

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1855.

LOCAL RECORDS.

—For sale, five or six good mules, by B. Noy Jr.

—You will save costs by paying your accounts at Bynum & Headen's.

—A carload of salt-jars, recently at Bynum & Headen's, 200 pounds each for $1.00.

—Christmas is so near that the irrepressible small boy can scarcely repress his impatience.

—500 cords of dogwood and persimmon timber wanted at the shuttle block factory in Pittsboro for each.

—On account of sickness in his family Dr. W. H. Edwards will not pay his monthly visit, next week, to this place and Bynum.

—I showed several hours on last Tuesday, but most of it melted as it fell because of the previous rain saturating the ground.

—You can find as nice Xmas presents at Bynum & Headen's as any one can wish for. They have a full stock of holiday goods.

—Bynum & Headen are offering great reductions in dress goods, wraps, overcoats and men's suits. Call and get their prices.

—Be sure and see that beautiful and cheap line of wall pictures, frames, etc., at Bynum & Headen's. A set of eight day books for $2.50.

—Competitor gives $1.00 a day for all kinds of cotton, 42 cent weight, 80 cent weight, 80 cent weight. Prices in boxes. High cotton and laying.

—Gov. Carr visited the Egypt coal mine a few days ago, and went down the shaft into the adits and was much pleased that so valuable a coal deposit was being utilized in this state.

—December is always a favorite month for marriages, and this December is no exception. Two or three village maidens have selected this month for their marriages, one next week and the other the week after.

—Mr. Wesley Snipes, of this county, is about one year old, and yet is as fond of hunting as a boy. He is wonderfully well preserved, and nearly every day takes his gun and goes hunting just as any young man would.

—The State Auditor has issued the warrants for the payment of the pensions to those entitled to them, and these sums of money, though much too small, will come at a most acceptable time—as a sort of Christmas present—to the disabled old soldiers of "the Lost Cause".

—This is the annual season for publishing the weight of the "biggest hog". The returns are coming in from other counties, but Chatham has not yet been heard from. The Record is anxiously waiting to publish the weight of Chatham's champion hog. Who has it?

—A kegocose stove, white burning, was accidentally knocked over in the store of W. L. London & Son, last Friday, and the oil spreading on the floor and blazing up created quite a commotion. The flames, however, were soon extinguished without doing any damage.

—Santa Claus has made his appearance at W. L. London & Son's, and will make their new store his headquarters. He has left a great many pretty and cheap goods, and wants all his friends to call and take a peep at them. You will find something that will make a nice present for any one.

—Come and see the beautiful furniture at W. L. London & Son's. Handsome oak sets, bureaus, bedsteads, chairs, wash stands, desks, mattresses, sofas. These goods are extra cheap and it will pay you to see them. They can also show you a nice cook or heating stove. You can get a carpet very low.

—Truly,
Editor KENKINS.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Our former countryman, Rev. James W. Clegg, spent a few days at his old home while on his way to Conference, and preached here last Sunday morning and night.

Rev. D. S. Berry, who is the pastor of the A. M. E. church at this place during the past year, has been made a presiding elder with headquarters at Durham.

Messrs. James M. Leach and A. D. Lupton, who as continual travelers are "on the road" most of their time, are visiting their families home.

Mr. W. G. Fearington, who moved to Texas last winter, has returned to his old home in this county and is disgusted with that State.

Mr. Robert S. Thompson, who has been residing at Atlanta for several months, is here on a visit to his old home.

Rev. W. W. Rose and Mr. W. J. Worthy are attending the M. E. Conference at Elizabeth City.

Miss Lucy London is expected home tomorrow, after a visit of several weeks in South Carolina.

Mrs. M. A. Davis, who has been spending a month in Florida, is expected home tomorrow.

Miss Linda Ross is gone on a visit to relatives at Rutherford.

—You can find as nice Xmas presents at Bynum & Headen's as any one can wish for. They have a full stock of holiday goods.

—Bynum & Headen are offering great reductions in dress goods, wraps, overcoats and men's suits. Call and get their prices.

—Be sure and see that beautiful and cheap line of wall pictures, frames, etc., at Bynum & Headen's. A set of eight day books for $2.50.

—Competitor gives $1.00 a day for all kinds of cotton, 42 cent weight, 80 cent weight, 80 cent weight. Prices in boxes. High cotton and laying.

—Gov. Carr visited the Egypt coal mine a few days ago, and went down the shaft into the adits and was much pleased that so valuable a coal deposit was being utilized in this state.

—December is always a favorite month for marriages, and this December is no exception. Two or three village maidens have selected this month for their marriages, one next week and the other the week after.

—Mr. Wesley Snipes, of this county, is about one year old, and yet is as fond of hunting as a boy. He is wonderfully well preserved, and nearly every day takes his gun and goes hunting just as any young man would.

—The State Auditor has issued the warrants for the payment of the pensions to those entitled to them, and these sums of money, though much too small, will come at a most acceptable time—as a sort of Christmas present—to the disabled old soldiers of "the Lost Cause".

—This is the annual season for publishing the weight of the "biggest hog". The returns are coming in from other counties, but Chatham has not yet been heard from. The Record is anxiously waiting to publish the weight of Chatham's champion hog. Who has it?

—A kegocose stove, white burning, was accidentally knocked over in the store of W. L. London & Son, last Friday, and the oil spreading on the floor and blazing up created quite a commotion. The flames, however, were soon extinguished without doing any damage.

—Santa Claus has made his appearance at W. L. London & Son's, and will make their new store his headquarters. He has left a great many pretty and cheap goods, and wants all his friends to call and take a peep at them. You will find something that will make a nice present for any one.

—Truly,
Editor KENKINS.

—Come and see the beautiful furniture at W. L. London & Son's. Handsome oak sets, bureaus, bedsteads, chairs, wash stands, desks, mattresses, sofas. These goods are extra cheap and it will pay you to see them. They can also show you a nice cook or heating stove. You can get a carpet very low.

—Truly,
Editor KENKINS.

A five yearold boy at Durham swallowed a horse-shoe nail and experienced no pain.

The Republican national convention will be held at St. Louis, Mo., on the 16th day of next June.

Several storms in Switzerland and Europe generally for the past few days have caused great loss.

During the first week in January all the general offices of the State Farmers' Alliance will be moved to Hillsboro.

Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, has announced that he will not be a candidate for reelection to the United States Senate.

On last Tuesday a democrat was elected Mayor of Boston, which would indicate that, if democracy is dead, it is a very lively corpse.

The Carthage Blade is informed that Mr. Tait, the owner of Pinehurst, has purchased the Jackson Springs Hotel and expects to make it a winter as well as a summer resort.

The legislature of Kentucky is now in session, there being 68 Republicans and 68 Democrats and two Populists, one of whom is pledged to vote with the Democrats and the other with the Republicans.

State News.

Sampson Democrat: The Democrat is informed of a rather unusual occurrence which took place among a herd of Waycross cattle one day last week. Two cows engaged in a fight and locked horns in such a manner as to be unable to separate them selves, in which situation they remained for an unknown length of time until discovered. The horns of one of the cows were sawed off to prevent a recurrence of horn locking.

Landerston Republican: The large three-story giv house belonging to Mr. N. J. Thompson, in Thompson's Ferry, about 15 miles from Landers, together with brand new Pines, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by G. R. Pilkington.

The divorce business is not languishing in Chicago. Five Judges granted out 100 divorces in three hours one day last week.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Tex., has used Chamberlain's Coleader and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home." For sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought care I would lose him. I saw Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day, and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Bynum & Headen, Druggists.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years