

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a death knell to me. I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost tones and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—MRS. FLORENCE DASTREIN, 1037 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.

"A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced. Here is another case:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I was troubled with falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, neuralgia, headache, bearing-down pains, backache, fainting, dizzy and fainting spells, and stomach trouble.

"I recovered for about five years but did not seem to improve. I began the use of your medicine and have taken seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, three of Blood Purifier, and also used the Sanguio Wash and Liver Pills, and am now enjoying good health, and have gained in flesh. I thank you very much for what you have done for me, and heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women."—Miss Emma Seward, 215 East Center St., Marion, Ohio.

"FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN." Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear. It is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she publishes thousands of testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer.

$5000 FORFEIT If any person should pretend to sell or give away a medicine called "Pinkham's Vegetable Compound" or any other medicine, or to use the name of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, without the written consent of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass.

GOOD ROADS.

Reformation Era.
It has been said that progressive movement in any direction is the invention, in this, that when the thought of it is running in one mind, it is also running in many minds; and all the signs of the times tell us that the time is coming for a general forward movement for good roads throughout the Union. For ten years the most progressive citizens in all sections of the country have been the vision, ways and means for the permanent improvement of the public highways and a more efficient system of transportation of a general system of operation between the Government, the States and the counties. Among the present leaders in the good roads reform is Representative Bruce B. Baker, of Tennessee, who recently introduced a bill in Congress providing for National cooperation in good roads improvement.

Judge E. H. Traylor, of Illinois, has just written a letter to Colonel Browder, in which he enthusiastically approves all the provisions of the bill and says that he was the first to propose the bill in the National Convention of the National Association of Good Roads, held in Chicago, Ill., 1892. Judge Traylor says that it is his belief that the bill will be passed, and that it will be the first step towards the permanent improvement of the public highways.

The contributing organizations for good roads should have the power to issue bonds, and to issue bonds for the purpose of raising money for the improvement of the public highways. It is the duty of the Government to provide for the improvement of the public highways, and it is the duty of the States and the counties to provide for the improvement of the public highways.

Joke on Dr. Lorenz.
One of Dr. Lorenz's companions chides him every time he tells his anecdote, which is told as an actual occurrence in the great surgeon's career.

The doctor was always very charitable and treated a great many people gratuitously. Among them was a poor little girl in whose case he was deeply interested. One morning Dr. Lorenz happened to meet her mother, and was surprised to hear that his patient had died a few days before.

"Why didn't you send for me when she was dying?" he asked.
"We were going to do so, sir, but we thought it better to let the dear child die a natural death," was the grateful answer.

"Human life is more precious than money," Dr. Lorenz always has declared.

"POOR DIGESTION LANGUID AND TIRED."

[An Interesting Letter Concerning Pe-ru-na.]

MISS DELLA JANVEAU

Miss Della Janveau, Globe Hotel, Ottawa, Ont., is from one of the oldest and best known French Canadian families in Canada. In a recent letter to The Pe-ru-na Co., of Columbus, Ohio, she says:

"Last spring my blood seemed clogged up, my digestion poor, my head ached and I felt languid and tired all the time. My physician prescribed for me, but a friend advised me to try Pe-ru-na. I tried it and am pleased to state that I found it a wonderful cleanser and purifier of the system. In three weeks I was like a new woman, my appetite had increased, I felt buoyant, light and happy and without an ache or pain. Pe-ru-na is a reliable family medicine."

After using your wonderful Pe-ru-na three months I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was nervous, and had fainting spells, but now I feel as if I had been born anew.

It is not easy to describe the relief I feel. I feel as if I had been born anew.

ALL FROGS GOOD TO EAT.

As Much Enjoyed by the Small Boy as by the Epicure.

The demand for frogs is great. It has increased every day of importance every day in the month. All of the larger dining places use from six to ten dozens per day. Of these creatures, which according to a scientific paper, are waiting to be classified by law as to whether they are fish or animals—just as woman had to wait for centuries to find out whether or not they had souls—there seems to be no special variety for eating. They are caught anywhere, and, as a small boy said: "All frogs are good to eat if they are not dead."

Frogs and eels with nets much like those used in catching butterflies, only much smaller, can be seen making for the small streams and ponds that spring up all over the country. The average small boy is an expert in catching, killing and dressing the palatable creatures. It is no unusual sight to see a boy in the field from noon until a late evening, preparing a fresh catch. In the evening, white fish, which they sprinkle with salt and bake with a bit of butter, carried perhaps in a tin can in a pocket along with fishhooks, legs, marbles and string. The frogs may not be served on silver platters; they may be garished only with a spray of fresh watercress, but I wager they are enjoyed as much by the youngsters, who are their own chefs and waiters, as a similar dish otherwise cooked and served would be by grown-up bewigged epicures.
