The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1895.

LOCAL RECORDS.

—We are requested to announce that services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

—Memorial services will be held today at St. James' chapel at this place, to commemorate the second anniversary of the death of Rev. F. L. Bost.

—In this vicinity and in many many parts of Chatham the corn crop is as good as was ever known, but in some sections it has suffered for the want of rain.

—We mentioned last week that two marriage licenses had been issued to four persons all named Phillips and now we learn that the magistrate who married them was also named Phillips.

—The next monthly report of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association of Chatham county will be mailed at the court house in Pittsboro August 5 instead of July 25th as heretofore published.

—You can now buy at W. L. London & Son a straw hat for half price cost. Also ladies hats trimmed and unstrimmed. Remember W. L. London & Son have the largest stock of fruit and jelly glasses in the county. They have a very nice line of preserving kettles at attractive prices.

—Persons needing a nice pair of shoes if you go to W. L. London & Son they have just received a very large lot of them, which they are offering very low. Remember they are going to be high next winter. They are offering this week their entire line of low shoes and tan shoes and they are cheap.

A Sad Event.—A cloud of sorrow has been extinguished in the death of Mr. Caswell Allred, at Bells Springs on last Friday. He was at the beginning of eighteen years and was a youth of much promise. He was a son of the Rev. B. C. Allred and a grandson of the late Col. Samuel Rives, of this county. His remains were interred at Middle Creek accompanied there by his devoted teacher, Capt. C. P. Sale, D. Sam Norris, Mr. Ed. Johnson, Mr. Fleet Carter and other friends, who thus paid their last tribute of respect to one whom they so much loved.

Personal Items.—Dr. J. M. Manning and family of Durham are visiting Mr. A. G. Headen, this place.

Mr. Frank Ellington, of Pittsboro, is here on a short visit.

Mrs. Pattie Ward, of Shelby, is here on a visit to her mother.

Miss Lucy London has returned from a visit to Rockingham Co.

Miss Daisy Speight of Concord is visiting Miss Lena Rose.

Miss Pearl Cheek returned Thursday on a visit to friends at Apex.

Miss Mattie Sloan of L. Knights, is visiting in Pittsboro, Mr. D. Sloan's.

Capt. W. L. London and wife have been spending a week at Chapel Hill.

Mr. Fred Brewer, now of Rockingham, is here on a visit to his old home.

Mr. William A. McConahay, of Raleigh, is visiting his old home at this place.

Mrs. Josephine Hardy and Miss Julia Parrish, of Raleigh, are visiting Mrs. Fanny Thomas.

Miss Mary S. Thompson has returned home, after visiting friends at Sanford and other places.

Judge Henry R. Bryan, of New Bern, is here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. H. A. London, Jr.

Mr. A. B. Straley, after spending several weeks at his old home in South Carolina, has returned here to remain to prepare for the opening of his school on the 3rd of August.

Our former countymen, Messrs. R. L. and G. W. Paschal, are on a visit to their old home in Matthews township. They are the twin sons of the late sheriff R. B. Paschal and were named in honor of America's two greatest men, George Washington and Robert Lee, and they are worthy to bear those distinguished names. Mr. George Paschal is taking a post graduate course at the University of Chicago and Mr. Robert Paschal is principal of one of the graded schools at Fort Worth, Texas.

Soldiers' Reunion.—The annual reunion of Chatham ex-Confederates at Siler City on next Thursday, will be one of the grandest occasions ever known in our county's history. While there may not be so large an attendance as there was in 1885, when all the county came here and heard Vance and Ransom, yet a very large crowd is expected and the hospitable citizens of Siler and the surrounding country are preparing to make them all greatly enjoy the days. Several distinguished ex-Confederates have been invited to attend and speak, and while some of them may not attend we are pleased to state positively that Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn will be there and he will receive a warm welcome and only such as personal merits can also be accorded his honored father, who is one of the gallant young Colonels of the famous 26th regiment, many of whose survivors will there greet him.

The grand marshal of the day will be Lieut. Col. Lee Cotten, assisted by Lieutenants J. Marcus Cain, No. 57 of Pickett Confederate Veterans, who will there hold their annual reunion for the ensuing year.

S. S. Convention.—The colored people of this community were much gratified last week at the annual meeting of this district Sunday School Convention and quite a large number of the A. M. E. Church. The convention met with A. M. E. church on Wednesday night and organized by electing Rev. C. Cotten president. Thursday morning was spent in prayer and praise service. There were quite a number of delegates and visitors present from Ashboro, Pittsboro, Bethel, Siloam, Siler City and other points. The president, Rev. C. Cotten, read a very encouraging character, and proved that a very interest is being taken in Sunday school work. A resolution was offered and adopted that a Sunday school rally be held at Siloam on the first Sunday in August. Rev. Wm. Wilson, the presiding elder of the district, was present and addressed the convention in the afternoon. Rev. Wilson also preached an able sermon on Thursday night. Dinner was served on the ground by the ladies of Siloam church. Lemonade will be given also, so that all persons can prepare themselves to enjoy the occasion, for everything is being done to make it pleasant for them, and to give them a good dinner. The next convention will be held with Bethel church, Siler City, on the first Thursday in August, 1896. Rev. Wilson and county commissioner Bynum were present and addressed the convention, pleasing the people with words of encouragement.

Siler City, in Bloom.

SILER CITY, July 23, 1895.

Listen everybody, to the local, do not forget Angier Duke's picture of the Confederate soldier at the polls.

Prohibition was voted by quite a terrific storm on yesterday after noon, and the legislature was very much pleased with Fayetteville, and its surroundings and feed at Cyclonal rate.
