

TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1868.

LOCAL NEWS.

—Unless Spain surrenders Cuba may begin this week.

—The place to buy a nice nobly suit of clothes here is Bryan's. Here they have an elegant stock.

—Tell your neighbor to subscribe once for the Recon. if he wishes to read all the latest news about the war with Spain.

—Mrs. Hovey is busy preparing beautiful and stylish hats at Ayman & Headen's. She will be pleased to wait on her friends.

—One of the most attractive places in Pittsfield is the beautiful and comfortable store of John L. Council, agent. Call often.

—A telephone line is being put up between Gulf and Goshen, which will be quite convenient to the citizens of those places.

—We much regret to hear of the death of Mrs. C. M. Durant, of Gulf township. She was a widow wife and mother, and much loved by all who knew her.

—At last we are having real spring weather, and cessation of all kinds is rapidly growing, and the farmers are busy sowing up their crops.

—We are requested to announce that the students of the normal school at this place will have an exhibition of the various arts tomorrow evening.

—We would call attention to the appearance of the ladies in Washington, or war-tires, to show the position in their measure. If you have any, send them there.

—Dr. Hale's Society can be found daily in his practice in Pittsfield, prepared to do all kinds of dental work, the cost of which is but items must be otherwise paid before work is done.

—At the solicitation of Mr. O'Conor, the keeper of our men's clothing, we have arranged to put up several of our best men's suits here, giving a general sample of what is now generally used in the dress of the persons under his charge.

—A colored man, aged 18 years, has been shot dead while working in this place last Saturday night. He had been working in a coal mine all day, and after supper, while sitting down, talking, he dropped from his chair dead.

—The following extract from him have been written to express the feelings of the people here that incite to rebellion. We had Monday in May, Edson, Whedon, J. George Bentham, A. M. Gilpin, Ken, William E. L. Lee, and A. T. Lincoln.

—It does not need any effort to see how fine a list it is that is used in article and with color it will never look well. You can have your hats made at the Popular store of W. L. Foster, a trained milliner, who has visited the Northern markets and brought all the latest fashions. Come and see for yourselves.

—They will furnish you the latest styles of ready made clothing at the Popular store of W. L. Foster, London & Son, 94 Main Street, Pittsfield. They have a large stock of men's suits, their $20.00 suits are equal to $10.00 of any other manufacturer. They have the best 24 carat pure gold ever saw. They can dress you from head to foot very cheap.

—A new registration is required for our town election, and also for all qualified voters in Pittsfield must register. If they wished to vote in our approaching town election. And their names to be registered is next Saturday, April 28th, at 12 o'clock. So don't forget. This new registration is a "reform" that is entirely unnecessary.

—Do any of our readers know a Mr. J. L. Williams, who is said to have removed from this section? If so, write to Mr. F. S. Barde, Guthrie, Oklahoma, who desires information about his family, as Mr. Williams emigrated a few weeks ago to Guthrie, and left considerable property. He was about 40 years old.

—Gov. Russell has committed to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary the punishment of Ether Cameron, a colored man, who was convicted at the fall term, 1867, of our superior court, of a criminal assault on a colored woman and sentenced to be hanged. The commutation is approved by all who are acquainted with the facts in the case.

—The Raleigh Post copied the Recon's item about the alleged Spanish spies, who passed through here last week, and suggested that they were not Spanish spies but emissaries sent by Otto Wilson (who wishes to be our next Congressman) to discover the weak places in Congressmen's strongholds in the Populist stronghold.

—Piney Creek, Bishop Creek, will pass in the Goshen church, at this place, on next Sunday morning.

—Mr. Anthony, a man, and estate dealer from Scranton, Pennsylvania, was here this week with a view of selling Chalmers farm, located between the Lake and the Hudson. When this is done the tract will be leased out to some enterprising farmer.

—Miss Anna, friend of South Carolina, left here yesterday for New York, where she is to make a short visit to her parents' home.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hayes, of Pittsfield, are to leave for Boston, Mass., on Saturday, April 28th, for a short visit to her parents' home.

—Mrs. Hovey is busy preparing beautiful and stylish hats at Ayman & Headen's. She will be pleased to wait on her friends.

—We much regret to hear of the death of Mrs. C. M. Durant, of Gulf township. She was a widow wife and mother, and much loved by all who knew her.

—At last we are having real spring weather, and cessation of all kinds is rapidly growing, and the farmers are busy sowing up their crops.

—We much regret to hear of the death of Mrs. C. M. Durant, of Gulf township. She was a widow wife and mother, and much loved by all who knew her.

—A telephone line is being put up between Gulf and Goshen, which will be quite convenient to the citizens of those places.

—We much regret to hear of the death of Mrs. C. M. Durant, of Gulf township. She was a widow wife and mother, and much loved by all who knew her.

—At last we are having real spring weather, and cessation of all kinds is rapidly growing, and the farmers are busy sowing up their crops.

—We are requested to announce that the students of the normal school at this place will have an exhibition of the various arts tomorrow evening.

—We would call attention to the appearance of the ladies in Washington, or war-tires, to show the position in their measure. If you have any, send them there.

—Dr. Hale's Society can be found daily in his practice in Pittsfield, prepared to do all kinds of dental work, the cost of which is but items must be otherwise paid before work is done.

—At the solicitation of Mr. O'Conor, the keeper of our men's clothing, we have arranged to put up several of our best men's suits here, giving a general sample of what is now generally used in the dress of the persons under his charge.

—The following extract from

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—