—Great Scott, all congratulated.

L. Council, agent, and his wife, Mrs. L. Council, were here of hot sand and coal coke and coke products. No doubt you have heard of their success and fame.

—We are indebted to the Pittsboro Academy for its excellent electrical typewriter, which appears on another page.

—A slight change in the plan of the U. S. A. V. school was made last Sunday to attend the north-bound trip, so as to make an hour and a quarter's delay at Pittsboro.

—On account of the long distance between Pittsboro and his residence, Mr. J. W. McCall, who has been here recently, requested the Board of Directors for the purpose of a private interview. It was decided to remain with him until Monday, May 22, when he will be at the Extreme House.

—The class of 1886 will be admitted to the Pittsboro Academy on Tuesday night, to begin on Wednesday morning, the exercises which will be served for the season of school.

—Dr. Thomas, a young man found daily in a cabinet for gallantry in his residence, needs a quiet room in which to work out his future work.

—It is rumoured that the Baptist Seminary, now located in Pittsboro, will come here in September 7th June. If so, it will have ample room for all the students.

—Our exercises were well deserved this week, we are off to another floor, more pleasant, according to our superintendent, Dr. James P. McCall, for the next eight weeks, and will be held by him after his arrival.

—The Queen's name is Honorable Captain H. C. Long, a graduate of the county jail, and his wife, members of the Board of Education.

—The newly elected Board of Education consists of the Democratic party, as follows: R. H. Hanes, Chairman, W. L. London, Vice-Chairman, J. M. Griffin, J. L. Hill, and Q. A. Bryant.

—We hear that a young company of soldiers was meeting the ladies at the hotel on Saturday evening, the ladies were in full uniform, with the ladies in dress up with the ladies in dress up with the ladies in dress up with the most festive and gay.

—Have you ever seen a dress or a dresser hat? It goes well with Popular stores, W. L. London & Son and see what they can do for you. Their stock of white goods is very large and cheap. New fashions, original and beautiful for a cent up. You will find them millinery in the best stores.

—Come and get your outfit of clothes while they are so cheap. All wooden goods are to be had at the popular stores, W. L. London & Son and Peck & Son, and see what they can do for you. Their stock of white goods is very large and cheap. New fashions, original and beautiful for a cent up. You will find them millinery in the best stores.

—For several years the corporation at Hawks Chapel, about three miles east of here, have served the third Sabbath in May as a "Memorial Day," by depositing the graves of their dead. On next Saturday their memorial exercises will be held, and the editor of the paper has been invited to deliver an address appropriate to the occasion.

—With a few ploughs the improvements are made by the well-to-do citizens. We suggest that the local exercises be done in private, as in our own country, this should be done alone.

—G. C. Sharpe, Freeman, J. M. Stevenson, Secy.

—The well-filled Chatham area near the head of this section of the year, and a more beautiful landscape it is difficult to imagine. The rolling fields of wheat and oats and the many green forests in full foliage cover our hills and vales present an appearance that is peaceful and pleasing.

—Women Business Report.

—The community is a good one, and the character of the business is highly improved.

—The late war with Spain has well known to a place where men have been greatly affected by the war.
