

Our "reform" legislators have made a bad start. Before they had been in session three days they were open charges of bribery and corruption made against them that a resolution was adopted to appoint a committee to investigate these charges.

These charges allege that bribery and corruption have been and are being used to secure the reelection of Senator Pritchard. It is alleged that Mark Hanna has been in the city with plenty of money to bribe as many Populists as necessary to elect Pritchard.

While we are glad to see the majority of the Populists in the Legislature are to be elected to Mark Hanna and are to be packed and packed the "reform" has been bought, yet we are glad to see that such an investigation committee should be constituted.

Until this personal attack is held (which will be next, God bless the Legislature) will not concern any law of any importance in this State, yet we are glad to see that there has been such a committee.

We were at Raleigh the day after the Legislature met and we took a trip at both branches of that illustrious body. The lobby and corridors were crowded with an eager and anxious crowd of men seeking places and positions within the gift of the legislators.

representatives, and one of the latter (Jim Young of Raleigh) is one of the most prominent and influential members. We have exceptions there are no members of more than average ability or information.

Another class of legislation in the Legislature is the bill for the election of a State Auditor. This bill is one of the most important bills in the Legislature.

We have not the space to discuss the bill for the election of a State Auditor. This bill is one of the most important bills in the Legislature.

These circulars show that corn, hay and wheat are the three chief agricultural products of the United States, and that the corn ranks fourth in the list and that as some persons think and the tobacco crop is worth less than any such as the potato crop.
