

LOCAL RECORDS.

SCHEDULE PITTSBORO R. R.

The passenger train on the Pittsboro railroad leaves Pittsboro daily, except Sundays, at 9:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m., and arrives at Durham at 11:45 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., making close connection at Durham with the train that leaves Raleigh at 9:45 a. m.

A lot of corn for sale on time by J. L. Council.

Strawberries are now ripe, and there is an abundant crop of them.

Yesterday morning was about as cool as we have ever known it in the middle of May.

Dr. Haughton Jure's office is on 2nd floor in "Ransley Hotel". Hours 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., daily.

A pair of turtles wanted by B. Nowe, Jr. Each to weigh 1200 lbs. and to be not over 7 years old.

The peach trees are loaded with a bountiful crop, which will be greatly enjoyed this summer.

For a nice shave or hair cut or shampooing call on John L. Council. Also cool drinks, confectioneries and ice.

You can buy of O. S. Poe & Son F. F. plows at $135, Boy Dixie at $115 and points for these plows at $6 each, for the cash.

An eagle, measuring six feet, four inches, from tip to tip, was killed one day last week by a colored lad, in Hickory Mountain township, named Clarence Brooks.

Mr. S. L. Herndon, of this county, has a three year old colt, that has a mustache just like a man's, quite thick and about three fourths of an inch long.

As will be seen from their card in another column, Messrs. A. P. Gilbert and R. H. Hayes will practice as partners in the Federal court, but this partnership does not apply to their practice in other courts.

W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Durham on Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kind of dental work. Office next door to Hyman & Headen.

The railroad fare from here will be only 85 cents for the round trip to Raleigh for persons attending the unveiling of the Confederate Monument. Tickets will be on sale Saturday, as well as on Monday, and persons can go either day, and can return on their tickets as late as Wednesday.

The man who was suspected of robbing the store of I. P. Cogan, at Reidsville, in this county, was arrested, last Thursday, at West End, in Moore county, and is now in jail at Durham awaiting a hearing from the authorities in Alabama, as there is a reward of $700 for just such a man for the murder of a sheriff in that State.

We are authorized to announce to the ex-Confederates, who may go to Raleigh next Monday, that a free lunch or dinner will be given them, from 11 to 12 o'clock, at Jones tobacco warehouse. Only old soldiers are invited. At 12 o'clock the grand parade will start, and all ex-Confederates from Chatham are requested to march in a body.

Notwithstanding the heavy advance in leather and shoes, we will sell at old prices while our stock lasts. We have a large stock of horse collars which we are selling very cheap. Bolles cotton hose 25 cents each. Try one of the Chatham plows. O. S. Poe & Son are selling the best children's school shoes made.

Have you seen those beautiful shirt waists at W. L. London & Son's. They will sell you a nice waist for 60 cents, worth 75 cents; one for $1.25, worth $1.50; one for 35 cents, worth 50 cents. Beautiful line of silks and percales for making waists. They have the best line of black goods for ladies wear ever seen in this place and at very low figures.

Now is the time to buy your shoes; leather and shoes are going up every day; W. L. London & Son bought an extra large stock before the rise and will give their customers advantage of the low prices they were bought at. They have a large stock of straw hats very cheap. Receiving every week the latest styles of hats and millinery goods.

The most comfortable route that passengers can travel in going from this section to Washington is via the S. A. L. to Portsmouth, and thence on one of the elegantly equipped steamers of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Co. A person once travelling by Washington by this route will never wish to travel by any other. We have tried all routes leading to Washington and know from personal experience whereof we assert.

O. S. Poe & Son do not claim to buy entirely for the cash, though they buy as nearly as any merchant in Pittsboro. We believe we undersell and undersell. We agree not to be undersold. We mark our prices in plain figures, not in characters and sell to all our customers at same price, not at different prices. This is not intended for those who are willing to pay one merchant more than they would another, but to those who wish to buy where they can buy the cheapest.

There was a slight frost at this place on last Monday morning, the 13th inst., and again yesterday, which is remarkably late.

We hear that the schedule on the C. P. & Y. V. railroad will be changed next Sunday, and that the North bound train will go up the road two or three hours later than heretofore and will go down two or three hours later.

We regret not being able to give definite information about the extra train, which we hope may run from here to Raleigh next Monday. We went to Raleigh last Tuesday for the purpose of securing the train, but no positive arrangement could be made until an answer can be received from headquarters at Portsmouth.

OLD WOMAN DEAD.—Mrs. Candace Smith died, on last Saturday, at the residence of her son, Mr. Mark Smith, about four miles from this place, at the extreme old age of 85 years. Notwithstanding her great age she was wonderfully preserved both in body and mind. Only two weeks before her death she had walked two or three miles to see a neighbor. Over fifty years ago she moved to Tennessee, but after remaining there about a year she returned here, having walked the entire distance accompanied by her three children.

MORMON MISSIONARIES.—The two Mormon missionaries, who were mentioned as being about here two weeks ago, are still in this county, but we have not yet heard of their having made any converts to their faith. They are the first we ever remember visiting this county, and it is to be hoped that they will be the last. But while we abhor their doctrines, yet they are fully entitled to all the rights and privileges of any other citizens and should not be molested with any unlawful violence. That Christian would make a poor display of his religion, who would seek to do unlawful violence to another person because of a difference in their religious faiths.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—The new pastor of the Presbyterian church, the Rev. C. E. Hodgkin of Robinson county, preached here last Sunday morning and night and his congregations on both occasions were greatly pleased with him.

Mr. S. S. Jackson will move to Chicago next week and go into the insurance business with his brother, Mr. J. W. Jackson.

Rev. C. T. Bland, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Allen, has gone to the Episcopal convention now in session at Morganton.

Mr. Phil Taylor, of Raleigh, is here on a short visit. He will soon remove to Rock Hill, S. C., and be the manager of a large tobacco factory.

Mrs. Thomas Allen, of Raleigh, has been here on a short visit to her brother, Capt. James F. Abston.

Mr. J. T. Mallory, of Durham, is here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Hanks, who is sick.

COURTLY LINE CONTROVERSY.—On account of Judge Greene's sickness he could not hear, on last Friday, the injunction case on the Alamance and Chatham county line controversy, and it was continued to Friday, the 20th, when he will hear it at Graham, where he will be holding court next week. The case will be closely contested, as the county commissioners of Alamance have authorized the employment of able counsel to fight the case. Messrs. E. S. Parker and Jacob A. Long were here last Friday for the purpose of arguing the case for Alamance, and the county attorney of Durham, Mr. Mr. Fred A. Green, came here to see if Durham county could not obtain a slice of Chatham. Of course Orange will also want a slice, and then if we have another "war"! Legislature probably all the other surrounding counties will apply for a portion of old Chatham, unless we can send men to the Legislature who can and will protect her from being plundered.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Although the Judge was too sick to go to the court-house and hold court, as stated in our last issue, yet court was considered to be open until the formal adjournment on Friday afternoon. The grand jury kept at work until it adjourned on Thursday. The Judge, although not fully recovered from his sickness, left here on Saturday for Durham.

The grand jury made the following report:

"We the grand jury respectfully report that we have by committee visited the Home for the Aged and Infirm and thoroughly examined the premises. We found 28 inmates, 16 whites and 12 colored. All appear to be well treated and cared for. Everything clean and nice and in good order. The houses are in good repair and we saw no signs of extravagance.

We also visited the workhouse and found it in good condition with five prisoners, all black. The committee visited the jail and found it in good order in all appearance, except arrangements for fire. The clerk's books examined and found correct."

Most of the bills of indictment found by the grand jury were against magistrates for failing to report to the clerk of the court a list of the names and offenses of all parties tried by them, as required by section 906 of the Code. There are 37 of these indictments, which will doubtless create quite a stir among our magistrates. In addition to these indictments the grand jury returned presentments against 23 magistrates for the same omission of duty. It is said that at least one-half of the magistrates thus indicted are not guilty of any failure of duty, because they had not tried any cases to report. It looks like an attempt at Goldston Gleanings.

Goldston, N. C., May 13, 1895.

Everything quiet and business lively, as is usual for Goldston.

Our railroad agent informs us that he has already in this month shipped from here 172 bales of cotton, and six car loads of lumber, making 13 solid loaded cars, besides the local freight, and that he receives freight in proportion.

Some butchers from Fayetteville were here last week, who, besides other purchases, bought a beef from Mr. J. F. Paschal of this place, which, after dressed and the head, feet, etc., disposed of, the weight of shipment was about 700 pounds. Can Long Sharks beat that?

Messrs. G. B. Phillips & Bro., lumber dealers, have an order for about two hundred thousand feet of lumber which will be worked and shipped promptly.

Mr. William Gilbert, of Florida, is visiting his brother, Mr. A. P. Gilbert here now. It has been 19 years since he last left North Carolina.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Josiah Taylor is improving slowly from his severe stroke of paralysis. Mr. Horace Murray, of Manchester, and Mrs. Fannie Johnston, of Goldston, were married yesterday by Mr. N. Chock, J. P.

Silk Hope Happenings.

Silk Hope, May 14, 1895.

Thanks for admittance to the roll of correspondents to the Record.

Glad they did not "run us off" in Alamance. Believe we prefer being called "Chathamites".

Nosifers in our community just now.

Flowers are blooming beautifully; birds are singing sweetly; the glories on sun shining with all its brightness, and, indeed, we have much to be thankful for.

Mr. James Quakenbush has his new residence painted beautifully.

Miss Mattie Headen has accepted a position as Milliner for Hadley, Peoples & Co., Siler City.

Mr. Walter Perry and Master James R. Dorsett have returned from Mt. Vernon Springs, where they had been attending school the past season.

Rumor says that one of our fair girls will be led to the "Hymenal altar" soon; will give particulars later.

Miss Lina Brooks is visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. O. A. Hauser, of Siler City.

We are glad to welcome Mr. G. W. Perry, from California, among us.—Is improving, going to build at Silk Hope and we suppose make his "Home, Sweet Home" in this part of our grand old "North State".

Murder and Marriage.

COVINGTON, Ga., May 13.—A tragedy occurred near Newton in this county yesterday afternoon that has woven into its startling plot love, romance, vengeance, murder and mania.

In Moore county, just over the line from Newton, there lives the family of the rich and well known planter, J. E. Estes. He had a daughter and she is a lover named Green. The family objected to the marriage of the young people and they determined to take matters into their own hands. Yesterday afternoon Will Green met Mrs. Estes by appointment and the two proceeded in a buggy to the home of Rev. Mr. Harwin, who was to perform the ceremony. Just as the couple were getting from the buggy the young Mr. Estes and his son coming rapidly towards them. Green quickly pulled a revolver and fired at Mr. Estes, the ball entering near the heart, killing him instantly. Green then fired two shots at young Estes, but without effect. Leaving her father dead in the road, and shot to death by her lover, and her brother bending over the inanimate form, Miss Estes went on with her lover to Broughtonville, where they were married. The sheriff of Newton county has received a telegram stating that a reward of $250 has been offered for the capture of Green.

A School Scandal.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

WINSTON, May 11.—The particulars of a big sensation, which occurred at Pilot Mountain, several days ago, were received in Winston today. It appears that a serious report became current about Prof. Winkler, principal of the high school at that place, coupling his name with that of his lady assistant, the name of whom is not learned. Prof. Winkler called for an investigation. A trial before the church followed. The professor was presented by Mr. Porter Graves, of Mt. Airy, who made a three hours speech in favor of his client. While he was speaking he was guarded by friends with pistols. The result of the trial cannot be given. The report about the principal of the school was put out by some of the students. A fight between the young men and the professor and a trial before a magistrate are features of the sensation. The unfortunate affair has broken up the school for this term at least.

Fatal Explosion on a Steamer.

DENVER, Mich., May 11.—Last evening, while the river steamer Unigue, bound up, was in Lake St. Clair a tube in one of her boilers blew up, instantly killing Anthony Case, a coal passer, and probably fatally injuring John Plant, a fireman. George Robinson, the engineer of the steamer, who was sitting on the port rail, was knocked overboard and drowned. There were forty passengers on board.

Joe J. W. Jones, who lived near Franklinton was struck by lightning and instantly killed last Friday afternoon while in the field planting corn.

A Modern Miracle.

From the Charlotte Observer.

About three weeks ago a young man applied at Oates' Cotton Mill for work. He made his request known in writing, as he was unable either to speak or hear. He was put on night work, and was regarded by those working near him as the silent member. He took a room at one of the factory houses on Sixth street and was known to all in that row of flats as the mute. He was in the habit of leading at Alexander's store, and when he went there for anything, failing to make them understand on his hands, he always wrote.

Yesterday about 2 o'clock he complained of headaches, and by dawn he was taken up. He dreamed that he was no longer deaf and dumb but could hear and speak, and that he was at home talking to his mother. He awoke suddenly, and the word "mother" was on his lips. His dream had come true. In the sleep his hearing and speech had and they came back to him, and he talked and could hear just the same as other people.

Overjoyed at the wonderful change he ran to tell the neighbors. They one and all looked upon him with wonder, and some could hardly believe that he was the same man.

Later in the evening the Observer heard of the young man up. He was found sitting on the porch of his boarding house reading. He gave his name as N. C. O'Brien. He is from Chicago, where his mother resides still. Thirty years ago he had scarlat fever, followed by smallpox. Up to that time his hearing and speech were as far as he knew, perfect. He suddenly lost both, and for thirteen years has neither heard nor spoken.

For the past six months he has been able to whisper. If any one came very near to him, he is now 26 years of age. He went to the mill yesterday morning after receiving speech and hearing, but the noise was so painful that he had to leave. He complained in the afternoon of a roaring in his head. Mr. O'Brien cannot account for the wonderful recovery. He says he had long ago given up all idea of recovering from his hearing and speech. His voice is rich and well modulated, and one could not tell that there had ever been anything wrong with him.

Blind and Grain Burned.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 13.—Frank Hild, twenty-one years old, married last Sunday a girl of thirteen. They went to live at a hotel because the same night the weather turned so very bad, and they had no fire. Hild wanted to go back to his father's house to spend the night, but he was objected.

Burglar Hammond, who lives next door, was awakened at 3 o'clock Sunday morning to find the house occupied by the blind couple in flames. The fire had gained such headway that rescue was impossible. Later in the day the bodies of the young husband and his wife were found in the ruins, both burned by the fire.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

DAVID LEWIS, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. After trying everything possible, he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which has relieved him of all pain, from which he was a constant sufferer and prone to make him fit for duty soon. We know David has been a great deal of use and are glad to see him around again. For sale by Hyman & Headen, Pittsboro, N. C.

Thirty Acres of Burning Peat.

WEST UNION, Ia., May 11.—Thirty acres of peat on the farm of James Miller, near here, is slowly being consumed by fire. About three weeks ago a forest started to burn the grass with the purpose of getting the ground ready for spring work. The drought had dried the peat so that it readily caught fire, and it is impossible to put it out. The heat can be felt half a mile away.

Agreeably Surprised.

"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. T. E. Smith, of Billings, Mass. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me. It covered entirely in three days."

Killed by Lightning.

CHARLOTTE, S. C., May 10.—A special to the News and Courier from Sumter, S. C., says: This afternoon during a heavy thunder storm lightning struck a barn on the farm of Mr. Perry Moore, near this city, and killed Wm. Bullock, a colored man, instantly.

A Woman Chairman.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 13.—Mrs. Henrietta G. Moore, of Springfield, was today chosen temporary chairman of the State Prohibition convention, which meets at Springfield on the 8th and 9th of June. This will be the first time in Ohio that a woman has presided over a State political convention.

The President has appointed Stuart R. Rogers collector of internal revenue for the Fifth District of North Carolina. Rogers was deputy collector for this district and acting collector in place of M. E. Carter, deceased.

Mr. Joe Kosey, of Roanoke, Va., was struck by lightning while riding his bicycle one day last week. He was out for a ride and seeing a small cloud coming up, he was hurrying home on his wheel when he was struck and instantly killed. This is the first case of this kind on record.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed need to more than make good all the advertising charges for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed.—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Buckler's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at G. R. PIERCE'S Drug Store.

Accidentally Killed.

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Mr. Sidney S. Cary, a prominent society man, fell from the bow window of his house at No. 6 West Bond street Wednesday and received injuries that resulted in his death an hour later. He fell fifteen feet, striking on his head and face. At the hospital his skull was found to have been fractured at the base and over the temple. The Cary family has for many years been prominent in Virginia as well as in this city.

History of the Last Legislature.

BY ONE OF OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

A most interesting pamphlet, 160 pages, with a beautiful cover, devoted to the history of the last Legislature by our own Legislature, was published in 1895, and is now published in the State. This book gives a most plain and readable history of the Legislature. It is a most interesting and valuable work. It is now prepared by some of the best Democratic writers in the State.

Every patriot, every citizen and every Democrat should have a copy. Price 10 cents per copy, post paid. Lower prices by the hundred. If you are in need of books or stationery at low prices, call on us at our store at 100 N. W. 10th St., Raleigh, N. C.

Rec. Ray Barnard.

BROOKLYN HILLS, May 13.—While in the Lizzie Broadway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Broadway, a this place, was playing about a few today her hair caught and she was almost burned to death. The child was playing in an open lot corner of Union place and Poplar street, with a lot of companions. Lizzie had long hair, which being in brushing tresses about her neck. It is her parents' special pride, and the child was permitted to wear the hair hanging. It reached about to her waist.
