chairman of the national executive committee of the Democratic and Populist parties. In this plan, thus approved and sanctioned by the highest authority in both parties, we can see nothing dishonorable nor any sacrifice of principle. Why then should not all Democrats and Populists gladly approve it, and thereby secure the State's influence for their joint Presidential nominee and a gain to the Republican Vice Presidential nominee?
Let every Democrat and Populist bear in mind that Bryan may not even be elected, but that if he is elected, it is because of the support of the Populists. Therefore let every Democrat and Populist bear in mind that Bryan may not even be elected, but that if he is elected, it is because of the support of the Populists.

Washington Letter.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25th, 1896.
The sayers must have had plenty of encouraging news from other States to make up for the discouraging news from New York, while in the meantime a certain number of that State's electors were being secured by the Republican Vice Presidential nominee?
Let every Democrat and Populist bear in mind that Bryan may not even be elected, but that if he is elected, it is because of the support of the Populists.

Strow's Humiliating Position.
The position of the Congressman from this district, as shown by the joint debate with Mr. Poo in this city is humiliating indeed. Two years ago the Republicans of the district nominated Mr. Milken, of Randolph, for Congress. Shortly before the election he withdrew from the race in behalf of Mr. Strow. Strow, a Republican, was elected. Strow's humiliating position is shown by the fact that he was defeated by Mr. Poo in this city.

Kitchen Against Fusion.
Hon. W. H. Kitchen, the Populist leader in Halifax county, has published an appeal to the Populists, urging them not to ratify the trade of bargain and sale, made by their State executive committee, by which they are forced to vote for James McKinley, Republican. We have not space for a full address, but will copy the following extracts:
'There is no Populist in North Carolina who has not disapproved of this trade, and who has not done so by word and deed. I believe that the Populist party in North Carolina should vote for James McKinley, Republican, for President and for William McKinley, Republican, for Vice President.

The Great 4 in 4 Plan and the United States Showdown.
The Republican Party in North Carolina is faced with a choice between a fusion with the Democratic Party and a showdown with the Populist Party. The fusion would result in a ticket that would be defeated by the Populist Party. The showdown would result in a ticket that would be defeated by the Democratic Party.

Retention From Me.
The retention of the Republican Party in Maine is a matter of great importance. The Republican Party has been successful in retaining its position in Maine, and this is a significant achievement for the party.

Why should any Populist vote for Bryan? This is the question that is being asked by many people. The answer is that Bryan is a man of principle and integrity. He is a man who has stood up for the people's rights, and he is a man who has been elected to the highest office in the land.
