

OUR "REFORM" MAGISTRATES.—Through the courtesy of Senator Wicker the Record is able to publish the list of new magistrates just appointed by the Legislature for the several townships of this county, as follows:

Albion—S. P. Teague, W. A. Lineberry, D. C. Cox, W. B. Stout, W. H. Swain.
Barnwell—Selmon Durham, P. A. Ferguson, A. W. Newwood, A. J. Lambeth, C. W. Justice.
Bear Creek—Lujan Moon, Ira Phillips, S. P. Willett, R. W. Kidd, J. H. Bonnet.

Camden—John Gosser, Mumford Mann, W. B. Wilkie, J. A. Parham, H. C. Long, A. N. Yarbrough.
Cataula—William Hatfield, Joseph E. Euland, Wayland Moore, N. S. Webster, P. N. Postle, G. A. Thomas.
Cedar Grove—J. H. Burke, Gran Hatch, G. C. Coggin, S. G. Norwood, R. W. Taylor.

Hamlet—Henry Jones, Ira Braxton, Orlando Lillard, Solomon Lewis, Thomas Andrews.
Hawkinsville—N. B. Dunlap, T. E. Carroll, W. C. Burke, T. R. Green, E. V. Cheek.
Milledgeville—J. W. McAdams, J. P. Darr, W. W. Edwards, S. J. Perry, N. R. Dixon, John Adcock.
New Hope—J. M. Farrell, T. A. Blain, M. E. Mann, J. C. Davis, C. F. Pendergrass.

Oldfield—B. R. Hayward, Carson Johnson, W. B. Burns, A. W. Wicker, John H. Tisor.
Pittsboro—B. R. Bargar, J. M. Rigbee, H. C. Williams, M. T. Horton, H. F. Farrington.
Of course all the above named magistrates are "reformers" strictly in the sense of the word, and therefore they must necessarily be the very best and most eligible citizens of Chatham. But while this may be true, though we do not assert it, while they may be much better qualified for the position of magistrate than all the other citizens of their respective townships—yet their appointment provokes the utter hypocrisy and insincerity of our Douglas legislators.

Why? Because in the first place, they contended during the campaign that the people should elect their magistrates, and not the Legislature. Yes, one of their greatest "reforms" promulgated was the election of magistrates by the people instead of by the Legislature, and yet here is a list of 61 new magistrates, all elected by the Legislature, and not one by the people of their respective townships!

In the next place our "reformers" argued most strongly during the campaign, the importance of having a "non-partisan judiciary"; that is, judges of all parties, of either white or colored parties. And yet here are 61 judges appointed in Chatham, and nearly every one a pronounced partisan supporter!

Yes, these magistrates are judges and will have only judicial powers; that is, jurisdiction to try petty cases. All their other powers have been taken away by this "reform" Legislature. For instance, they can not meet with the county commissioners for any purpose, as our magistrates have heretofore done; nor will they have any voice in the management of the county's affairs. Therefore the above named magistrates may be termed Chatham's "non-partisan judiciary".

Shook Law Function.—In closed session with a petition for that purpose, the county commissioners have ordered an election to be held on the 29th day of this month, at Newborn Dixon's harness shop, in Albion township, for the purpose of voting on the establishment of the stock law in the territory embraced within the following boundaries:

Beginning at a point where Geo. W. Coble's eastern boundary line strikes the Alamance county line, running with said Coble's, W. S. Swain's and William Hineshaw's line south to William Hineshaw's south-east corner near Wm. Cotner's house, thence east along public road with said Cotner's outside fence and around his outside fence south across the Pleasant Hill road, thence south-east to Sallis Hornady's outside fence west of the Pleasant Hill meeting house spring, thence easterly with said Sallis Hornady's outside fence to Ben. Hineshaw's outside fence, thence around to the old Fayetteville road, thence with said road south to the west end of John A. Fogelman's lane, thence with the road east through said Fogelman's and A. G. Wright's lanes and on with Wright's fence to a point at or near the end of the lane south of Christopher Teague's house, thence south east to the north-west corner of James Stuart's outside west fence, thence south easterly to John A. Stuart's south-west corner, thence east to David Stephens' west outside fence, thence south and east with said fence to Thomas McPherson's outside fence north-west corner, thence south to the corner of said fence, thence in an easterly direction with said fence to the south-west corner of James Griffin's fence, thence in a southeast direction with said fence to the road, thence south with Columbus Moon's fence along the road to the south-west corner of his field, thence east with Columbus Moon's and Daniel McBeane's fences to the south-east corner of Daniel McBeane's field, thence south to the south-west corner of Nathan Boggs land, thence east to Joseph Dark's south-west corner of his south field, thence east and north with the said Dark's outside fence to the north-east corner of said fence, thence in a north-east direction to William Marshall's field, south-west corner of his fence, thence east with said fence to the corner, thence east to the west end of William Marshall's lane, thence north with the said Marshall's outside fence to Joseph Johnson's south line, thence east with the said Marshall's and Johnson's line to Betsy Clark's west line, thence in a north-east direction, to the south-west corner of Betsy Clark's field outside fence, thence in an easterly direction with said fence to John Clark's fence on the south side, thence east and north with said fence to the east-north-east corner, thence west with said fence to the south-east corner of Stronon Pace's near John Clark's tobacco barn, thence in a westerly direction with said Pace's outside fence to Aaron McPherson's line stock law fence.

All the qualified voters residing within the above described territory are entitled to vote on this question, and will have to be registered before voting. Mr. W. F. Vestal has been appointed registrar of voters, and Messrs. H. P. Stout, T. P. Albright, Monroe Branch and Job Stuart are appointed poll-keepers.

Richmond Bachelors.—Richmond, N. C., March 12, '93. Winter is still upon us. The total eclipse of the moon was on full tide Sunday night and put in a good job.

How's another of those democratic ones. The wicker S. J. Emerson, of Richmond, has a cow that brought a calf the 11th day of March, 1893, and on the 5th day of March, 1893, she brought two calves, being three in all of twice months. That's a what we call one of the "reform" cows.

We're very much sorry to learn that Mr. Noah Cheek and family will have to be out of town. We certainly sympathize with the people of that town upon having such worthy people to settle among them.

Just after the total eclipse of the moon last Sunday night the revenue officer came upon the location of an illicit still 2 miles from town, but they found no still, but captured a small amount of beer which they destroyed, except what they drank. They then captured the owner at his house—an officer at each door there being no windows to the house they then had him safe. He requested the officers to wait until he could put on his clothes, and while he was putting on his clothes he totally disappeared through the floor and made good his escape. He deputy marshal Hugh came into town today with a couple whiskey keg and water bucket very much wet down. Guess he is going to sleep long and bucket to toss into headquarters.

Legislative Murderers Escaping.—REMARKS, Ind., March 12.—As a result of the row which disgraced the closing session of the Legislature last midnight, Myron D. King, the Governor's private secretary, is not expected to live. Shortly after noon he took a sudden turn for the worse. A rib was broken and it is pressing upon the heart. King was the centre of a rush made by the Republicans to prevent him from delivering a vetoed bill to the House. Great excitement prevailed and the members who assisted in the assault upon King are leaving the city to avoid arrest.

Elmer Robert P. Greene, in Greene county, committed suicide, by shooting his brains out, last Thursday. His license was taken away from him recently on account of an infamous offence. He was about seventy years old.

Going to Liberia.—Savannah, March 8.—One hundred and fifty-eight negroes, men, women and children, on their way to Liberia under the auspices of the Migration Society of Birmingham, Ala., composed of prominent white people, arrived here tonight. They are mostly from Arkansas, but some are from Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Georgia.

A Notable Man Dead.—Paris, March 11.—Charles Frederic Worth, the most celebrated of Parisian dress makers, who died today, was singularly enough, a native of England. He began life as a printer, but an instinctive dislike to soiling his hands, as well as his inborn gifts, led him to exchange his apprenticeship for a position in the extensive dry goods house of Swan & Edgar, in London. There he developed and perfected his appreciation of the productions of the French milliners and dress-makers.

But Paris alone offered a field for the full exercise of his talent, and to Paris he accordingly went. He became a member of the firm of Gagein & Company, and imported to the productions of that house a stamp of elegant elegance exceeding anything ever before known in the annals of Paris fashion. The Empress Eugenie, then in the prime of womanhood and the full perfection of her incomparable beauty, was delighted with the dresses invented for her by the brilliant young Englishman, and Worth speedily became the dress-maker par excellence to the imperial court. Worth made dresses not only for the royal ladies of Europe, but for the queens of society both in Europe and the United States.

The Crowning Infamy.—From the Raleigh News and Observer, this last. A most disgraceful and desperate scene was enacted in the hall of the House of Representatives last night. A burly negro, apparently acting under the instigation of the speaker, stood at the main door and held it fast with both hands, refusing to allow either negro or white to pass.
