

Local Records.

—Almost cool enough for frost yesterday morning.

—Fall line of Leth cook stores at Bynum & Headen's. Every stove guaranteed.

—Call at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co's and take a look at their New Dress Goods.

—Timmer from Raleigh are covering the new brick store of the Poe-Atwater Company.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. have a new line of ladies' cloaks, NO LAST WINTER LEFT-OVERS.

—Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. have a new line of clothing for men, boys and children. No old stock.

—Carry your cotton and cotton seed to Bynum & Headen, where you will always get the highest market price.

—Bynum & Headen want to impress on you the fact that they have the best shoes for winter wear.

—There will be a regular meeting of Pittsboro Lodge No. 88, K. of P. tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

—Mrs Nellie Green has returned from Baltimore, and will be glad to have you call and see the latest in millinery at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co's.

—While Bynum & Headen have received their stock of dresses and trimmings, yet, among other things they are receiving some novelty in dress goods and trimmings.

—The Daughters of the Goodwill society will hold their regular monthly meeting next Saturday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Bynum.

—Of course the price of cotton has fallen now since the farmers have begun hauling it to market. What a pity they could not see it the price at which it was a little over a month ago.

—Probably the oldest prisoner in the State is now confined in our county jail. He is Samuel Hester, aged 80 years, who is in the jail at the next term of the Court at Raleigh for theft of clothing.

—Hargbars broke into the post office at Apex on Wednesday night of last week and stole all the stamps and money in it. They are getting uncomfortably close to Pittsboro, and as some postoffice is broken into nearly every week your turn may come any day.

—Mr. A. L. Emory, of Hill township, raises in his own yard chickens no probably any other man in this county, and nearly all of them are spotted white. He carried 50 to market a few days ago and every one was perfect white. They are white Wyandotte breed.

—Another shipment of the millinery received at W. L. London & Son's this week. Their stock of hats is now complete and very beautiful. They are showing some of the handsomest plumes, veils and other hat trimmings. Every thing of the latest style and the best of it all they are so cheap.

—Bynum & Headen have just received one of the largest and most complete stocks of styles and up-to-date millinery ever brought to this place. Mrs. H. H. H. their milliner, most courteously invites all her lady friends to inspect this line of millinery before paying their fall and winter hats.

—Lutab & Tegans, at Silver City have moved into their new brick store, which is one of the handsomest in the State and where they will be glad to serve their many friends and customers. Their store would be a credit to any city in the State, and they will keep in it a large stock of all kinds of goods at bottom prices.

—Ladies if you want a new dress we would advise you to call at W. L. London & Son's and see their handsome stock; they can suit you. We would like to call your special attention to their stock of black goods, they have never had a better stock. They are offering some specially nice dress goods.

—In accordance with an act of the last legislature all that part of Chatham east of Hesse and Four Rivers will be under the new law from and after January 1. About four-fifths of this county are under the new law, it prevails in all the townships except Hill, Crook and Oakland and parts of Centre and Cape Fear.

—Quite an important work was registered here last week. It was a printed document of 30 pages, and was for sale. It was executed by the Cape Fear Power Company to show the study of the State of New York. The study was from the river to the property at Bunkle Creek in the Harnett county, where the company is building an immense dam across the Cape Fear river.

—Cotton is selling as high at this place this season as it ever was in the State.
