THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1898.

LOCAL RECORD.

—The first heavy rain of the year fell on Tuesday.

—Wanted, Eggs, cash for them. Deliver at my residence, Wade Chapin.

—One of the most attractive places in Pittsboro is the fruit and confectionery store of John L. Cotten, agent. Call on him.

—Next Wednesday is ground hog day, so you must notice if the sun shines on that day, if you wish to know how much more winter we will have.

—We take pleasure in calling attention to the "ad" of our esteemed countryman, Mr. Joseph I. Bynum, who has gone into the mercantile business at Chapel Hill.

—Dr. J. Baughton Dunn can be found daily at his office in the Central Hotel, over the office of Womack & Hayes, prepared to do all kind of dental work.

—Chatham 'possum hunters have only a few nights longer in which to enjoy their favorite sport, beginning next Monday night. It can be legal to hunt opossums in this county until next October.

—Several lots for sale—a clover strong 10 acres, well watered, one mile south of Pittsboro, one lot mile from R. R., on roads leading to Locksville, Except Gulf and Bynum. Apply to Stanley Jackson, 312 Hayes-Barringer Building, Charlotte.

—At last the pleasant news comes that has so long been withheld—the depot yard is being repaired. For over a year several times each week the ladies have had to climb over the fence, and the task has been very much in the way, but no longer will they be compelled to do so.

—See what they are going to do at popular store of W. L. London & Son this week. Ladies' overshoes worth 85c for 42.25, 82.50, and 82 capes to 81.25. 81 and 81.50 suits for 82.50. Ladies' skirts worth 81.50 and 84 are going for 82. A small lot of mens suits in odd sizes at less than cost.

—Rangers to Tobacco and Mississippi have now settled up to the present stage of W. L. London & Son's. At last they have words to express their 81.25 yearly order for 50 cases. A large lot of holes trimmed hats now selling at 50 cents a piece, that is 81. 82.00 hats for 81.00. Come and cash prices and good for one week.

—Mr. James E. Boyle, of this township, owns a piece that was hatched in 1868, and is supposed nearly thirty-eight years old. During that time she has hatched 200 goslings and has not quit yet. Ought he expected to see a gosling a great pet to Mr. Boyle's family. In the summer time when the weather is warm she approaches you with goslings on her back for shelter.

CHATHAM APPOINTMENTS.—Our Republican county-men were not slow in obtaining appointments under the new United States Marshal. Thus far only about twenty new deputy marshals have been appointed and yet Chatham gets three of them. They are Dempsey M. Brannock of Pittsboro, H. C. Rosser of Siler City, and Z. C. Clark of New Hope township. Thus one-fourth of relief is being given to the people and the glorious work of reform is going on!

AN OLD DEED.—Mr. Wesley McClenahan, of this place, has several old deeds made before the Revolutionary war. One of them is a deed executed in 1753 to his great-grandfather, Philip Taylor, for some land in Granville county near "three mountains." This old deed is well preserved and the writing is also very legible. The price of the land, as recited in the deed, was "seven pounds current money of Virginia." It seems rather strange that land in North Carolina should have been paid for in current money of Virginia.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Chatham County Teachers' Association was duly organized at this place on last Saturday. There were about twenty-five teachers in attendance, both male and female. A constitution and by-laws were adopted, and the following officers were elected, viz: W. O. Farrell, president; A. M. Walters, W. E. Brooks, A. B. Stalvey, and D. W. Tally, vice-presidents; F. N. Gattis, secretary, and Miss Dora Latterloh, treasurer. Several short addresses were made, and that by Mr. A. B. Stalvey was especially interesting and instructive. The next meeting will be held here on the 26th of February.

AN UNTIMELY DEATH.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Terry deeply sympathize with them at the untimely death of their only child, Prentice, who died on last Monday night in the nineteenth year of his age. He had been sick with an attack of bilious fever but was not thought to be dangerously sick, until on last Monday when a blood vessel was ruptured and he gradually bled to death in a few hours, despite all that the doctors could do to staunch the fatal flow.

Thus cut off in his youth—when a long life seemed in store for him—the pride and idol of his devoted parents, truly does his death seem peculiarly sad and untimely!

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Mr. E. L. Moffitt, editor of the Christian Sun, with his wife has been on a visit to his grandfather, Rev. J. W. Hatch, near this place. On last Sunday he delivered a most interesting address at Hanks' chapel, on the subject of missions.

Messrs. Edwards Sedwyler and Howard Cook, of New York, and Mr. Osborne, of Philadelphia, have been at work or more on old Hunt, and are much pleased with the country.

Messrs. James Bourne and H. M. Gordon, from the University, spent last Saturday and Sunday here.

Miss Sallie L. Lowe will go to Raleigh today to attend an auction at S. Hays' store.

Mr. Claude M. Haigh, of Fayetteville, spent last Saturday and Sunday at this place.

Mr. F. H. Weaver, of Aberdeen, has been visiting relatives at this place.

Mr. John S. Fowler has been very sick for some days.

Mr. R. H. Hayes went to Goldsboro yesterday.

A Typhoon [illegible] of the house of mourning [illegible] Dr. [illegible] Rockville, [illegible] Several cases [illegible] and [illegible] die, despite the best [illegible] and apparently [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]