

Local Records.

The road commissioners will meet here next Monday, the 19th. Read the appointments of Hon. E. W. Pou and go to hear him speak. Only 25 cents for THE RECORD until the election. Get all your neighbors to subscribe. One thousand cords of dry pine wood wanted by the Chatham Cotton Oil Company. The heavy rain yesterday indicates that the equinoctial storm is a week ahead of time. The grading on the New Hope Valley railroad is very light and is being pushed rapidly. Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. have just received a large stock of winter shoes, also a full line of rubbers. FARM FOR SALE.—That valuable farm near Pittsboro owned by Mr. Spence Taylor, containing 119 acres. Apply to H. A. London, agent. Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. have just placed an order with a manufacturer for one thousand dollars worth of shoes for their store at Bynum. If you intend buying any carpets be sure to see the fine line of samples at Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co.'s. Carpets sold by the yard, or cut and made to order. Mr. R. N. Simms, the Democratic candidate for Presidential elector, will speak at Pittsboro tomorrow (Friday) night. He is a capital speaker and we hope there will be a large crowd to hear him. The Republican executive committee of this Congressional district has not yet been able to find anybody foolish enough to be defeated by Hon. E. W. Pou. Nobody seems to be willing to become a victim. Cotton gins are so liable to be burned that every one ought to be insured. Now is the time to insure. For rates, etc., apply to H. A. London, agent of the old reliable North Carolina Home Insurance Company. Our neighbors in Alamance will hold their annual county fair on the 27th to the 30th of this month, and many Chathamites will attend. No county has a more creditable fair or is more progressive than Alamance. Miss Annie Taylor is now in Baltimore buying stock and perfecting herself in millinery art for W. L. London & Son. She will return next week with a very complete stock and will take pleasure in showing you through her stock. The roller mill at Bynum will be closed down for the next ten days. The Chatham Roller Mill Co. will have the mill put in perfect condition, so that when it starts again they can guarantee entire satisfaction to their patrons. For Sale.—A sixty acre tract 4 miles west of Pittsboro, near the old May place, formerly owned by A. M. Barrett. Also a tract of 53 acres near Lockville formerly owned by Arthur Dickens, on south side of Deep river. Apply to H. A. London. There are nineteen applicants for the position of mail carrier on the rural free delivery route, which is to be established from here via Bynum and Moore's mill. On next Saturday they are to stand a civil service examination, to be held here by the postmaster. Mr. W. H. Duhling has two or three pear trees of a new variety, called the Lincoln Coreless, that should be grown more generally by our farmers. This is the first year these trees have yielded fruit, and the pears are of a superior quality. As usual W. L. London & Son are the first to show new goods. They are daily receiving their new goods, and have endeavored to sustain their reputation, which they have had for nearly half a century, by showing the best and most up-to-date stock that is shown in the county. Frank C. Poe will go North in a few days to purchase goods for Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. The decline in price of cotton is having an appreciable effect in the price of dress goods, etc., and these goods will be cheaper after the present rush on the market. Poe-Atwater Mercantile Co. believe in the adage "goods well bought are half sold".

As our road commissioners are a non-partisan body they have appointed Republican as well as Democratic road supervisors. We regret to hear that some of these Republican supervisors, in order to make the road law unpopular, have neglected their roads so as to make people complain about them. Any man mean enough to try to make political capital in such way is unfit to hold any position.

Public Speaking. Hon. E. W. Pou will address the people of Chatham at the following times and places: Goldston, Sept. 20th, 1904. Siler City, Sept. 21st, 1904. Bynum, Sept. 22nd, 1904. Hon. R. N. Simms, Elector, will speak at Cunnock Sept. 14, 1904; Harper's X Roads, Sept. 15, 1904; Carter's School House, Sept. 16, 1904; Pittsboro, at night, Sept. 16, 1904. R. H. HAYES, Ch'm'n Dem. Ex. Com.

Better Than a Plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by G. R. Pilkington.

The Democratic primaries were held in Wake county on last Saturday, and resulted in the nomination of J. C. Ellington for the Senate and A. B. Stronach, Percy J. Olive and R. E. Seutelle for the House. The old sheriff and register were renominated, but a new board of county commissioners were nominated. The announcement has been made that the DeForest system of wireless telegraph has been made to work satisfactory between Chicago and St. Louis, a distance of over 300 miles, over a section in which there are numerous electric lines and cities with traction systems. Mr. E. B. Gresham, of Charlotte, a member of the class of 1898, has established at Wake Forest two scholarships worth seventy-five dollars each to be awarded annually by the faculty to worthy, indigent students of promise. When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no gripping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by G. R. Pilkington. A son of Frank Partin, of Wake county, was smothered to death while playing in a pile of cotton on last Tuesday. The bank at Murphy, in Cherokee county, was robbed by burglars of $4,500 one night last week.

Working The Roads. EDITOR RECORD:—Some weeks ago there was a communication in The Citizen saying in substance that the public roads in the southwestern part of Williams township had been imperfectly worked, and intimating that the road fund had too many leaks in that division. Now, Mr. Editor, I am no road politician, and am far from trying to inject any partisan feeling in the road business, but I am persuaded to believe that communication was instigated by a party spirit, because the supervisor of this division is a Democrat, and, if so, let me say that the other supervisor is a Populist and I am told that the roads in that section are not worked as well as they were under the old road law, except one road; all the work or nearly all is done on one road, and the tax-payers are tired of this business, and the citizens of the north-eastern part of the township will ask for their rights in this matter. Away with politics in the road business. Let the superintendent remove the supervisor who continues to look to party in the road business. The roads in the north-eastern part of Williams township are greatly neglected. A half day run-over is about all in one year. FAIR PLAY.

Conductor Fatally Shot. Special to Charlotte Observer. Durham, Sept. 12.—Passengers who came in on the Norfolk & Western train this morning tell of the accidental shooting of a Pullman conductor on the main line of the Norfolk & Western road at Lynchburg, Va., this morning. At last accounts it is said that the conductor was so badly wounded that he cannot recover. The accident occurred in this way: At Lynchburg the train crews on the main line change. While the property of an express messenger was being taken off the train one of the crew accidentally dropped a gun belonging to the express company, one of the kind carried by the messengers, and it was discharged. The lead of buckshot entered the left side of the conductor who was standing near-by.

Killed By Train. Special to Charlotte Observer. Spencer, Sept. 12.—Mr. Jefferson Lewis, of this place, was struck by north-bound passenger train No. 40 here Saturday night about midnight sustaining injuries from which he died last night. Mr. Lewis, it is learned, had started to the depot to meet a grandson who was expected to arrive here on the same train and while on his way walked too near the railroad track permitting the incoming train to strike him a terrific blow on the back of the head.

Struck and Killed by Train. Special to News and Observer. Asheville, N. C., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Jno. Clontz, of Alexander, was run over by a freight train near Gorman's bridge this afternoon at 2:10 and so badly injured that she died thirty minutes afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Clontz had been to a store at Gorman's bridge to make some purchases, riding on horseback. They left the store and started down the track together when the train came upon them and Mrs. Clontz was struck. Mr. Clontz escaped without injury.
