On account of the sickness of several of its members, the "Old Men's Conviction" has been postponed till Friday night, March 1.

The roof of Mr. Oren Poon house caught on fire yesterday, but it was put out before any damage was done.

The best fertilizers are sold by Bryant & Hadden. They keep a full supply of phosphates and guano, Charlotte, Raleigh and Bangs.

Dr. Irie will be at Carletonton March 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th, prepared to do all kind of dental work. Can be found at Mr. O. H. Dorsett's home.

Mr. Hawley, our jeweler who has been very sick, wishes to notify the public that he is now at his bench, prepared to do all kinds of work in his line, that may be entrusted to him.

Mr. John H. Dark and Mrs. Fannie A. Richardson, of Hickory Mountain township, were married on 13th inst., at the residence of Mr. Thomas Green, Rev. Jas. H. Frizzle officiating.

Our former countyman, Mr. Joe T. Bland, is now a salesman for the popular firm of Cross & Linahan at Raleigh, where he will be pleased to serve his many friends in Chatham.

Mr. W. M. Perry and Miss Nella Mann, of Hadley township, were married last Thursday, at the residence of the brides father, Mr. Fletcher Mann, Rev. Jas. H. Frizzle officiating.

Our former townsmen, Mr. John T. Mallory, died last week at Durham, having moved there from here about twenty years ago, and where he had accumulated property to the value of nearly $75,000.

Dr. Irie will be at Guil Feb. 25th to 28th, and Mar. 1st and 2d, and can be found at Mr. T. J. Harrington's, Monroeville Monday and Tuesday after noon, and Lockville Wednesday and Thursday following, prepared to do all kind of dental work.

The stock of hardware at London's Popular Store has just been filled up. You can find anything now, you will need, either to build with or to use on your farm. Splendid stock of pocket knives, X Cut Saws, files, axes, harness, collars and bradles.

If you do not want the gripe then keep your feet warm. You will find the best stock of shoes in the county at London's Popular Store. They have just replenished their stock and you can be suited in any size or quality; also full stock of over shoes.

A number of Chathamites will be at Raleigh to-day and urge the passage of a bill to prohibit the manufacture and sale of whiskey within three miles of any church in this county. A hearing will be given them this afternoon by the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

No bill will be passed by the Legislature to put the stock law on any part of Chatham county this spring, because sufficient time would not be given farmers to prepare for it. A bill is favorably reported in the Senate to put the whole State under the stock law, but giving the commissioners of any county the power to exempt their county or any part of it.

We much regret to hear of the death of our old friend, Mr. James L. Fields, of Gulf township, who died last week aged about ninety years. He was at the time of his death the oldest Confederate soldier in the State, and probably in the South. He was remarkably well preserved and vigorous until a few weeks before his death. He had been a regular subscriber to THE RECORD ever since it was established in 1878.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Master Nathaniel Hill has returned from a visit to Portsmouth.

Mrs. J. H. Irie has gone on a visit to her parents in Atlanta.

Mr. M. J. Stone and daughter, Miss Pattie Stone, have returned to their home in Okalahoma.

Miss Blanche Breneman, the charming elocutionist, will give a recital at the court house Easter Monday night.

A PLEASANT QUIETING PARTY.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met at the residence of Mrs. Henry A. London, last Monday, and quitted a quilt for the Hospital at the Soldiers' Home.

A NEW RAILROAD.

It is probable that a new railroad will be constructed through this county within the next year or two.

A bill has been introduced into the Legislature, and will be passed, to charter a company to build a railroad from Durham to Sanford by or near Pittsboro. The object of this road is to make a through line from the coal fields of southwest Virginia to Southport, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river. Men with ample means are the promoters of this road, and they say that it will certainly be built. We certainly hope so, for it would run many miles in Chatham and be of great benefit to this county.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

The grand jury made the following report before court adjourned last week:

"We, the grand jury of the February term of superior court 1901, do hereby submit the following report. We visited the home of the aged and infirm by committee and found thirty-eight inmates, twenty-one whites and seventeen colored, three males in good condition, eighteen cattle, and thirty-four hogs, a good lot of forage and corn, and a fine lot of peas. Two of the houses are in bad condition, we recommend building chimneys to the asylum and using it for the whites instead of repairing the old ones.

We visited the jail and found it safe and in good condition, and we think well kept.

Upon examination of the clerk's office we found the books well kept and the guardian bonds secure so far as we know.

In the register's office we found the books neatly and systematically kept.

In the sheriff's office we found everything satisfactory, and the court house in good condition.

Respectfully submitted, R. B. CARON, foreman."

[FOR THE RECORD, WAKE FOREST ITEMS.

Wake Forest, N. C., Feb. 19th.

The sixty sixth anniversary of Wake Forest College has come and gone. It was a brilliant success in every respect. A large crowd from other parts of the State attended. The debate on the income tax in the afternoon was very interesting. Messrs. Slack and Flournoy, the orators, represented their Societies and did honor both to themselves and their Societies. Both delivered eloquent orations, and the frequent applause of the audience showed that the speeches were greatly enjoyed.

After the orations, Gov. Aycock made a short speech, which counted for much good; and it portrayed the true spirit of that noble man. Then our honored Senator from Chatham was called and in a very happy manner he delighted the audience with a few eloquent and well chosen words. Several other distinguished visitors were present.

At 10 o'clock the crowd retired to the society halls and spent the remainder of the evening pleasantly renewing old acquaintances and making new ones. In the jolly hours of the night we said good bye, and thus it ended.

Although this session is but a little more than half gone, still it marks the greatest progress in the history of the college. The first year of the new century brings us a new $10,000 gymnasium, connected with it are a number of nice toilet and bath rooms. It records the first passing of the 300 mark, the enrollment now being 306, which number is 30 in advance of any previous year. It brings nine new recreation rooms and a classical library, a school of Pedagogy, and two new professors. Before the year is gone we will have two more new schools—one of medicine and one of pharmacy. We will then have 18 professors and 16 separate schools.

No department in our college has made greater progress, in so short a time, than the Law. Prof. Mordecai has proved himself to be an excellent teacher and a strong addition to this department. The success of the applicants from here at the last examination before the Supreme Court affords great satisfaction to Professors Mordecai and Guley, the college, and to the many friends of the college, there being a larger percent, to pass than from any other institution.

HENRY BRUNS.

Born With a Set of Teeth.

George Russell, of Kentucky, is the father of a midget daughter that weighs less than two pounds. The remarkable thing about the child is that it was born with a full set of teeth.

The child is well formed, has dark brown eyes and hair, and well developed and pretty features. In spite of its small size the child gives no evidence of unusual weakness, and the several physicians who have been called in declare that it will live.

[FOR THE RECORD, CHAPEL HILL ITEMS.

CHAPEL HILL ITEMS.

John Marshall Day, Feb. 14th, was fittingly observed by the University. In the evening Judge Jas. C. McRae delivered an address suitable to the occasion.

The executive committee at a meeting held in Raleigh Feb. 5th, incorporated the school of Medicine and Pharmacy as full departments in the University.

A committee from the trustees with President Venable and Professor Stone are engaged in making a plan of the buildings with a view of putting in the new heating plant for the whole University.

On Thursday evening there was a concert in Gerard Hall, given by a French troupe. It was very much enjoyed by the students and town people.

It is interesting to note the comparative cost to the State of the education of each student in this and in other Southern State Universities. For North Carolina the cost is $48.82, while for other Southern States it ranges from $61.57 in Georgia to $254.00 in Louisiana.

Sanford Express: A freight train was wrecked between Southern Pines and Cameron on the Seaboard Air Line last Friday caused by running into a place where a force of hands had taken up the track. Engineer Naylor who was running the train got caught in some way while attempting to jump and was in the engine when it left the track and turned over. Had he succeeded in jumping he would no doubt have been killed as two or three cars were wrecked where he would have landed. He was slightly injured, but nobody seriously hurt.

Rocky Mount Argonaut: During 1900 Dr. C. L. Killebrew sold in Rocky Mount over fourteen hundred dozen eggs, the surplus product of his poultry yard. In selecting stock each year only the white fowls are retained and it is a pretty sight to see over three hundred in one group at feeding time. Near Whitaker's, a small village in upper Edgecombe county, and a few miles east of Gold Rock in Nash county, Mr. Louis T. Brodie is successfully engaged in chicken raising, having an elaborate plant and many incubators.

Gastonia Gazette: Let it be noted in passing that your Uncle Matt Ransom has 1,500 bales of cotton for sale. Oh, mutations of time! Butler rode the down-trodden "agricultural classes" to the Senate doors in Washington, and now that he is about to step down and out it turns up that your Uncle Matt, who wore a starched shirt and had good manners at the table and away from it, has beaten the whole kid and push as far as farming.

Wilkesboro Chronicle: One of the most brutal murders that has ever committed in Rowan county occurred near Spencer Saturday night when Dillard Cox of Winston, was shot and killed by Sam Malone, of Davie county, both colored. Malone not content with shooting his victim twice, dragged him out from under a church where he had crawled to die and stamped him.

Clinton Democrat: Mr. J. R. Westbrook, of Newton Grove, had the misfortune to lose one of his eyes last week in rather a singular manner. He was out about the lot looking after his stock, and a pig ran under his feet causing Mr. Westbrook to stumble and he fell against the head of a cow. One of the cow's horns struck him in the eye, knocking it out entirely.

Charlotte News: The five-year-old daughter of Mr. Robinson, of West Fifth street, was painfully hurt Saturday afternoon by the explosion of a torpedo. Her father works on the railroad. The child got a railroad torpedo which he had brought home, struck it with a brick and it exploded, lacerating her arm badly.

Asheboro Courier: A large crop of wheat is raised in Randolph every year. Last year there was an unusually large crop. The Courier undertook to get up the amount raised from the threshers. A number reported, making in all reported 230,000 bushels threshed. We believe that there were some 400,000 or more bushels threshed.

Gastonia Gazette: Mr. William Atwater, a son of Congressman Atwater, of Chatham county, is here to learn the cotton mill business. While the Lory is getting ready, Mr. Atwater is at work in the Trenton. He boards at the home of Mr. John H. Adams on West Main street.

Aberdeen Telegram: The increase of population in Sanford tells the tale of what the factories are doing for the town. We venture the assertion that its population has about doubled in the past two years.

Commencing Friday the Seaboard will operate a through sleeper from Jersey City to Pinehurst.

The remains of an Indian have been found in Center street, in the heart of New York City, 20 feet below the surface, by workmen digging for the rapid transit tunnel. It was a fairly preserved skeleton. Near the skull were clay pipes and a tomahawk or two. There were shells, too, that had been strung on a strip of hide, and used probably as a decoration. Experts can give no idea of the period when the Indian was buried on Manhattan Island.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by G. R. Pilkington.

Wreck of east bound limited from San Francisco, at Mills City, Nevada, last Monday, killed a fireman and three passengers.

How to Cure the Grip.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by G. R. Pilkington.

Because they tried to conceal a fugitive, all negroes have been ordered from Hillsboro, Pa. Race riot barely averted.
