SCHEDULE PITTSBORO R. R.

The passenger train to the Pittsboro national... The afternoon train on the Pittsboro R. R. now arrives here at 5:25 instead of 5:45 as heretofore.

The blackberry crop is bountiful and great quantities are being sold here at forty cents a bushel.

Mr. C. W. Bynum, of Bynum, writes us that the roller mill will shut down the 30th, about two weeks for repairs.

Dr. W. H. Edwards will not fill his appointments at this place and at Bynum this month or August, as he will be in Baltimore taking a special course in dentistry.

The annual district conference of the Methodist churches on this (the Fayetteville) district will be held at Jonesboro, beginning on Thursday, the 25th inst.

While some parts of this county have been favored with most seasonable rains, there are other parts where it is very dry and rain is much needed. On the whole, however, the corn crop is very promising.

Our register of deeds issued two marriage licenses, on last Monday, to four persons named Phillips, and all living in Bear Creek township. It is quite a coincidence that both brides and both grooms should all have the same name.

They are selling ready made clothing at W. L. London & Son's at still lower figures. Ask to see their extra pants. You can buy clothing now less than ever sold in this place regardless of cost. This stock must go. A large lot of pant goods at reduced prices.

They still have some of those cheap bargains left at W. L. London & Son's. A splendid lot of ladies' and Misses' silk mitts, and other fancy goods. Lawns, muslin, gingham, still going at reduced prices. Have you seen how cheap they are selling hamburgs and Swiss edgings?

We take pleasure in recommending, from personal knowledge, the superior advantages offered by Gunnison Ins. Co., the location of which has recently been changed to a more desirable part of Washington, near the Thomas Circle, one of the most beautiful and attractive portions of that city. See "ad."

The State Agricultural and Mechanical College, though only six years old, enrolled last year 210 students, but not one from Chatham, although this county is entitled to send two free of tuition. Remember that, on the 2nd of August, a competitive examination will be held here of applicants for Chatham's two scholarships.

On last Thursday some revenue officers made a raid in this county, and in the northern part of Raleigh township captured and destroyed an illicit still and fixtures. A noted negro moonshiner, named Lewis Marley, was at the still getting it ready for a "run," but in stead of running the still he ran himself, and, after quite an exciting chase, made his escape.

COUNTY ALLIANCE.—The regular quarterly meeting of the county alliance of Chatham was held at this place, on last Thursday. It being the regular time for the annual election of officers all the old officers were re-elected, except the treasurer and that office was consolidated with the office of secretary which has been so acceptably filled by Mr. W. N. Straghan. Mr. S. L. Hurdson was elected delegate to the State Alliance, which meets next month at Cary. The attendance was quite small, much smaller than the large meetings which were held here before the Alliance went into politics and was captured by the Populists.

A LINES WEDDING.—On last Monday night the Rev. C. T. Bland and wife celebrated their "lines wedding," or the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, or rather we should say that their friends celebrated it for them, for they were quite taken by surprise, not having been previously informed of it. A great many loving remembrances, or "wedding gifts", were presented them not only by the members of their own church but by the members of other churches in our town. These gifts consisted of linen tablecloths, handkerchiefs, napkins &c. A large number of their friends were present to extend congratulations and the occasion was much enjoyed.

A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.—Quite a romantic marriage was announced last week, which occurred a year ago, between a young lady and gentleman who are well known to many of our readers. The lady is Miss Bessie Moring, a daughter of the late Hon. John M. Moring, and the gentleman is Mr. Willie H. Boone, a son of the Rev. C. A. Boone, who now resides at Elon College. They were secretly married on the 3rd of July, 1894, and their secret was so well kept that no one suspected anything of the kind, and their friends were greatly surprised, last week, at receiving cards announcing their marriage and that they would hold a reception at the residence of the groom's father, on the night of the 10th inst.

A PRACTICAL FARMER.—In these days of general complaints and chronic grumblers it is refreshing to find a man who takes a more hopeful view of life and who still thinks the country is not going to the dogs. Such a one called at the Record office, a few days ago, to renew his subscription, and in conversation we learned from him that at the close of the war, all his property was swept away except his farm, but in nowise disheartened he went to work, and since that time he has "dag out of the ground" by hard work (and not by any special genius) enough to buy and pay for in cash a thirty-five hundred dollar farm. And in that time he has reared four daughters, to each of whom at her marriage he gave enough to go to housekeeping comfortably, and he has also reared two sons, to each of whom he has given a good education (which is better than property), both of them having graduated at the State University. Of course he has always raised his own supplies, and sells bacon every year yet. He does not owe a dollar in the world, and still manages to make a comfortable living out of the ground. It is needless to add that this practical and successful farmer is not a populist, nor does he lie awake at night wishing for "free silver."

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Mrs. Rufus H. Jones and Miss Lulu Jones, of Cary, are visiting Mr. A. H. Merritt. Miss Maggie Harris is visiting friends at Carthage. Mrs. T. B. Womack, of Raleigh, is visiting relatives and friends at this place. Miss Emma P. Taylor, of Raleigh, is here on a visit to Mrs. Fanny T. Taylor. Misses Bossie and Augusta Wiggins, of Wilmington, are visiting Mrs. J. M. Leach. Mrs. F. A. Bissinger, of Winston, is here on a visit to her grandfather, Mr. A. G. Henden. Mr. W. A. Maxey, of Sumpter, S. C., is learning telegraphy in the railroad office at this place. Mr. Robert S. Thompson, who is now a resident of Athens, Georgia, has been here on a short visit to his old home. Mrs. H. M. Lloyd, of this county, has gone on a visit to her son, Mr. H. W. Lloyd, the agent of the S. A. L. at Greenwood, S. C. The editor of the Record is attending the annual meeting of the N. C. Press Association which is being held, this week, at Greensboro. He returns tomorrow.

Silk Hope Happenings. SILK HOPE, N. C., July 8, 1895. Silk Hope is on a decided boom now, the buzz of the hammer and saw are constantly heard. Mr. Geo. W. Perry is having a large and handsome dwelling erected on his place here and it will add a great deal to the looks of Silk Hope. Mr. S. V. Perry is a very industrious farmer, the earliest one we have heard of having racing cars. Several of our farmers went to Burlington on the 4th to take in the horse racing. One of our fairest young ladies was captured on last Sunday by a very interesting old widower. Mrs. C. P. Townsend, of S. C., is now at the home of her father, Mr. Stephen Henley. The young men of this section have formed a very interesting society and will give a public debate at Love's Creek on next Saturday night 13th inst.

Siler City Siftings. SILER CITY, July 9, 1895. There is very little news about this week. The people are very busy attending to their crops and gardens, taking advantage of the favorable weather. The committee of arrangement for the Confederate Reunion met last week and have issued a call for a meeting of the residents of Siler and the people in this vicinity to perfect arrangements for the reunion, and to decide upon the best method for the success of it. Any one living on the line of the C. F. & V. V. would not think that the people were crying hard times, judging from the number of excursions that pass through this place. All seem to be crowded, and it is a wise conclusion on the part of the people to lay aside their trials and cares for a day, and spend it in recreation. There will be an excursion to Wilmington on the 19th inst., run by the managers of the cotton factories, along C. F. & V. V. R. R., and they expect to carry the largest crowd ever carried to Wilmington. The fare is only $1.85 for round trip, and is within reach of all. The mantle of death was again thrown around one of our families on last Friday morning, taking from their midst one of their dearest and best sons, and one of our most esteemed young men. Thomas Troy Guthrie, third son of Mr. Joe B. Guthrie, died last Friday morning, after an illness of 2 1/2 days. He had just returned home from Trinity College when the disease seized him for its prey, and though he suffered excruciating pain, he bore it with Christian fortitude, never once murmuring, and was glad indeed for the summons to that celestial home on high. He was loved and esteemed by all in this place and elsewhere, and everyone had the utmost confidence in "Tommy," and his premature death cast gloom over the entire community. He had consecrated his life to the ministry and was to join Conference this fall, but instead of an antinatural appointment he has been ordained and received an eternal one with the King of Kings. This is the second death summons that has visited this family in 13 days, and they have the sympathy of all in this dark hour of bereavement. ROBIN ADAIR. [The above letter although written on the 9th, did not arrive here until the 12th, too late for last week's issue, which delay is very aggravating and we hope will not occur again. Ed. Record.] SILER CITY, July 16, 1895. We are having favorable weather for the laying by of crops, and the farmers in this section will be over their rush after this week. Pursuant to a call made last week the committee on the Confederate Reunion for August 1st, met Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock and appointed as a soliciting committee, to solicit supplies from their respective neighborhoods for the dinner, for Siler: Messdames B. N. Mann, D. G. Fox, A. C. Jordan, R. C. Siler and Miss Emma Coble, with the following gentlemen to take charge in their section: Messrs. W. W. Edwards, Abe Lane, Simon's Grove. J. M. Foster, Mt. Vernon Springs. Dr. O. B. Stroud, Ore Hill. E. C. Brown, R. F. Rice, Fall Creek. Rev. A. H. Perry, Hickory Mountain. George Perry, Silk Hope. James Jordan, J. George Hamner C. D. Poe, Rev. L. J. Smith, A. P. Gilbert, Goldsboro. They desire the committee to go to work at once, and we trust that the people will respond and aid us in this work, and help us to give our old veterans a good dinner. For they deserve it through the heroes of the war are past, yet they are the same tried and true that defended you and your cause so bravely, so when this committee wait upon you, do not wait for them to ask, but show your love for your county, and your people by stating to them at once that you are willing to do your part. Then come and help us give them a glorious day on August 1st. The committee also issued a call for a mass meeting of the citizens of Siler, and the residents of the county who have this cause at heart to meet at Siler on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp, to perfect arrangements for the reunion, and let every one that can do so come, and the committee is requested to meet also at that time. Do not fail to come, let each and every one respond to the call. I am requested to state that the following noted gentlemen have been invited, and are expected to be with us on August 1st: Col. W. H. S. Burgyum, Henderson, Col. J. S. Carr and Maj. W. A. Guthrie, Durham, and Hon. G. M. Steinar, Asheville, besides quite a number of old veterans from other counties are coming, and one number who now resides in Tennessee, wrote last week that if he lived he would certainly be with us at our reunion, so let us do our best to make it an enjoyable occasion, and let every one put their shoulder to the wheel, and give it a push, so as to keep it revolving. ROBIN ADAIR.

Georgia's G. A. R. Colony. ATLANTA, July 9.—The advance guard of the great G. A. R. colony has reached Georgia. Capt. P. H. Fitzgerald, of Indianapolis, who organized the colony, is here, and has $125,000 with him, he says, to make the first payment on the purchase of 100,000 acres. The land lies in Wilcox and Irwin Counties, and is said to be especially adapted to the raising of fruit. The company is to be organized under the laws of Georgia, and a city of 12,000 population will be laid off at once. This will probably be called Northern, in honor of the ex Governor of that name, who handled the Georgia end of the negotiations. The American Tribune, a G. A. R. paper published in Indianapolis, will be brought here. Mr. McClure, an Illinois banker, has arranged for banks in the different towns. The colonists, prosperous farmers, are going to make the journey here in wagons. 64 Tons of Hail. HARTFORD, Conn., July 15.—Fuller accounts of the damage done by the storm of Saturday afternoon show that in Glanstonberg alone 300 acres of tobacco are ruined. The greatest damage was done in that vicinity. It was calculated that the weight of the hailstones on a four acre field was 64 tons. The hail was gathered from a section 8 by 16 feet and weighed. It was found that the fall was 200 pounds to the square rod or 32,000 pounds to the acre. The hail fell in streaks. Wherever it fell in quantity, tobacco was ruined and grapes, cucumbers, tomatoes and other vine plants were stripped. The grape crop is badly damaged.

New North Carolina Cotton Mills. RALEIGH, N. C., July 13.—Three new cotton mills are just contracted for in North Carolina—one at Weldon, with 12,000 spindles, which are to be increased to 30,000 spindles; one at Maysden, with 15,000 spindles to be increased to 60,000, and one at Hillsboro, with 6,000 spindles. Work is now in progress on twelve mills, and additions are being made to the equipment of as many more. It is said that the Pennsylvania Railroad has "begun a fight" on the Order of Railway Conductors.

State News.

Greensboro Patriot: A company has been organized with $300,000 capital to utilize the water power at Mayo Rapids, near Madison Meigs, Fries, of Salem, Ruffin, of Rocky Mount, and a capitalist from Roanoke, Va. are the principal stockholders. A mammoth cotton mill will be built and it will be run by the water power there. Work will be begun very shortly.

Willsboro Chronicle: On June the 26th near Gosden, this county, during a storm the 7 year old daughter of Junius James was killed by a lightning stroke. The little girl had gone to grandpa's and was coming across the field on her way home, when she was struck. Her father saw her fall and ran to her, but she was dead when he reached her side. It is sad.

Rockingham Rocket: An enterprising citizen of Union County, has established a new industry which, if successful, will bring fame and wealth to him and his county. He owns an acre or two of boggy bottom land which he has converted into a turtle farm. He has built a dam, made a pond and stocked it with young turtles, and will patiently await results. Verily, the resources of the South are unnumbered.

Monroe Enquirer: Mr. E. P. Chaney of this place, was a good Confederate soldier, and since the memorable battle of Gettysburg he has carried a foreboding reminder of that fearful contest. He was wounded in the shoulder in the battle of Gettysburg and from that time until now the wound has been paining him at times. On last Friday Dr. J. H. Price cut a slug of lead from his arm and now, after 32 years, the wound is in a fair way to recovery.

Morganton Herald: Mr. Kistler at the tannery tells us they have bought about 5,000 tons of tan bark this season, and paid $4 00 per ton for it. This aggregates $20,000, and all this money has been turned loose right here in Burke county during the last several five days. This money was all silver, and we are satisfied that the greater part of it is still in the county, in circulation or hid away. This same Burke Tanning Company has spent over a hundred thousand dollars for bark alone in this county in the last three years.

Scotland Neck Democrat: Mr. George Pope, a laborer at Mr. J. E. Conley's saw mill near town, met with a most horrible death last Friday morning. He stepped on the entrance as it was running back to move a "dog," which he thought was going to strike the saw. He misjudged in his effort and left the obstruction just where he did not intend it. It struck the saw, flew up and dealt him a severe blow on the side of the face and head. From the blow he fell on the saw as it was running. One of his arms was sawed completely off, the saw struck his side and cut through his ribs and cut his thighs badly. He was removed to the slanty near the mill, and physicians were sent for, but before they reached him he was dead.

Rutherford Democrat: Mr. Geo. Riggerstaff calls our attention to a rather remarkable circumstance. Every street elected in this county since 1856 is still living.—Mr. John W. Craton, of this place has a grade Jersey cow, two years old with her first calf, that gives five gallons of rich milk per day. She has to be milked three times a day.—The strongest commodity that has been offered for sale on this market lately, was a pair of young skunks. Mr. Joe Elders was the purchaser. They performed factory removed, they are said to make famous ratlers.—Last week we mentioned the fact that the infant of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Logan had been terribly burned in its mouth and throat by swallowing cologne from a bottle given to it by its nurse to amuse it. We are informed that the nurse, a 13 year old negro girl, named Ola—, deliberately poured the spirit down the babe's throat. The child has been in a critical condition ever since.

University Catalogue. The University catalogue for 1894-95 shows 471 students, as follows: Three hundred and seventeen in the college, 78 in the law school, 26 in the medical school and 59 in the summer school for teachers. The faculty embraces 35 professors and instructors. The catalogue contains 144 pages, is carefully indexed and gives information about the University. The August Number

Of the Delicater is called the Midsummer number, and contains a large variety of interesting matter suitable for the Season. Ladies who deferred completing their Summer wardrobe will be particularly pleased with this number, for the styles were never more dainty and appropriate. A special article is devoted to Dress for Stout Ladies, and another by Bathing and Swimming, with illustrations of the Latest Fashions in Bathing Costumes. Mrs. Roger A. Traver's article on The Etiquette of Letter Writing bears the stamp of authority, and will be helpful to every one who reads it; and a paper on Art Needlework in the Employments Series will direct the attention of many women to this occupation as a means of livelihood. The Ontario Ladies' College is interestingly described by an Ex-Graduate, the popular Kindergarten Series is continued by Mrs. Sara Miller Kirby, and Harriet Keith Forbes, contributes an article on the paper in the series on Band Work. There is very practical article on Cleaning and Renovating Leases, Featherbeds and Gloves, and a variety of useful information is given in the monthly talk Around the Tea Table. The housekeeper will find some new recipes in Seasonable Cookery, and much that will help to make household work easier in Things the Housewife Should Know. There is also an excellent article on the Newest Books, and others on Floral Work for August and The Relations of Mother and Son. New designs are illustrated and described in Knitting, Tatting, Lace Making, etc.

The florist who occupies a modest section, only five feet by seven, of the area of the Grand Central Depot in New York city is said to pay a ground rent of $4,600 a year.

At Galveston, Tex., on last Saturday the first new bale of cotton of the season in Texas, classed as strict middling, was sold at auction to Kahn & Fraussen. The price paid was $100.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve months old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weakened at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and jury constitution disappeared and its father and myself believed the child's life was saved by this remedy. J. T. Maxwell, M. D., Tamarac, Ill. For sale by Bynum & Henden.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingsville, Mo., has a good confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund the money to customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it. It is for sale by Bynum & Henden.

THE FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION OF NORTH CAROLINA. This is a home insurance for the protection of farm property only against loss by fire, wind, or lightning. A Charter was obtained through the last Legislature by which each County can be organized into a district Branch, and such Branch is only liable for losses sustained within such Branch. Losses are paid by a pro rata assessment of all the members of any Branch. A policy can be secured for 50 cents on $100 worth of property insured and is good for a period of thirty years without additional cost, except for actual losses in your own County. This plan of insurance has been opened for twenty years in the Western States at a cost of only $1.50 to $2.00 on the $1,000 insurance. Local Agents are wanted in the County of Chatham.
