure small to be reioniii. A more ocular inspection is: not sufficient to do they and perceit cally repeated measurements, with the bely of instruments, become indispen-sable.

The deflection is frequently newured in the following manner: A piece of paper on a board its fastened for a trees in the center. Amount it is plue of the point of a pened, which is duck through a vertical planta place i doneside, and the point describes a vertical line on the paper when the bridge if theets under a load. But the results are inscentate, as the leading of the line senuor be measure Lexactly, and expensive temperary staging it nerseary. This method has been improved in various respects.

A narrow plank and peneil have been susmen lest from the trues, turnong on a lange. Before and with r the loading the penericle made to describe arrane on a fixed piles of papers. The distance between the axis, which can be measured more assurately than a time, gives the deflection. A steel point and a zine plateure - proposed moteral of the new land paper. Certain engineers record the deflection, on a readviter paper-covered cylinder, and other- run a wire; which is fishened to a weight of about sixt sites pounds over a sheave turning a handrecombining generated source. Paying and Manteipal Fagine ring,

How the Mole Tunnels.

Pine, the wrighting and restrict life the energies muon the ground, on a spot where the ground to not unversemently hereby so that he may have a The instant he tenches the earth, down goes too need technic nervously here and there for a place to start his dfill. In about one record he has found a suitable sout. His recovering to Protestantism, the State religion, into the soil as if it were a brial asd, with a half boring and ball partition motion, and unanameters best your mole's hard is larged troca view. Now watch sharply, or he will be out of eight helpro voit see how he does it. Up comes his powerful make foot, sliding close along the sade of his herd, straight forward, colocules, to the end of his nose. His five-pointed. chisel cuts the earth vertically until it. reaches as far forward as his their reach will let it giv; then, with a quies motion, he pries the earth endo case from his nowe, and to make quate an opening. Instantly the feft foot does the came thing on the other side, and meanwhile the could sports ed ness has gone right on boring. In fixe occounts, by the watch, his body is entirely out of sight, and only he funny little tail can be seen. In three minutes be will tunnel a foot, if he is at all in a forey to get on in the world St. Nicholas.

Breaking It Gently.

"Really, Mr. Scalate," she prorested, "you invegicen me four hours of your valuable time this evening." "Why-er-upon my word! So I have. The hours pass like minutes when I am with you." "You were telling me that sine, year promotion your time is valua-

"Well, page doesn't allow me to necent expensive presents from young

One square, one insertion- - $1.00
One square, two insertions - 1.50 One square, one month -

For larger advertisements liberal con-

Capid's Arrows,

Chanced to spy Dan Capid sleeping; Long the carious mailen stood

To the the part the branches peculia,

Now the bay's eyes open wide;

And upon the much be guess Gross an arrow at his side,

Said the master turns to flee

Weight has in it - flerly a tree-

Copid, with sleep-duzzled eyes,

Then adopts the wood he rushes,

Now the short vertales the quarry, Now it siemes poor Phoenes hear Muidens, ere were kerks Level, Tarry

"To pr., her face backs comething." "Well, when I saw her last it had

"Billians is one of the most popular tion in town " "Who is your author-

Which is the turnilist year of a none's lite? Answer when he is forty. Because in that your he is bound to Women - I hear he has a juste in the Mattendia. Sincl. When Steve proposed to me he noted like a lish and of water.

11 - You would be a bargain, my dear, on any counter.

girl, "I want his plays,"

Just as the ways droop and finle, Just as the big mad drops with third, is essential successional shado, Turns from its white and brings as mind, Little Gregory-Papa, why do you sign checks with the aword. "By the way, in Miss Higgins at bland or brum the?" "Let me see:

Charese Emperor (nervously) --What news? Official-Japan is now anxions for peners. Emperor (gloom-who wanted more than my daughter's Mrs. Newconser-Is there a green green in the neighborhood? Mr.

Mr. Heshful-If you were going to invite a young lady to the theatre how would you be mi? Mr. Swiftly-By the taskets. Mr. Smit. "I fired an old ex barber to true my Janu the other day, and Behold the religious fathers.

Requesting the brate to the alter.

And the bride and the greening or that fine an Ired built, to which be replied, "Whohever you see two cows lying down in a field, the one find is standthey up is the bull."

"Why, your sign reads: 'All bills paid on the 10th" "Yes; but that refers to the feath mouth, my friend, think less of a woman who was tongue bosom after the blooful question had been asked. And am I the only weman you ever loved? Well, yes-successfully, he whispered in her en-elegated ent. Young Smears, for his great picture of "The Blind Beggar and the Distempered Dog," got a real blind man from the streets for a model. After the last sitting the begger remonstrated thusly: "Beggin' you pardip", sir, but is my nose quite as red an Chatham Record.

BATES

ADVERTISING

One square, two insertions -

For the youngster slips she yearn Trit, the bennehes parting slyly, She to divise her thirst that burned

And his suver term meralies

Stares a moment through the bushes Where the laughting maid still flies,

James B. Empyonera the Contary,

HUMOROUS.

about all it could stand "

tye: "Billius louselt."

taying Skeleton -What's the mattor with the glass-gater today? Fat Trique. Why shouldn't he? He knew he was comput. She - findeed, sir, I haven't reached the matrimonal Pargain-counter yet!

"Did you say you wrated Shakespears's works?" asked the book store elect. "No," replied the haughty say the peak is more powerful than the Papa Beenuse you cannot Thursday, Ecoby, Saturday - this must be one of her blonde days," ily .- Yeers but now big a piece? Suitor I have come to ask for your daughter, sir." Father-Take her, young man. You are the only one

Newcomer-L guess not. I have tried them all, and they won't sell any goods powning my watch for enough to get

he asked me if I would have it sham

Ab. Juck, did your rich old unclo inverted a clause requesting his excemiors to codest at once all the loans he had made me.

"You're too early with that bill."

and the year is new yet." Mrs. Enjace - I can't understand her a man can love a woman who has a physical deformity, can you? Enper -Oh; I don't know: I shouldn't that there?"