The Chatham Record.

THURSDAY, Sept. 11, 1902.

Local Records.

—Only 25 cents for THE RECORD until the election.

—Don't forget Bynum & Headen's is the place to sell your cotton seed.

—Fresh clover, orchard grass and rye seeds, at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co.

—Quite a refreshing rain fell last Monday night and Tuesday, which was much needed.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. will pay you 20cts. cash or 22cts. in trade for cotton seed.

—Mr. Headen Bynum is now in the northern markets buying fall goods for Bynum & Headen.

—Bynum & Headen protect the farmers. They pay the highest prices for anything they have for sale.

—Tell all your neighbors that Hon. James H. Pou and Hon. Lee S. Overman will speak here on the 25th of this month.

—The first bale of new cotton sold here this season was sold by Mr. Eli Clark, of Hickory Mountain township, for 8½ cents.

—Wanted, a good tenant who can furnish his own stock, for the Oak Mount farm the Robert A. Eubanks placed for next year. Apply to H. T. Chapin.

—The editor of THE RECORD has not been well enough to be at his office since last Thursday, but is better now and hopes to be out again in a day or two.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. make a specialty of seeds, and buy per cent from the manufacturers, and they sell the best seeds for the money that can be had in Chatham county.

—Every voter in Chatham ought to read THE RECORD from now until the election. Only 25 cents for the remainder of the campaign and that will be before the election. Tell your neighbors to subscribe also.

—Bynum & Headen will have the largest and best selected stock of fall goods they have ever had. In addition to their regular stock of Homespuns, Jeans, &c.

—The members of our force is still away on their vacation, but we expect them back in a few days. There is no end of locals to write up, and we are anxious to get to work. Please be patient with us if we are slow in getting your items in print.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. will have a car load of Ohio corn in store next week. Also a car load of Timothy hay. Will sell at low prices for cash or trade for cotton seed.

—They have now received their fall and winter stock of goods at W. L. London & Son's store and they are ready for your trade. Their line of ladies' and gents' hats and caps is complete. Their line of ladies' and children's hats and caps is complete. Their line of ladies' and children's hats and caps is complete.

—Miss Annie Bonner is in Baltimore selecting W. L. London & Son's stock of fall and winter millinery. Those goods will arrive next week. She is also perfecting herself in the art of making and trimming hats, besides purchasing all the late novelties, which cannot be gotten out of fashion books.

—We regret very much to hear of the death of Miss [illegible] which occurred at the home of her brother, J. H. Pierce, on the 4th inst. She had been at work in a factory at Henderson, where she contracted typhoid fever, and returned home three weeks ago to the residence of Mrs. Burns, where she died last Monday.

—There will be a grand Democratic rally at this place on Thursday, the 25th of this month. Hon. James H. Pou and Hon. Lee S. Overman will be there and a great treat is in store for all who are present. The Siler City brass band will enliven the occasion with soul-stirring music and an immense crowd is expected.

—THE RECORD publication about the secret caucus, alleged to have been held the night before the Republican convention seems to have stirred up the animals in a lively manner, especially the sly old fox of the menagerie. While no such caucus was held at the time alleged, yet some of them deny having held one at some time.
