

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1855.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

For sale, five or six good miles, by B. Noss Jr.

Yesterday was the coldest day that we have had here this year.

The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

On these frosty mornings we hear the sound of the dray-parker long and loud.

—500 cords of drywood and perennium timber wanted for the brick factory in Pittsboro, Iredell.

—Read the new "Call" of Woodcott & Son, where just now seems to be the headquarters of Santa Claus.

The stewards of the Methodist churches on the Pittsboro circuit met here on last Monday to settle their pastor's salary.

—Call on John L. Compton for fruits, canines and all kinds of Christmas goodies. Caramel, syrup for sick persons. Pecan-nut cookies. Hair cutting at 15 cents.

The elephant trump is on brought to the City by Capt. J. F. Aiston, and was raised by Mr. F. Lassiter, of this county. It weighed 14 pounds and was a regular jumbo.

A large number of Chathamites left here on Monday to travel to attend the Federal court at Raleigh, and as is usual in these parts, the trials were of great interest.

—We are indebted to Rev. Dr. Cobb for a copy of his "Year Book" of the Baptist Union" for 1856 which is not only indispensable to every Baptist family but of much interest to persons in other denominations.

G. R. Pilkington, well known for stock of drugs, including the new brick store adjoining W. L. London & Son's, whom he is one of the handsomest drug-givers in the State, and who will keep a select stock of fresh drugs, on 6 cents a drachm.

W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Bryanston, Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kinds of dental work, crown and bridgework especially.

Our venerable countryman, Mr. Oliver M. Mills, celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday by going on a big fox hunt, which his favorite son, Asa, and his favorite dog, is said to have had, and enjoys a fast hand-riding after the hounds—as much as any young man.

Look at these prices. A great reduction includes cords and caps at W. L. London & Son's, 100 cords worth $12.00 per cord, $1.00 for $3.00, $5.00 for $1.00, 27 cents for $1.00, 10 cents for $1.00, $10 for $1.00, 25 cents for $1.00, $1.00 for $2.00, $4.00 for $1.00, $1.00 for $2.00, also heavy reductions in caps and hats.

You can now buy a nice suit of clothes for $5.00, worth $10.00 in fine leather, averaged for $6.00 worth $8.00. A good wool felt suit for $5.00, worth $10.00, a ready-made frock for $1.25, worth $1.00, 25 cents did pants, goods for 25 cents per yard, worth $3.00, also a good line of wicker, jewel'd, all kinds at W. L. London & Son's.

Rev. W. W. Hill, the popular pastor of the Methodist church at this place, was most pleasantly surprised, a week ago, by not only members of his own congregation but also by many members of other churches. The Rev. Hill voices the sentiment of this entire community in expressing the hope that Conference will return him here for another year.

One of our townsmen had some hogs killed a few days ago, and had them brought to one of the stores to be dressed, and before weighing them off, the boy on one of the several other persons in the store, took up the hogs, and when he had hauled them to his home, greatly to the delight and surprise of their former owner.

Thanksgiving Day—Last Thursday being Thanksgiving Day was observed as a holiday at this place. Business of all kinds was suspended and the streets resembled Sunday scenes. The stores were all closed and no persons came in from the country to trade. Services were held at the Baptist and Episcopalian churches, and collections taken up for the orphans. In the afternoon Rev. Dr. Cobb preached at the House for the Aged and Infirmary, the inmates of which had feasted on a good dinner sent them by a few ladies of this place, who every Thanksgiving Day thus remember the poor. Many persons went hunting, and many a prize was shot. The day was pleasant, the sun shone bright and nothing occurred to mar the day's full enjoyment.

P. T. Wolfe.

Present time—Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson are at Raleigh on a visit.

Mr. Francis Odoms, of Charlotte, spent Thanksgiving Day here.

Mrs. Mary Thompson is visiting her sister in Randolph county.

Mr. L. J. Haughton has gone on a two weeks' visit to his farm in Jones county.

Miss De Graffenreid and Mrs. McCombs have returned from a visit to Durham.

The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

On these frosty mornings we hear the sound of the dray-parker long and loud.

—500 cords of drywood and perennium timber wanted for the brick factory in Pittsboro, Iredell.

—Read the new "Call" of Woodcott & Son, where just now seems to be the headquarters of Santa Claus.

The stewards of the Methodist churches on the Pittsboro circuit met here on last Monday to settle their pastor's salary.

—Call on John L. Compton for fruits, canines and all kinds of Christmas goodies. Caramel, syrup for sick persons. Pecan-nut cookies. Hair cutting at 15 cents.

The elephant trump is on brought to the City by Capt. J. F. Aiston, and was raised by Mr. F. Lassiter, of this county. It weighed 14 pounds and was a regular jumbo.

—We are indebted to Rev. Dr. Cobb for a copy of his "Year Book" of the Baptist Union" for 1856 which is not only indispensable to every Baptist family but of much interest to persons in other denominations.

G. R. Pilkington, well known for stock of drugs, including the new brick store adjoining W. L. London & Son's, whom he is one of the handsomest drug-givers in the State, and who will keep a select stock of fresh drugs, on 6 cents a drachm.

W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Bryanston, Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kinds of dental work, crown and bridgework especially.

Our venerable countryman, Mr. Oliver M. Mills, celebrated his eightieth birthday yesterday by going on a big fox hunt, which his favorite son, Asa, and his favorite dog, is said to have had, and enjoys a fast hand-riding after the hounds—as much as any young man.

Look at these prices. A great reduction includes cords and caps at W. L. London & Son's, 100 cords worth $12.00 per cord, $1.00 for $3.00, $5.00 for $1.00, 27 cents for $1.00, 10 cents for $1.00, $10 for $1.00, 25 cents for $1.00, $1.00 for $2.00, $4.00 for $1.00, $1.00 for $2.00, also heavy reductions in caps and hats.

You can now buy a nice suit of clothes for $5.00, worth $10.00 in fine leather, averaged for $6.00 worth $8.00. A good wool felt suit for $5.00, worth $10.00, a ready-made frock for $1.25, worth $1.00, 25 cents did pants, goods for 25 cents per yard, worth $3.00, also a good line of wicker, jewel'd, all kinds at W. L. London & Son's.

Rev. W. W. Hill, the popular pastor of the Methodist church at this place, was most pleasantly surprised, a week ago, by not only members of his own congregation but also by many members of other churches. The Rev. Hill voices the sentiment of this entire community in expressing the hope that Conference will return him here for another year.

One of our townsmen had some hogs killed a few days ago, and had them brought to one of the stores to be dressed, and before weighing them off, the boy on one of the several other persons in the store, took up the hogs, and when he had hauled them to his home, greatly to the delight and surprise of their former owner.

Thanksgiving Day—Last Thursday being Thanksgiving Day was observed as a holiday at this place. Business of all kinds was suspended and the streets resembled Sunday scenes. The stores were all closed and no persons came in from the country to trade. Services were held at the Baptist and Episcopalian churches, and collections taken up for the orphans. In the afternoon Rev. Dr. Cobb preached at the House for the Aged and Infirmary, the inmates of which had feasted on a good dinner sent them by a few ladies of this place, who every Thanksgiving Day thus remember the poor. Many persons went hunting, and many a prize was shot. The day was pleasant, the sun shone bright and nothing occurred to mar the day's full enjoyment.

P. T. Wolfe.

Present time—Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson are at Raleigh on a visit.

Mr. Francis Odoms, of Charlotte, spent Thanksgiving Day here.

Mrs. Mary Thompson is visiting her sister in Randolph county.

Mr. L. J. Haughton has gone on a two weeks' visit to his farm in Jones county.

Miss De Graffenreid and Mrs. McCombs have returned from a visit to Durham.

The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—Yesterday was the coldest day that we have had here this year.

The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.

—The county officers renewed their official bonds on last Monday, as is required by law.