LOCAL RECORDS.

Scribble Pittsboro' R. R.

The passenger train on the Pittsboro' railroad leaves Pittsboro' daily, except Sunday, at 10 a.m., and arrives at 2 p.m., making direct connection with the train for New Haven, Raleigh, & St. Louis.

Very few watermelons have been brought here yet.

Work has begun on the foundation for the new brick store of W. L. London & Son.

Next week's Review will contain a full account of the Soldiers' Convocation to be at 8 a.m. Get a copy.

Today is the old-time election day, and is the day when our farmers usually begin sowing turnips.

Call on J. L. Council for nice boiled meal, on time or for cash. A fine line of confectionaries. Police attention to lady customers.

Every citizen of Chatham ought to take his county paper. That men must be hard to please, who are unwilling to pay three cents a week for the Review.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. James E. Calvert, of this town, who died on last Saturday after a long sickness, which she bore with Christian patience and resignation. She was most highly esteemed by all who knew her.

On last Thursday a colored man named Pima Boddy, while thrashing wheat near Mr. F. C. Clark's, had his right hand caught in the cylinder of the machine and completely torn off. Mr. B. T. Chapman was soon formed to apprehend the arm above the elbow.

If you need a new hat now is your time. W. L. London & Son will sell this week men's colored wool, barged off their stocks, at cost, because also has reduced ladies' hats to meet the demand for cash. Please see this opportunity of supplying yourselves.

On last Saturday Mr. Webster, who is minister at Mrs. Loring's Tabernacle, made his first public appearance since he left the pulpit of the First Baptist Church of Pittsboro' to accept the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Durham. He is about 60 years old and it is feared that he may not recover.

His old friends will be pleased to read concerning his return. Mr. James E. Calvert, the Rev. Dr. S. L. Parker, his son-in-law, and Mr. W. W. Rose, performing the ceremony, married the Rev. J. A. Calvert, the father of the groom. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity by the many friends of the happy couple, thus attesting the high regard in which they are held in this community. The formal services were very elaborate and beautiful, the church being a perfect bower of potted plants and lovely flowers.

The master was Mr. James S. McLean, of Washington, and Mr. Frank Langston, of Raleigh, who presided over the little gathering until the exercises had commenced, when walking up to the organ loft, exclaiming, "How good is the Master's voice!"

Mr. W. W. Rose, the minister, and following him, a young man dressed in a suit of dark blue, was the bridegroom, his bride being a young woman dressed in white, with a white veil.

With an earnest desire for the future welfare of yourself and paper, and many friends in the "old North State," I am, the reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina State Weather Service, for the week ending Saturday, July 27, 1893, are generally favorable. The first of the week was above the normal in temperature, generally cloudy, with rain on five days; the latter part was too cool, but clear. There are now very few places, mostly along the southern border, which have not had sufficient rain on the other hand, in six or seven counties in the northern portion of the Eastern and Central Districts have rain done some damage to crops, especially by flooding of lowlands. This damage, however, covers only limited areas, and hardly lessens the very favorable prospects prevailing nearly everywhere.

MORTGAGE SALE—BY VIRTUE OF

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail." —Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at G. R. Pakington's Drug Store.

A little boy, aged twelve months, a son of Mr. Gardner, of Charlotte, died last Sunday from bleeding at the nose.

It is said that Dr. Eugene Geiss, who for twenty years was the superintendent of the N. C. Insane Asylum, is now an inmate of an asylum at Denver, Colorado.

Mr. J. C. Wrenack, a well known farmer in Forsyth county, has a daughter and son who weigh one hundred and ten pounds each. The former is nine years of age while the latter is twelve.

Mr. Robert W. Hardie died at Fayetteville last Saturday, at the age of 76 years. He was for many years sheriff of Cumberland county, and was a highly respected citizen.

Chairman Clay, of the Georgia State Democratic executive committee, is out in a car in which, while declaiming for silver, he takes equally well at gold, so the fight should be made within the lines of Democracy.

Lee negro, who emigrated to Mexico, are now in a desolate condition and are begging their way back to the United States. The Southern States is the best place in the world for the colored people.

A man named Zack Smith was killed by a westbound freight train at Morganton Tuesday. Smith was either drunk or asleep and sat down in the hot sun on the railroad. The freight came along and blew several times, also hitting the bed, but did no purpose.

James W. Telfit, of Boston, who has bought 5,000 acres of land two miles from Southern Pines, has put 150 men at work there preparing the land for cultivation, and invites for 200 carpenters to put up buildings which he is to rent to Northern settlers.

It is among the greatest possible that two citizens of the same town and brothers in law at that, are so opposing candidates for Governor next year. Col. Julian S. Carr is spoken of as the democratic candidate, and Maj. W. A. Guthrie as the popular candidate, both being citizens of Durham and the latter having married the former's sister.

Losses are paid by a pro rata assessment of all the members of any Branch.

A policy can be secured for 50 cents on $100 worth of property insured and is good for a period of thirty years without additional cost, except for actual losses in your own County.
