

The continued low price of cotton, with an present prospect of its being higher, ought to convince the farmers of the south that they must plant less cotton and make more hay, corn and wheat.

We would call the attention of our cotton planters to some statistics as to the price and the yield of cotton that should be very seriously considered.

Crop. Base Price. 1897-98. 1898-99. 1899-00. 1900-01. 1901-02. 1902-03. 1903-04. 1904-05. 1905-06. 1906-07. 1907-08.

From the above figures, it will be seen that the "short" crop of 1897-98 sold for more money than the big crop of 1898-99. In other words, the 7,157,346 bales in 1897-98 sold for $3,315,933 more than the 8,991,956 bales in 1898-99.

Another worth-while item is the fact that the average of cotton prices for the year ending January 1st, 1898, was 22 1/2 cents per bale, while for the year ending January 1st, 1908, it was 21 1/2 cents.

Why then, do our cotton raisers plant so much cotton? Is it a matter of pride? Or is it a matter of habit? Or is it a matter of ignorance?

No one need be surprised at the many scandals disgracing our most old and noble institutions.

III Treatment of Convicts.

A guard at the convict camp on Caldonia farm, No. 2, writes as follows:

The prisoners here are almost starving and they are brutally and inhumanly whipped. They are suffering from exposure to the cold.

Then there are a number of men here, a place where some of them do not belong.

On Christmas day the superintendent and one of the prisoners was on a drunk and the superintendent kicked the prisoner dead with a stick, then he went for a doctor. The prisoner came near dying.

W. R. Ince and D. S. Hissell have put up a whip post. They have had two stock whips (cow whips) and one also goes to the field whips the men with a long whip from 30 to 40 feet long.

It was a fine half day and the steward, D. S. Hissell, is a real brute.

We, the guards, are not treated properly and I never get paid to visit mother. I have been asked to sign a petition for the prisoners.

The Devil in Church.

Bourbon, Ind., Jan. 18.—The Rev. Mr. Allen, pastor of the flock of Bethel church, north of this city, concluded that his methods were not satisfactory.

He had read of the religious conversions elsewhere, and determined to give his simple congregation something startling.

Looking to the minister his son, George Allen, decided to follow his father in the church and was ordained last week.

Somebody might say, "Mr. Allen took a very good thing for himself."

Blizzard in the Northwest.

Milwaukee, Jan. 23.—The most severe blizzard which has visited this city in years continued in its force on Thursday morning.

Snow to the depth of eighteen inches has fallen, and with the wind blowing at the rate of 40 to 50 miles an hour, great drifts were formed in all parts of the city.

On several lines of street cars, the snow was at a standstill, and it was not until the most important business hours were kept open with the aid of powerful engines that the cars were able to get moving.
