

LOCAL RECORDS.

Go to hear ex-Gov. Jarvis at Fearington's mill tomorrow (Friday.)

Come here to the big barbecue and let us have an old-fashioned rally.

Only 50 cents for the Record from now until Christmas. Subscribe at once.

Every voter in Chatham ought to read the Record and thus keep fully posted.

The late residence of John S. Fowler, deceased, is for rent. Apply to R. H. Hayes.

Car load of 50,000 long leaf heart pine rived shingles for sale by B. Nove Jr.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the "ad." of the Siler City Institute.

New and large stock pants just received at Bynum and Headen's. They can fit anyone.

Great reductions in colored shirts at Bynum & Headen's. Straw and crash hats at less than cost.

And still the so-called "reform" papers do not publish Mr. Bailey's letter to Gov. Russell. Wonder why?

Every piece of summer goods in Bynum & Headen's store is now being sold at slashing reductions. You never saw such bargains.

The crops are "laid by." watermelons are ripe, fruit is abundant, sweet cider is plentiful and the "big August" meetings have begun.

The Pittsboro Academy has begun this session with an unusually large attendance, and the new principal, Mr. D. K. McRae, is making a most favorable impression.

Dr. Hric (Dentist) can be found daily in his new office at his residence, prepared to do all kind of dental work at reasonable prices, but terms must be understood before work is done.

A very interesting game of base ball was played at Mt. Vernon Springs, on last Thursday afternoon, between the Hope Ricks and Caribou teams, which resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 15 to 12.

Why not buy you a suit of clothes when you can get them so cheap? They are selling the cheapest clothing at the Popular Store of W. L. London & Son you ever saw. They will sell this week a large lot of odd pants at extra low prices.

Mrs. W. L. London, F. C. Poe, Isaac H. Strangman, L. R. Bynum, R. Nove Jr., W. J. Womble, J. R. Milliken, S. D. Gilmore and H. L. Coble have been appointed a committee of arrangements for the big barbecue and rally to be held here on the 20th.

You will find this week our center counter of W. L. London & Son's Popular Store 1000 yards calicoes, your choice 4 cents per yard. Some of these are the best makes, also a few lawns extra cheap.

Some days ago as Mr. Franklin Jones, of Hadly township, was going along the road he found a hawk and snake in a deadly fight. The hawk had caught the snake in its bill and then the snake had wrapped itself around the hawk, and neither could get away from the other. Mr. Jones killed them both.

We congratulate Mr. James I. Griffin upon his happy marriage yesterday, at Siler City, to Miss Hettie Wrenn. The happy couple, accompanied by several friends, immediately after the ceremony drove through the country to the residence of the groom's father, near this place, where a delightful "infare" was greatly enjoyed at night.

At nearly every post office in Chatham there are persons eagerly waiting, when the Record arrives, to borrow a copy to read before the subscriber can get a chance to read it. We would respectfully suggest that this ought to be stopped and that at once. To all such borrowers we would say, stop borrowing your neighbor's paper and be man enough to subscribe for it yourself!

While attending the reunion at Mt. Vernon Springs, on last Thursday, we were pleased to see so many visitors at that noted resort. But it is not surprising for its mineral water is unsurpassed for its medicinal properties, and a more pleasant or restful resort can hardly be found. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foust are both doing all they can for the comfort and pleasure of their guests, and while their hotel is crowded yet they always find room for one more.

During our civil war we were blessed with bountiful crops, and now, by a singular coincidence, during our war with Spain we are blessed with an unusually good crop.

The largest watermelon that we have heard of in this county is one raised by Mr. L. B. Bynum, that weighed 62 pounds. He has some others not yet ripe, which he thinks will weigh as much, but the Record cannot vouch for this until proved by our demonstration.

We congratulate our county-men upon having the opportunity, on the 20th, of hearing a selection and entertaining a speaker as Hon. C. B. Aycock, who will certainly be here on that day. You will then hear from him one of the greatest speeches ever made in Chatham. Tell all your neighbors to come.

The Record is reliably informed that a colored lady of our community took the last census of the public school children in one of the townships of this county. This is the first time that a colored man has officially visited the houses and houses of the white people of this county, and this is one of the "reforms" given us by Populist fashion with Republicans!

The dwelling of Mr. S. C. Johnson, of Gulf township, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday of last week. The fire caught from the pipe of the coal stove. Fortunately they were threshing wheat on the premises when the fire was discovered, and the flames saved nearly all the furniture in the house, and prevented the fire from spreading to the outbuildings.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.—The regular quarterly conference of the Methodist churches composing the Pittsboro circuit was held, on last Monday, at Zion church about two miles southeast of this place. The presiding elder, Rev. F. A. Bishop, was present and presided at the Monday morning services. The usual routine business was transacted. The next quarterly conference will be held at Chatham church.

AN UNTIMELY DEATH.—Mr. Ross Hill died at this place on last Saturday, aged 21 years and one week. He was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill.

The death of any loved one always causes grief, but it is peculiarly sad when that loved one has just attained manhood with the promise of a long life. It seems almost that the angel should die—that the ripened grain ready for the harvest should be cut down by the invisible reaper—but a death like this seems so untimely.

This young man was indeed "his mother's boy"—mother and son devoted to and strapped up in one another. And it was his deep love for his mother that caused him to yield to her tearful entreaties and resist his patriotic intention to volunteer at the beginning of our war with Spain.

How inscrutable is God's ways!

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Mr. Thomas Harmon, of Indiana, accompanied by his son and daughter, is on a visit to his relatives in this county. He removed from Chatham several years before the civil war, but was here on a visit about seven years ago.

Our talented young countryman, Prof. G. W. Paschal, now of Wake Forest College, is spending part of his vacation at his old home near Siler City.

Misses Georgie and Annie Palmer, of Winston, and Miss Georgie Hamner, of Siler City, are visiting Mrs. C. C. Hatch.

Miss Sallie J. Hill, of Washington, and Mrs. W. J. Calvert and daughter, of Portsmouth, are visiting Mr. N. M. Hill.

Mr. R. B. Linsley is attending the meeting of the State Alliance, at Hillsboro, as the delegate from this county.

Mr. Shepard Bryan, of Atlanta, has been here on a short visit to his sister, Mrs. H. A. London Jr.

Misses Annie and Ella Peay, of Durham, are visiting their grandfather, Mr. J. B. De Grandprelli.

Mr. William Hooker, of Atlanta, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. M. Foust, at Mt. Vernon Springs.

Misses Katie and Florida Johnson, of Greensboro, are visiting their uncle, Mr. J. T. Paschal.

Miss Dixie Leach, of Reidsville, and Miss Rhett Leach, of Raleigh, are visiting Mrs. J. M. Leach.

Dr. John H. London, of Washington, D. C., is here on a visit to his old home.

Miss Annie Brewer has returned from a visit to relatives at Greensboro.

Mr. George P. James, of Wilmington, is visiting Mr. H. M. London.

Mr. W. A. McLendon, of Norfolk, is on a visit here to his old home.

Mr. Herbert E. Norris, of Apex, spent last Sunday here.

Mr. J. M. Leach is here on a visit to his family.

The Veterans' Re-Union.

DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.—LARGE CROWD.—A FEW DAYS AGO WE WERE HERE AT THE RE-UNION.

The annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans was held, on last Friday, at Mount Vernon Springs, and it was an occasion that will always be most pleasantly remembered. It was held on the grounds of the hotel, which was so fortunate to be present. There was a large number of veterans present and some of them had not met each other since the close of the war. Beyond were those who had fought together in the same company and met each other since they had parted at the end of the war. When they had met they were young men hardly grown, full of youthful vigor and manly vigor, and now when they again met they were old and gray haired men. What great changes had taken place in that interval! And how eagerly and joyfully did these old comrades greet each other and extend their kindly greetings!

Before the exercises of the day began the veterans formed a procession and made quite an interesting parade, keeping step to the tune of a drum beaten by W. J. D. Paschal, who was the drummer of the 23rd regiment from its organization until the surrender at Appomattox. This old drummer rattled his drum as cheerfully and marched as proudly at the head of this procession of veterans as he ever did in the days of old, when his drum beats roused up his brave comrades to their deeds of unparelleled valor. The veterans were then grouped together and a photograph of them was taken. Then they marched to the place where the exercises were held.

The meeting was called to order by Commander O. A. Hamner, who acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers most gracefully and pleasantly. The first speaker was Mr. J. P. Foust upon the exercises of the day, and then introduced Mr. R. E. Paschal to make the speech of welcome, which he did most appropriately. The Adjutant of the camp, G. A. London, was called on to respond to the speech of welcome. Other short speeches were made by Col. John R. Lane, Capt. McNeill of Raleigh, Capt. F. W. of Norfolk, Rev. W. H. H. of Greensboro, Mr. W. H. of Woodland, Assistant Prof. G. W. Paschal, and Messrs. John B. Bright and W. W. Edwards of this county.

These speeches, or rather short talks, were listened to with much pleasure, and many interesting incidents of the war were narrated. Mr. Bright called from memory the complete roll of his regiment, and several of them were present and responded, when their names were called. The exercises were concluded with a prayer by a volunteer choir, many of the veterans joining in singing some of the old war songs such as "The Bonnie Blue Flag" etc.

One peculiarly interesting incident was the introduction to the audience of the venerable Mrs. Nancy Simpson—an old lady of that neighborhood who is in her 97th year and is still remarkably well preserved in body and mind. She was escorted to the stand, and when introduced, the entire audience respectfully arose to receive her. It was stated that she had furnished nearly an entire company to the Confederate army from among her lineal and collateral descendants.

A recess of an hour was taken about one o'clock and baskets of ice cream were handed around to the veterans, and then they scattered in groups under the trees to feast on the big baskets of "veterans' comforts" which had been provided for them by the hospitable citizens of the surrounding country.

This being the time for the annual election of officers of the veterans organization, known as Leclides J. Merritt, Camp No. 287 U. C. V., the old officers were unanimously re-elected, as follows: Commander, Oran A. Hamner; 1st Lieut-Commander, Isaac H. Strangman; 2nd Lieut-Commander, W. W. Edwards; Adjutant, Henry A. London; Chaplain, Rev. Jesse L. Smith; Surgeon, Dr. P. D. Luster; Quartermaster, Andrew E. Linsley; Commissary, John Bartinger.

Instead of dismissing in interest, these annual reunions of our old soldiers are, each succeeding year, increasing in interest. And although the ranks of the veterans are decreasing every year, yet the survivors take renewed and increased pleasure in thus meeting together and "fighting" over their battles again. And it is a great pleasure for their friends and relatives to meet with them and witness their enjoyment and hear them tell of their battles and the victories won. And how much comfort to them for the pleasure and comfort of our battle-scarred old heroes. And as their numbers grow less the survivors seem to be drawn nearer to each other and to cherish more fondly their old army friendships which nothing should ever sever.

Bro BARRETT.—At a meeting of the Democratic executive committee of this county, held on last Friday, it was decided to have a big barbecue and public speaking at this place, on Saturday, the 20th of this month. By Gov. Aycock, Hon. C. B. Aycock and other distinguished speakers have been invited to be present and discuss the important issues of the day. Resolutions are invited to attend, without regard to their past political affiliations. The time has now come when all good citizens should get together and unite in restoring good government to our good old State!

This occasion is expected to be as grand as was the big barbecue given here in October, 1893, when the true white people of Chatham were struggling to avert the ruin of Redded rule, which then threatened North Carolina just as it does now. Let us have a grand rally!

FERTON OR NO FERTON?—What sort of a man, if any, will there be in Chatham this year? No man can now give a certain and positive answer to this question. Some say there will be no fertion at all, and others say there will be a different kind of fertion. Some say that the "reform" party will certainly succeed in their efforts to bring the Republicans to the Republican. Others say that there must be a fertion in some way or another of the old voters and a new man. Some say that the Republicans insist that they must have one-half of the county officers in accordance with the bargain and sale made two years ago, when they gave up the paying office to the Populists. They say that there will be no fertion unless this agreement made two years ago is carried out. And then some of the colored ladies like Mrs. Charles Hastings demand that they must have some of the "old" and that their race which gives about half of the fertion vote in Chatham must be fairly represented among the candidates.

And then again there are some Populists who insist that their professions and honest in their political principles, who declare that they cannot consistently vote a man who did not ever vote for good standard Republicans, and are opposed to any fertion with the party that is chiefly responsible for our present financial condition. In the event there will be a sort of a compromise and a combination of some non-alignment of "reformers."

Siler City Shirts.

Stann City, N. C., Aug. 9, 1898. The bygone bells will ring in our town tomorrow at noon, when that shrill of Pittsboro, one of the most patriotic of our soldiers, will lead to the altar Mrs. Bettie, the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. William Arnett, and sister of our representative, Mr. L. L. Wrenn.

The District Conference held here was a success, so far as money and also all spiritual. All present expressed themselves as having spent an enjoyable time, and spoke in complimentary terms of the hospitality of our people. The enjoyment was not unshared. Nay, for our people enjoy having the good men with us, and have realized that their stay in our community was a benefit to them all, and we would not object if our Presiding Elder would see fit to locate the Fayetteville Conference in our town and make it permanent, and I assure the members your welcome to it next year would be as cordial and hearty as it was this season.

The conference at this place was the first that Rev. E. A. Bishop, our Presiding Elder, ever held. He displayed and exercised so much discretion and judgment that one would have thought it was nearer the south than the north.

Rev. W. H. Pickett spent two nights in our village last week, returning home on Thursday. He was accompanied by Miss Minnie Willis, who will spend two or more weeks, visiting her "old and long" friend, Mrs. Alice Paschal.

Quite a large number from this section attended the reunion at Mt. Vernon Springs, and spent a very enjoyable time with "our old veterans."

Pittsboro, as is evidenced of by the archives of the past, proved her loyalty to the Veterans of Chatham by sending a large delegation to represent her at the reunion. For patriotism to her country, or loyalty to any cause that bests good for her country, Pittsboro is the banner town of "Old Chatham."

Miss Minnie Willis will have charge of the music in our plays again this year, and will resume her class on the 22nd of this month. Miss Willis starts on the 5th year of her class, and that of itself testifies her speaking worth, and ability, and bespeaks the appreciation of our people for her.

Intelligence has been received that Mrs. J. E. Mann, Thurman and Lucie are about to be married at Hillsboro, with military honors.

Rev. W. E. Cannon is assisting Rev. A. B. Peay in his series of sermons at Cedar Grove, on Raw River road.

Rev. K. C. Horner, due to sickness of his wife, was unable to fill the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday, it was supplied by Rev.

E. Fox, of Siler City. Miss Emma Coble left today to take charge of Art Department of the Mt. Vernon school.

Mr. J. E. Wrenn has purchased the Mrs. Wrenn's farm, near the school, and will remove to the farm.

We are certainly much indebted to Messrs. W. L. London and Son, of Greensboro, for their generous donation of a large quantity of clothing for the poor of this county. We can say that though they now live in Greensboro, they have the best interest of their native county at heart, and receive the soldiers that so gallantly defended our country, and I know that I speak the sentiments of every citizen when I say your generous gift will never be forgotten, and in their hearts the old veterans possess the landmarks of the way their habits will revert to the time when their names and deeds were the name of a hero. "Gather 'round, O ye veterans!"

Miss Madie Thompson of Alamogordo, at the Mt. Vernon, N. C., school, has been appointed the substitute of spelling her name. She was quite a sufferer at first, but she is now in good health.
