

Local Records.

—Carry your cotton seed to Bynum & Headen.

—Plenty of guano and phosphates on hand at Bynum & Headen's.

—Be sure to tell all your neighbors that they must register before sunset on Saturday, the 25th of this month.

—Prepare for the cold weather which is sure to be on us soon. Bynum & Headen's store will keep you warm.

—The two Democratic candidates for the Senate in this district are caucusing Richmond county this week.

—Now is your chance, Hawley, the Pittsboro jeweler, has a few second hand watches which he offers at bargains.

—Magistrates' and constables' tickets printed at The Record office at 25 cents a hundred. Send your orders at once.

—The county candidates will begin their joint canvass next Tuesday at Johnson's bridge, in New Hope township.

—Don't waste time in regrets, but come to Bynum & Headen and buy a fine dress and hat to match. They can please you.

—You will find at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co.'s Pittsboro store a full line of boys' clothing and overcoats, also boys' underwear.

—When you go to Raleigh or Durham be sure to call on these merchants who think enough of your trade to advise you for it in the future.

—Don't go to Durham or Raleigh. Go to W. L. London & Sons, N. C., where you can save money on clothing, shoes, goods, shoes, hats and millinery.

—Let it be distinctly understood that no man who pays poll tax or whose name is on the tax-decree dollar amount from registering. Because registered voters are excluded from voting.

—How, Glynn B. Watson will speak at Pittsboro on the 25th of October, the day after the election, and on the next day at 12 o'clock, if you are here to go and hear him.

—The Republican candidates are doing their best in the race and are realizing that their doom is sealed, for Chatham is certain to give an overwhelming Democratic majority.

—Have you seen the beautiful new window and cases at Bynum & Headen's. If not, do it in a day and they can give you a perfect fit in the most stylish outfit.

—Nearly all the Democrats are registering under the "naturalization clause" of the suffrage amendment, as thereby their names are placed on the permanent registration list of voters.

—Anything you can possibly need in trunk, dress-suit case and grip bag can be found at head-quarters—Bynum & Headen's. They have just received a full stock of them.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. have at their Pittsboro store a beautiful line of handbags, valises and insertions, also a pretty line of black dress goods for skirts and colored serges for waists.

—Mr. J. R. Weatherspoon, of Sanford, announces his fall opening of dry goods, clothing, ladies' wraps and furs, and "shoes for men," great values in every department. Mail orders solicited.

—Many of our countrymen will attend the Albemarle county fair, which will be held next week. We wish that Chatham could have so creditable a fair as our neighbor county has every year. And why not?

—W. E. Hay, of Burlington, N. C., will sell you men's hats $25, boys' hats $10, men's good suits $1.95, boys' suits 50¢, good caps $1.95, ladies' jackets $1.50, capes 50¢. Be sure to go and see his big stock.

—Ladies, while you are looking at the beautiful hats and the lovely dresses they are showing at W. L. London & Sons, ask to see the handsome and cheap jackets, caps and furs they are selling. They also have a nice lot of children's wraps and jackets.

—The county commissioners did not let out to contract the building of a new bridge at Haywood, on last Monday, but will meet at Haywood on the 24th for the purpose of inspecting another site near the old bridge, which is said to be better.

—They have received at W. L. London & Son's another lot of that pretty cheap furniture consisting of nice bed room sets for $12.50, nice handsome chifforobe for $6.50, oak bureaus, oak beds, steel spring mattresses, cheap mattresses, iron beds, chairs and rocking chairs, cooking and heating stoves.

—Have you registered yet? If not, do not delay any longer.

—Out of the 200 colored voters heretofore registered in this township only one has thus far been able to register for the next election.

—Much interest is being taken in the revival now in progress at the Methodist church at this place, and it is hoped that much good will be accomplished.

—No one has yet claimed Tim Ricouer's offer of a reward for finding the whereabouts of the Populist County executive committee, which has so mysteriously disappeared.

—It is safely estimated that not less than 1,000, and probably 1,200, colored voters in Chatham are disfranchised by the suffrage amendment. Consequently the Republican candidates will lack that many of getting their usual vote and will all be badly beaten.

—"Quits va frost" has fallen on the Republican candidates who have been conducting a one-sided canvass of the county. We hear that very few persons have attended any of their appointments—a mere handful—and there was an awful lack of enthusiasm even among the faithful few who came out to hear them.

—We much regret to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Colton Perry, a son of Mr. S. A. Perry, of Rock Hill township. He was 23 years old and was living at Burlington, where he died of typhoid fever last Thursday. He was buried next day at Union Chapel near his old home.

—Candidates for magistrates and constables are scattered at the following points:—Baptist printing office, which must be between four inches in size. High tops up off of shoulder-trunks with only two pieces of each candidate. Send in your orders at once.

—The county candidates will begin their joint canvass next Tuesday at Johnson's bridge, in New Hope township.

—Don't waste time in regrets, but come to Bynum & Headen and buy a fine dress and hat to match. They can please you.

—You will find at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co.'s Pittsboro store a full line of boys' clothing and overcoats, also boys' underwear.

—When you go to Raleigh or Durham be sure to call on these merchants who think enough of your trade to advise you for it in the future.

—Don't go to Durham or Raleigh. Go to W. L. London & Sons, N. C., where you can save money on clothing, shoes, goods, shoes, hats and millinery.

—Let it be distinctly understood that no man who pays poll tax or whose name is on the tax-decree dollar amount from registering. Because registered voters are excluded from voting.

—How, Glynn B. Watson will speak at Pittsboro on the 25th of October, the day after the election, and on the next day at 12 o'clock, if you are here to go and hear him.

—The Republican candidates are doing their best in the race and are realizing that their doom is sealed, for Chatham is certain to give an overwhelming Democratic majority.

—Have you seen the beautiful new window and cases at Bynum & Headen's. If not, do it in a day and they can give you a perfect fit in the most stylish outfit.

—Mr. A. W. Walker has been elected pastor of the Baptist Association. In a paper issued Wednesday, he said he would work with the Baptists to the best of his ability, and that he would not be a "splitter." He is a member of the Baptist Association, but he believes that the Mr. D. L. Jones, of Smithfield, is a better man for the position. He was a member of the Mr. D. L. Jones, of Smithfield, for many years, and studied under him. Therefore, he has studied many number of lectures in attendance, and the reports of the churches showed increased contributions during the past few weeks.

—Mrs. A. D. L. Jones, a visiting lady at Mrs. N. W. Williams.

—Miss Lydia M. Taylor, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, is making a visit to Pittsboro.

—Mrs. Mary M. Alston, of Orange county, is visiting her uncle, Mr. P. Alston.

—Miss Mary Thompson, now returned to Pittsboro, N. C., to resume instruction in music.

—Mrs. H. A. London, Jr., and daughter of Charlotte are visiting Capt. W. L. London.

—Dr. William E. Houston and wife, of Morehead City, are visiting Mrs. A. G. Headen.

—Mr. George Taylor will leave next Friday for Louisiana, where he will go into business.

—Mrs. Fred S. Hill has gone to Marion, the new witness in a suit there pending against Mr. A. H. Hall.

—Miss Lily Cowan has received an appointment as trained nurse in the Hopewell Valley school, in Marion, California.

—Mr. Harry M. London, who has been in the Kenans office and also studying law at Washington for the past two-and-a-half years, will return here tomorrow and complete his law course at the University so as to get his license early next February.

—Rev. J. William Jones, pastor of the Baptist church at Chapel Hill, and well known as a historian and lecturer on Lee and Jackson, has resigned his charge and will become secretary of the Confederate Museum at Richmond, Virginia.

—President Roosevelt has publicly expressed his disapproval of the Republican leaders in Alabama and North Carolina excluding negroes from their conventions, and said that he would exclude no man from office on account of his color.

—Ex-Congressman O'Hearn and Cheatham and other prominent colored politicians have called a convention of colored voters to be held at Raleigh next Friday the 16th, for the purpose of nominating a ticket to be voted for by the intelligent negroes of the State. They nominate Senator Prioleau as an "ingrate" for his treatment of them.

SHERWOOD HIGGS & CO.

SHERWOOD HIGGS & CO.

The Millinery Department.

The largest in the city, and is reaching out this year to cover every county in the State.

Come here to get posted as to the most correct styles, and you can save time and money by having a wide stock to select from.

The picture has turned out from our work rooms are marvels of beauty.

Some of many departments complete the full headgear.

The satisfaction of getting quality that is the best, at prices that are the lowest—are facts well worth remembering.

The Coat Suit Department.

The newest, prettiest full sets of ready-made coats, jackets, coats, capes and to-silks and woolen, separate skirts in various colors, cheviots, and velvets.

Silk and mercerized satin petticoats.

Infants' cloaks, ruffles-down dressing capes and house wrappers.

Coats and muslin underwear are here in large quantities and great variety.

SHERWOOD HIGGS & CO.,

Raleigh, N. C.

County Casuals.

Commissioners' Meeting.

Letter from Durham.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 3.

Entered Record:

Herewith I send you my check to renew subscription to CHATHAM REC'D, which I prize very highly and enjoy reading very much.

I had the pleasure Tuesday morning, Sept. 30th, of shaking hands at East Durham with Hon. Lock Craig and Senator Jeter Peckhard who had spoken the day before at Pittsboro, my old county seat. I was glad to hear that you had such an enthusiastic meeting and from appearances my forecast seemed to be correct. Mr. Craig did a plenty in the mountain section, I am glad to report that Democrats in Durham county is in a bad condition, and from what I learned it appears that we may have a big victory in old Pittsboro, which has so long been so mixed up with all sorts of people.

Very respectfully,

L. G. COLE.

***

There is very general approval of the Supreme court granting a new trial to Wilson, the convicted murderer of Nannie Copesey. The next trial ought to be in another county.

Wilmington Weekly: Fay Thomas, a colored, who lives a mile or so to the south of Franklin, went out hunting last Tuesday. Not finding any game, he soon returned and in putting his gun on the stairs the trigger came in contact with the steps in some way and was fired, the load hitting his belt, which was filled with shells, which were soon shooting in every direction. Thomas was hit a dozen or more times, dying at once.

Wilson Times: Mr. Daniel Lusk, of Black Creek township, is a upright character. He does not lose a letter when he sees it in print and cannot say his letters forward but can say them backward.

J. L. Johnson, for guarding General Fearon's residence, was shot and killed.

A. T. Clegg, for serving road order.

Bynum & Headen, for supplies.

M. C. Clark, for minister for Hockin bridge.

W. E. Crumfield, for building Hockin bridge.

A. M. Scott, for attorney for Hockin bridge.

A. A. Clegg, for minister for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for supplies.

Hannah Miller and Merrimac Co., for material for Hockin bridge.

A. W. Walker, insolvent.

Portrait Co., for suits for Hockin bridge.

H. T. Chaplin, as superintendent of health.

B. Clark, for conveying General Fearon from Pittsboro to Wilson.

W. E. Crumfield, Son, for supplies.

W. L. London & Sons, for supplies.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.

W. L. London & Sons, for material for Hockin bridge.