—When you need any goods of any kind go to the old reliable house of Bynum & Headen, they have a stock full of spring goods.

—There was a severe white frost on last Saturday and another on Sunday with snow also, but we are pleased to learn that the fruit was not killed.

—You can save a good deal this week from the very little above the cost of ready made clothing. Call and inspect samples at O. S. Poe & Son.

—Dr. and Chemist can be found daily in his new office at his residence, prepared to do all kind of dental work in a workmanlike manner, and prices will be understood before work is done.

—Every cent of Confederate money which is presented at the store of W. L. London & Son will be exchanged for goods at par. Bring in your Confederate money and get your goods cheap. Any subscriber to the RECORD may have a chance to exchange.

—This is generally called spell for April. But we say nothing like the thermometer will have anything to do with it. Last night and this morning will probably settle the matter. And yet the weather is not the thermometer was scarcely up to ninety!

—The magnificent millinery of the Popular store of W. L. London & Son is engrossing all the ladies, the many compliments and more particularly the increasing sales show it is appreciated. Nothing like it has ever been seen in this city before. Come and see for yourself.

—And still we have more arrivals from Fancy Goods, Notions to Cuba, and the gallant soldiers men show their good taste. A colored people's mass meeting is unwilling to have anything but yellow flower and spring bonnets, even if liberal pensions are promised their widows.

—The personal property of Mr. John S. Fowler, deceased, will be sold at his late residence near Siler's Cross, on next Monday, April 11th, consisting of household and kitchen furniture, including sideboard, corn, lot of old watch, mare and colt. Sale will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and will be for cash.

—Among the late arrivals of new goods at the Popular Store of W. L. London & Son is a line of negligee shirt waists from 25 cents up. Their 50 cent waist cannot be beat in any market for 75 cents. They have also a line of ladies' shirt waists a crash shirt for only 50 cents to a handsome silk. These goods are as low as the same goods can be had in any market.
