

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY. DEC. 17, 1903.

Local Records.

—Apples, oranges, nuts, figs, apricots, raisins, currants, candies, etc., at Bynum & Headen's.

—Don't fail to see the framed and unframed pictures at Bynum & Headen's. They certainly are cheap.

—Special bargains in Dress Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Ladies' Jackets at J. R. Weather- spoon's, Sanford, N. C.

—We have had more genuine cold, wintry weather already than during all of last winter, and the winter has only just begun.

—Holiday Goods and Xmas novelties and Xmas tree ornaments. Special prices to Sunday schools. J. R. Weatherspoon, Sanford, N. C.

—The old friends of our former countryman, Dr. Isaac Jackson will regret to learn that he is critically sick at his home at Whiteville, Columbus county.

—Mr. C. J. Bright, of New Hill, writes us that the champion hog raised in his section is Mr. T. B. Stephens, who killed a hog weighing 635. Who can beat this?

—The bazaar held by the ladies of the Episcopal church here last Thursday night proved quite a success. Over $50 was realized which will be used in repairing the church shortly.

—For more than a week past the editor of THE RECORD has been confined to his bed with 212, narrowly escaping an attack of pneumonia, but is now better and hopes to be out in a few days.

—We are pleased to note that the condition of our townsmen, Capt. L. H. Estlin, who has been confined to his bed most of the time since his return from Washington, is somewhat improved.

—What would make a better or more appropriate Christmas present for your wife than a good cook stove? Bynum & Headen sell and guarantee the reliable Roth stoves. They are the best.

—A force of hands was put to work yesterday in preparing roads for the pigs of new hill country bridge. The oak logs being squared about half a mile west of Haw river and north of the S. A. L. railroad.

—Mr. Abner E. Bright, of this township, we regret to inform you, last week, aged about 30 years. He was a man of large stature, deep voiced, and fleet foot, running one of the principal streams.

—Work on the extension of the telephone line between Bynum Hill and Chapel Hill is progressing rapidly. It is hoped to have speaking connection with the Hill in a short time now. Connection with Durham and Raleigh is also imminent upon the completion of the line to Chapel Hill.

—So far as we have heard, the largest hog killed in the county this winter belonged to Miss Mary Barringer, of L. C. Valley, the net weight of which was 385 pounds. Mrs. Barringer had six hogs killed in all, their combined weight being 2542 pounds.

—A white man named Joshua Clark, of this county, was last week sentenced by Judge Purnell of the Federal Court in Raleigh, to four months in jail for illicit distilling. He elected to serve his sentence in Chatham jail, and was accordingly brought from on Wednesday night to begin his sentence.

—Xmas is almost here. It will pay you to get your presents and other Christmas things once before the rush. W. L. London & Son have a new and full stock of everything nice to eat in the confectionaries. Try a box of stuffed dates or a basket of nuts. They are headquarters for fresh Florida oranges, and raisins, and the best nuts. 25¢ per pound to $1.25. Best flour to make your cakes.

—Clerk of the Court James T. Griffin has filed a suit against the pension warrants to Confederate pensioners, which will come to the nature of a Christmas remembrance to this worthy class of our citizens. In all 115 warrants were sent out, distributed as follows: One first-class drawing $30, three second-class, drawing $15; seven third-class, drawing $5; and one hundred and thirty-four fourth-class, including sixty-seven widows, drawing $14.

—Among the handsome presents and toys at W. L. London & Son's you can find fine litho. lovely pictures and frames, oil lamps, fine writing paper and envelopes, hand handkerchiefs, fine gloves, silverware, China, glassware, all nice quality and very low prices. You all know they have the most complete stock of toys for your children, doll carriages, wagons, chairs, dolls of all sizes and prices, games of every description. Bring your children to see Old Santa Claus.

Buck's Letter.

—The reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Chapman last Wednesday evening, complimentary to their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Staley, of Aurora, was one of the pleasantest social functions of the season. The house, both interior and exterior, was tastily decorated, choice refreshments were served, and all present spent a most pleasant evening.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

—Mrs. H. C. Long has gone on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Heflin, in Raleigh.

—Mr. Sike Johnson, who has been attending Bane's Creek Academy for the past session, has returned home.

—Mr. W. R. Hunter of Raleigh has been here a few days with his wife, who is spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. M. C. Brewer.

—Our former townsmen, Mr. J. Herbert Headen, who is cashier for a large cement company at Craigsville, Va., has been here on a short visit.

Bynum Local.

—Bynum, N. C., Dec. 15, 1903.

In order for Christmas, Clegg

—The Banana school will have

—Wish to see that Mr. Cleveland

—The picture is a very fa-

—and I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—If I had to marry again I would —make promises for promises, but

—that I would have lots of them

—in the fall of 1875 a kid polly to want

—meat when the weather got extremely

—cold, so now the children

—have a considerable supply of meat

—and it is as good as you can

—see. —Wish to see that Mr. Cleveland

—is a good boy, and I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.

—I am told lots of them

—had no let a man freeze when

—they promised to stick to his

—back as long as life should last.