

II. A LONDON, ENGL.

Tax-payers are not closely all the expenditures and appropriations made by their legislatures and county commissioners...

Where the county expended a hundred dollars or the State a million dollars, Congress appropriates a million dollars...

The probable cause for the apparent indifference of the State tax-payers...

The probable cause for the apparent indifference of the State tax-payers is that every tax-payer knows exactly the amount of State taxes...

Pursuant to the order of the court appointed as-Sonator, Frederick W. ...

This appointment will result from North Carolina being the most prominent and powerful leader of the movement...

Not only is there a movement in North Carolina to elect a Republican leader to the office of Governor...

Whether this movement is successful and whether Pitt-Rivers will be elected the Republican party in this State...

It is announced by a prominent revenue officer that one subject of the Ways and Means bill...

Such an effect will be a 'non-summation' device which will and will retire to 'anonymous'...
