

Mex who wish for honest elections in North Carolina cannot expect to have them if the Republic...

The editor of Senator Butler's paper, the Chronicle, was present and witnessed the disgraceful proceedings of the Republicans at their recent State convention...

The Republicans have been "whopping her up" for some time. They have been crying for an honest ballot and a fair count...

Yes, the very first thing the Republicans did at their own convention was to begin to fish and steal votes from among themselves...

And well may the honest voters of North Carolina exclaim, "Lord deliver us from the clutches of such men and such a party!"

The Chronicle, in referring to the disgraceful counting out of the Dockery contesting delegates, says "it took four hours to count the job, and to every fair-minded man who saw it going on, it was a disgraceful and dirty job."

And yet the honest voters of North Carolina are called upon to endorse and ratify this disgraceful and dirty job!

The Record earnestly pleads the statement made by the fact that only one Republican delegate with the Democratic delegates...

Russell Among the Race Progressives

Russell's position upon the colored voters for his election, just as he depended upon them for his nomination. His appeals to the prejudices and passions of the colored voters...

"I am, no politician," said the Senator, "but I desire to get for my State and my country the best that can be done for it. I am not here to please the colored voters, but to please the white ones. It is wrong to say that I am not a politician. I am a politician, and I am a politician of the highest order."
