Illegally Imprisoned 15 Years. Savannah, Ga., Feb. 20.—It has just come to light that a negro named John Lee, who has served fifteen years in the Georgia penitentiary on conviction of murder, has never had a new trial, which was granted him by the Supreme Court on the grounds that he is not guilty under the evidence that was submitted in the case.

Lee was convicted in 1881, and the verdict was contrary to the law and evidence. In the meantime Lee was sent to the penitentiary, and in the time he has never had his new trial.
