

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1897.

LOCAL NEWS.

Coffins for sale—pine, oak and walnut—by B. Noe Jr.

The roof of the Presbyterian church at this place is being repaired.

So cool a May has seldom been known in this section, and so much cool weather has been damaging to corn and wheat.

Mr. O. J. Hatch, of Gulf township, has become insane and application has been made for his admittance into the State Hospital at Raileigh.

The Record's readers will be much pleased to see that Mr. Jackson has resume his very interesting "Reminiscences," which have attracted much attention and received many compliments.

We regret that important business in the Federal court at Raleigh, will prevent our accepting the invitation of our esteemed Sir James to attend the closing exercises of the Thompson School next Tuesday.

A former Chathamite, Mr. N. G. Burns, died recently and it is believed $500 to the Baptist Orphanage at Thomaston. Formerly he had been residing at Holly Springs, Watauga county. His estate valued at $14,000.

The prospect for a good wheat crop in this country is now very fine. A good threshing machine will pay.

W. L. London & Son are agents for "The Farmer" and also for horse powers. Your old machine may need some repair if so send your orders in at once.

Chathamites in Virginia.

As per Va., May 21, 1897.

Mr. E. C. Jones, writing you, as we have attended the Banking and Building show at Fredericksburg, the largest city in Virginia. We saw there a great many exhibits, which we had never seen before. Our money was stopped at Nelson county, and during the day's travel among the mountains we found some very prosperous firms, who were paying a great deal of interest to us.

We went with one of the leading tobacco farmers to his residence, where he was engaged in a great amount of tobacco and hemp, and it is alleged that he is one of the best breeders of tobacco in the state. He is a man of great energy and ability, and after his return we will be sure to take advantage of his knowledge of the tobacco business.

A new schedule on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad will go into effect next Sunday, as will be seen by reference to their end, in another column. The north bound mail train will be over four hours earlier than the south bound train. This change will be more inconvenient than ever to persons in this section.

All who can, ought to go to-morrow (Friday) night to hear B. L. Bishop at the concert house. He is not only one of the most eloquent lecturers in the United States, but is a celebrated violinist whose magnificent strains are said to be unsurpassed. He is most highly endorsed by the leading papers and most distinguished men, and a great treat is in store for those who hear him.

Many of our citizens are at Raleigh this week attending the Federal court. Some of them are awaiting trials, being defendants in criminal cases, while many are witnesses. All this week will be occupied with the trial of the criminal cases, and the civil docket will not be reached before next week. Matters connected with the Langdon-Hensley Coal Mining Company will then be disposed of.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.—For several years it has been the custom of the congregation at Hanks' Chapel, near this place, to have special memorial services once a year in memory of the deceased members of that church. In accordance with this custom these memorial services were held on last Saturday. A large congregation was present and the exercises were of an impressive character. Memorial sketches of several deceased members were read, and the graves in the adjoining cemetery were decorated with flowers.

On Sunday a very large congregation attended. A Sunday school reunion with appropriate exercises was held in the morning and in the afternoon a sermon was preached by the pastor, the Rev. J. R. Underwood.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Our former countymen, Mr. M. F. Crawford, who has been with L. B. Holt & Co. at Graham for several years, has become manager in charge of their big branch store recently opened at Fayetteville. It is always a pleasure to the Record to note the success of any old Chathamite.

Mr. John C. Uhle, a distinguished Philadelphia lawyer, was here yesterday examining the records in our court-house relating to the property of the Langdon-Hensley Coal Mining Company.

Miss Mary S. Thompson has gone to Sanford on a visit to her sister, Mrs. A. P. McPherson.

Miss Eva Paschal is attending the commencement exercises at Wake Forest College.

Mrs. Joseph A. Avent, of Jonesboro, has been visiting friends at this place.

Mr. C. W. Hanks has been on a short visit to his old home here.

GOLDEN'S IMPROVING.—We were glad to note, while at Goldston last Saturday for the first time in several months, how much that place was improving. The thrifty former correspondents at Goldston having died or moved away our readers have not been informed lately as they used to be of what has been going on there.

The first improvement noted, and one that was much needed, is the new railroad depot which has sprung up near Goldston. The largest new building is the new store of Byrd & Paschal, which is one of the most commodious stores in this country and into which they had packed their goods. The store is owned and operated by Mr. A. J. Chapman, formerly owned and occupied by Woodbury Cox, who have about doubled its capacity by adding an extension. Chapman's business is done at Goldston as much as it is at Lenoir, as is shown by the large number of people who come to Goldston to buy and sell. The store is well supplied with all kinds of dry goods and has a large department of hardware. They have a good supply of lumber and hardware, and a large department of general merchandise.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a

Moses, Izam and Ross, who

are the proprietors of the

new post office, who

are the proprietors of the

new railroad depot.

One thing about Goldston is especially to be noted and that is the fact that no postmaster and railroad agent live there, so that buyers for neither one are known. It is a