—An adjourned term of the Federal court will be held at Raleigh, next week, and Chatham will no doubt be largely represented, as usual.

—Mr. Thomas Garner died at this place, on last Monday, aged about 65 years. He had moved here a few months ago, from New Hope township.

—There is a record of no county who has no Statisticians and all except one, are within the age prescribed by law for public school children.

—Dr. J. Hampton Kelly can be found daily at his office in the Central Hotel, except Wednesday. Monroe & Hayes propose to do all kind of dental work.

—On the 23rd inst. two months after the accident, Rev. A. H. Peery, in St. Mary Magdalene Hospital, Memphis, Tenn., died. Mrs. Peery and Mr. Bob Peery are with him. Deceased is 51 years old and leaves a wife and children.

—Several of our subscribers have paid up in full since our last issue, and we feel very much encouraged. Others have made payments on account, but we are not discouraged by any means. We are trying to run the paper on the subscription plan, and we hope to succeed. We will not bring suit against any one for a small amount, but we will expect every one to pay up at least once a year. We are not asking for any favors, but we do ask that you pay us what you owe us. We have been compelled to pay cash for all we get, and we must have cash from you. Please look at your label and see how you stand. Don't forget us.

—Mr. Thomas Bynum, of Haywood township, has a fine Jersey cow that has given birth to four calves in as many years. Two of the calves were twins, and the other two were single calves. Mr. Bynum has refused $100 for the cow.

—Mr. Jas. A. Lockhart, of Bynum township, Chatham county, has a fine Jersey cow that has given birth to four calves in as many years. Two of the calves were twins, and the other two were single calves. Mr. Lockhart
