The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, March 23, 1899.

Local Records.

—Garden seed &c. at Bynum & Headen's.

—The days and nights are now of equal length.

—Buy the South Bend Chilled plow and get the best. Sold only by Bynum & Headen.

—Our farmers are anxiously waiting for favorable weather. They are very much behind in their work.

—O. S. Poe & Sons are receiving new goods daily. Frank C. Poe having just returned from the Northern markets.

—Dr. J. Houghton Dale will be at Bynum next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

—Collar pads, brace chains, back bands, plow castings and another lot of E. B. potato diggers sets &c, at Bynum & Lupsinger's.

—Why will not Pittsboro be the home of a College or the head men who will have charge of the proposed factories at Lockville?

—Every railroad station is now crowded with wagons hauling cotton to the gins and other wagons which will also move a bale of cotton to the gin or mill.

—We are requested to announce that there will be a Sunday supper at Merry Oaks school on Thursday, for the purpose of raising money to build a music room for the academy at that place.

—It is a recognized fact that Bynum & Headen sell leaders to colored elders. They have opened themselves this season and have the largest and best stock they ever had at prices to suit you.

—To farmers. The prices of fertilizers at Pyrone & Hopkins are as follows, cash, and Nov. 1, 1899. Unground phosphate at $5 and $10, 25 per cent guano $15 and $20, 2 per cent guano $18 and $30. They want to sell you some.

—Among the many odd stock of spring goods at the Fair Dealing Popular Store of W. J. Lambeth & Son, will be found a full line of ladies, gents and children's shoes, to the latest style of toe, and below, for cash or barter. They have a full line of Women's Corsets, Skirts, Dress Goods and Handkerchiefs &c. &c