

THURSDAY, June 27, 1901.

Local Records.

—At the same old place, J. L. Council, Agt.

The days are now becoming shorter and the nights longer.

—The S. A. L. will sell cheap rage tickets to Old Point Comfort and Virginia Beach.

—Summer seems to have come at last and with extreme heat is making up for lost time.

—A severe wind storm, accompanied by a light shower, swept through this section on last Sunday afternoon.

—The bridge across Rederson's creek near this place, which was washed away last month, has been replaced and travel over it has been resumed.

—Mr. Daniel W. Riddle and Miss Anna Lloyd, of Oakland township, were married on last Wednesday and have gone to Georgia on a bridal tour.

—The S. A. L. will sell round-trip tickets to all points for the fourth of July, at one and one-third fare. Tickets on sale July 2d, 3d and 4th, with final limit July 8th.

—This is the season for "the first cotton bloom," but cotton is so backward this year it may be a week or two before any blooms appear in this county. Who will send the bacon the first?

—Mr. Robert M. Burns, of this place, has a powder ground that was used during the Revolutionary war by the grandfather of the late Mr. James L. Fields, of Gulf township. It is still sound and in good condition.

—The many friends of Mr. William Riddle, of this place, will regret to hear of the sudden death of his wife, which occurred last Saturday night. It is thought that she died of neuralgia of the heart. She was highly respected by all who knew her.

—On Wednesday of last week a carrier pigeon came to the residence of Mr. T. M. Bland, followed by a speech from H. J. M. London, Master of the temples. After music by the orchestra band from H. J. M. London and local band, addressed the audience.

Next speaker of the day will open with the song "Star of Old North State," followed by piano.

A speech of welcome by J. M. London, Master of the temples.

After music by the orchestra band from H. J. M. London and local band, addressed the audience.

Next speaker of the day will open with the song "Star of Old North State," followed by piano.

—At a meeting of the Pittsboro Lodge No. 1, last Thursday night, the following officers were elected: F. C. C. C., F. C. Williams; V. C., Jacob Thompson; Pres., J. F. Alston; M. W. A. J. J. Jenkins; M. W. A. H. London, L. G.; F. C. Peacock.

They still have some of those cheap ornaments and lawn on hand at London's. If you want a cool nice one you can find it. Nice laws for their lawns you have to pay so for other places. They have a few colored and white silk parasols. They will sell this week at cost.

—They are selling goods at London's cheaper than ever this week. They are offering a silk shirt waist worth $5.00 and $2.00 your choice for $2.50. White shirt waist for 75c, $1.00 and $1.25 worth double the money. 75c colored shirt waist for 50c. Plaid and check shirts for less than you can buy the cloth.

—On St. John's Day, June 24th, 1901, Past Worshipful Master W. L. London, installed the officers of Columbus Lodge, No. 102, A. F. and A. M. The following were the officers installed: Worshipful Master, T. H. Calvert; Senior Warden, B. Noss, Jr.; Junior Warden, J. F. Alston; Treasurer, G. R. Folkingham; Secretary, W. M. Embanks; Chaplain, Rev. D. C. Britt; Senior Deacon, F. C. Poe; Junior Deacon, Rev. J. H. Frazelle; Stewards, Andrew Sizor and H. L. Coble; Tyler, Wm. Bissell.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Miss Lizzie Lee, of Raleigh, is visiting Mrs. N. M. Hill.

Miss Mary Haigh, of Fayetteville, is here for the summer.

Mrs. William J. Calvert and daughter, of Portsmouth, are visiting Mrs. M. A. Hite.

Mrs. Walter Hawkins and children, of Jacksonville, Florida, are here for the summer.

Miss Lily Hill has returned home, after a visit of several months to Portsmouth.

Mrs. Ruth C. Kenney, of New York, has arrived to spend the summer at her farm near here.

Mrs. George W. Thompson, of Raleigh, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Poe.

Mr. John H. Anderson and family are expected Saturday on a visit to Mrs. Anderson's parents.

Mr. J. A. Giles and B. A. London, accompanied by his wife, are attending the Bar Association in session at Wrightsville.

APPLICANTS FOR PENSIONS.

Next Monday is the day when applicants for pensions, under the act of the last Legislature, must appear before the county pension board and file their applications. The number will be quite large, more than double the number who have heretofore been receiving pensions. No doubt many will be disappointed at not being placed on the pension roll.

The law allows a pension only to those ex-Confederate soldiers who are "now disabled from any cause to perform manual labor." If a veteran is feeble or old, and yet able to perform manual labor, he is not entitled to a pension.

Only a limited amount of money has been appropriated for pensions, and therefore the money that has been spent in Pittsford City, with my son, Dr. Merritt, the smaller will be the pension to him.

The widows will receive a pension regardless of their physical condition, but the veterans must be disabled to perform manual labor. Let this be remembered.

Come to Causey's Celebration, Causey, N. C., June 22, 1901
Mr. Burrow.

The fourth anniversary celebration of our National Independence at Causey, N. C., promises to eclipse any former celebration in the history of old Chatham.

As it is everybody's day to enjoy the freedom of our much loved country, a special invitation is extended to not only the good people of Chatham, but to everybody in adjoining counties to come to Causey July 4th and enjoy the day in meeting your friends and kinspeople, many of whom may be there another 4th of July across over the river.

Come and hear those inspiring speeches from Hon. Ed. Poe, H. A. London, and other prominent men, and those patriotic songs by the fair ladies of Causey and vicinity. Also a short program by the Shiloh, Meadow Creek, and Bethel Chorus Bands.

Come to Causey—there is no mistaking it, the motorcycle and bicycle performance and many other attractions.

There is no speech of the day will open with the song "Star of Old North State," followed by piano.
