Cash for wheat. Lockville Roller Mills offer $1.10 a bushel for good wheat. Wanted: By Lockville Roller Mills second-hand bags of every kind. Lockville Roller Mills will clean their customers' seed wheat without charge. Atwater & Lambeth will pay $1.10 cash for good milling wheat at their mill at Bynum. G. R. Pilkington invites an inspection of an up-to-date line of souvenir and comic postal cards. Call on him. The attention of the tax-payers of Chatham is called to Sheriff Milliken's notice, published in another column. Blank notices for posting land for sale at The Record office. Also chattel mortgages, mortgage deeds and warranty deeds for sale. Any lady who desires an education and who is really without means with which to pay for it may write to J. M. Rhodes, Littleton, N. C. Next Thursday being Thanksgiving Day the stores at this place will be closed and all business suspended, as is customary on every Thanksgiving Day. Only a little over a month to Christmas. It will soon be here and already the little folks are eagerly looking forward to it with joyous anticipations. Dr. Thrie (dentist) will be at the following places and times as stated below: First week of each month at Pittsboro, 2nd week at Jonesboro, 3rd week at Sanford. At the recent State Fair, we are pleased to note, Mr. A. R. Norwood, of Baldwin township, was awarded a premium of ten dollars on a fine pair of young mules which he had raised. Why send your job printing to Wake county, Lee county or any other old county or new county, when you can have it done right here at The Record office just as neatly and cheaply? Did you ever hear of a cat catching rabbits? Mrs. M. A. Y. Wheeler, who lives near here, has a large Maltese cat which came to the house some days ago dragging a rabbit which it had caught. At the recent election in Virginia Capt. J. H. Wissler, who is well known in this county, was re-elected to the legislature by an increased majority, although his opponent was one of the strongest men in his county. How about your rugs, art squares, carpets, matings and linoleums for the winter? If you need any of these take a look at the stock at London's. They are showing an exceptionally attractive line this season. Levi Poe, who escaped from our county jail two weeks ago, was captured last Saturday at Raleigh and returned to the insane department of the penitentiary, from which he escaped several months ago. The grocery department at W. L. London & Son's is filled with standard brands of the freshest groceries that are guaranteed to be of the best and the one kind you will find in their stock. Mr. Samuel Perry, of Hickory Mountain township, died last week, aged ninety-five years. He was the father of Mr. John W. Perry, who is himself seventy-three years old. He was the oldest white man in this county, so far as we know. No clue has yet been found as to the burglars who broke into the store of W. L. London & Son on Tuesday night of last week. This is the first attempt ever made here by burglars to blow open a safe, and this unsuccessful effort is not calculated to cause a reputation. The many friends of Mr. James B. Riggsbee, of Riggsbee township, sympathize most deeply with him in the death, on last Saturday, of his 17-year-old son Ernest, after a short sickness with typhoid fever. Rev. R. B. Liberty conducted the funeral services at Lystra Baptist church Sunday afternoon. All the criminal cases at our court last week were disposed of in one day, and none of them were of much importance. In view of the fact that we had no criminal court since last May, six months ago, this is very creditable to our good old county and is another illustration of the benefits of prohibition and good Democratic government. The Sanford Express states that Mr. Frank D. Jones, of Guilf, has retired as superintendent of the Durham & Charlotte Railroad and is succeeded by Capt. John L. Tull. Capt. Tull is an experienced railroad man and is pleasantly remembered here where he made his headquarters for some time three years ago while surveying on the extension of the D. & C. Road. Judge Ferguson was much pleased with the grand jury's report last week (published in another column), and wanted a copy of it sent to his county commissioners with the hope that his county commissioners would buy and work a farm in connection with their county home. Chatham has cause to be pleased at the successful working of our county home as shown in the grand jury's report.

We are requested to announce that the stores at Bynum will be closed next Thursday (Thanksgiving Day). Miss Julia Hammock, of this place, died on last Tuesday of dropsy and heart-disease, from which she had suffered for some time. The local branch of the woman's betterment association will meet at graded school building Saturday afternoon of this week at 8 o'clock. We regret to hear that the dwelling of Mr. Rufus Ellington, of Rock Rest township, was destroyed by fire on last Tuesday night. The K. of P. Lodge at Bynum will meet tomorrow (Friday) night for the first time in their new hall. All the brethren are requested to take notice and govern themselves accordingly. Mr. Henry Straughan and Miss Ella Ferguson, a daughter of Mr. A. V. Ferguson, of Hickory Mountain township, were married on last Sunday by Rev. L. R. Dixon. The Record extends congratulations. Our public spirited neighbors at Siler City expect to observe Thanksgiving Day (the 28th) in grand style. Among other attractions they will have Governor Glenn there to make one of his eloquent and soul-stirring speeches. No doubt a large crowd will be there. On last Wednesday afternoon, Mr. John A. Williams, of Oakland township, met with quite a serious accident. He had ridden a mule to his son's home, about half a mile from his home, and had hitched it when he went in the house. Shortly afterwards he heard the mule trying to break loose and he went to the mule and caught the mule in order to hold it, but the mule jerked Mr. Williams' arm out of place and threw him on the ground breaking his left thigh. Personal Items. Miss Maggie Allen, of Raleigh, is visiting her uncle, Capt. J. F. Alston. Mr. Clarence H. Poe, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here with his sister, Miss Daisy Poe. Mrs. W. R. Jones, of Goldsboro, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nora M. Bynum, at Bynum. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hayes left last Wednesday morning on a three days' trip to Richmond, Va. Mr. C. S. Brewer, of Carthage, has been here on a short visit to his mother, Mrs. Mary C. Brewer. Miss Nettie Haughton has gone to Asheville, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Jones. Mr. Curtis Wolff, who moved from here to the Eastern Shore of Maryland eight years ago, is here on a short visit to friends. Mr. Robert L. Montgomery, who moved from this place to Durham over 18 years ago where he is freight agent for the S. A. L. Railway, has been here on a short visit. Midshipman J. J. London, of the U. S. S. Georgia, will arrive here Saturday for a visit of a few days to his parents, before leaving with the battleship fleet next month for the Pacific waters. At a meeting of the congregation of the Baptist church here Sunday night Dr. H. P. Chapin and Messrs. J. W. Moore and B. M. Poe were elected delegates to the Baptist State convention which meets at Wilmington week after next. The friends of Mr. Walter Jerome, a son of Rev. C. P. Jerome, will be pleased to learn that he has been recently elected headmaster of Trinity High School, at Old Trinity, Randolph county, where he has been assistant headmaster since the opening of the fall term. Superior Court. The trial of cases on the civil issue docket was begun on Wednesday of last week and the following were disposed of: Sinoa Tinen, against James T. Wright was a suit on the official bond of the defendant, who is the constable of this township, for unlawfully entering and securing his dwelling. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. W. J. A. Cheek against Fred. H. Williams and wife was an action to foreclose a mortgage. This case, at August court, was referred to the clerk of the court and he made a report in favor of the plaintiff. The defendants were excepted as to the clerk's report, and a trial by jury having been asked for the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount demanded. Mandy Mash against Southern Railway was a $50 penalty suit for failure to settle a claim, in which the plaintiff was non-suited. O. M. Dorsett and others against H. K. Dorsett was the title of two cases, one for the partition of land and the other for the conversion of personal property. Both cases were compromised without a jury trial. W. A. Cameron against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway was a $100 penalty suit for the loss of a shipment of hams from Spout Springs to Pittsboro which was compromised by defendant paying plainiff $50 and costs. R. W. White against Seaboard Air Line Railway was a $90 penalty action for delay of freight which was compromised without a trial by defendant paying plaintiff $45 and costs. Eselle Ray against A. A. Ray was an action to declare null and void a divorce secured by the defendant in Indiana. Verdict in favor of plaintiff. Caesar J. Alston and others against Aaron D. Alston was for the sale of land for partition among the plaintiffs and the defendant as tenants in common. There was no contention as to the title, but the defendant claimed $250 for improvements alleged to have been put on the land by him, and the plaintiffs claimed that the defendant should be charged with certain rents. The jury gave the defendant $43 for his improvements and charged him with $76 for rent. Caesar J. Alston, as administrator of Aaron D. Alston, against Aaron D. Alston was an action for the recovery of a mule, and the jury decided in favor of the defendant. It was late Saturday afternoon when the last of the above cases was tried and there was no time to try any more, and the judge departed on the afternoon train for Carthage where he is holding court this week. Grand Jury Report. The grand jury last week made the following report: "We the committee of the grand jury for the Fall term 1907, respectfully submit the following report: The committee to visit the home for the aged and infirm report that we found 34 inmates, 19 white and 15 colored, which we found were well fed, housed and clothed. We recommend that Willis Hobby be chained when the Supt. thinks it necessary. We find 3 head of mules in good condition, 18 head of cattle in good condition and 24 hogs in good condition. One two-horse wagon, one one-horse wagon, one wheat drill, one mowing machine and rakes, one cutaway harrow and farming tools necessary to carry on the work. We found 180 barrels of corn, 50 bushels of wheat, 20 bushels of peas, 120,000 pounds of forage. We find the premises neatly kept. The court-house and jail committee respectfully submit: We found the jail neatly kept and were told by the prisoners that they were well fed, furnished with water, soap and towels for bathing and were kindly treated. We recommend that the jail be fumigated as often as is necessary to keep down odors arising from the habits of the prisoners. We also recommend that iron grating be put over the unprotected windows and entrance door. We recommend such repairs as is necessary, arising from mutilation of the building by a prisoner in his successful escape. We examined the county offices and found them neatly kept and to the best of our knowledge correctly kept. We recommend a safety vault for the sheriff's office for the protection of county books and papers. We suggest that the custodian of the court-house look after the piping to the stoves in the court-room. All of which is respectfully submitted to his honor, Judge G. S. Ferguson presiding. JACOB THOMPSON, Foreman." A Loved One Gone. On the evening of October the 26th many hearts were saddened by the untimely death of our friend, Miss Luna Gunter. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathanael Gunter, of Merry Oaks, and leaves many loved ones to mourn her absence. Miss Luna had joined the Baptist church at the age of fifteen, and for three years had been an earnest Christian, ever faithful to service. Last year she entered King's Business College at Raleigh, and but for her recent illness would have finished the course in a few weeks. While in Raleigh she was a member of "The Dorcas class" in the Tabernacle Sunday school, and we are informed that she is greatly missed by her co-workers. The funeral service took place on Sunday afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery near her home. We know the separation must be heart-rending to the fond parents, but in their grief we commend them to one who knoweth their sorrows and is ever ready to heal the wounded heart. A Friend. Merry Oaks, Nov. 18th, 1907. Woman Killed by Lightning. St. Louis, Nov. 16.—Mrs. John McKinnon, wife of an em. John of the Glencoe Lime Company, in St. Louis county, was almost instantly killed by lightning, which struck her while she was sweeping the floor of her home Thursday. The bolt entered an open window, and did not damage anything in the house. About a year ago her oldest son was killed while at work in the lime kilns at Glencoe by being struck by a falling rock. Accidentally Shot His Brother. Meadville, Pa., Nov. 18.—Thomas, the 13-year-old son of Hiram Stafford, was accidentally shot by his older brother yesterday and instantly killed. The boys were starting hunting and as they passed out the door, Thomas ahead, the hammer of his brother's gun caught the door casing and the gun was discharged, striking Thomas in the back. Collision Barely Averted. From the Charlotte Observer, 17th inst. What might have proved a disastrous wreck was barely averted yesterday about noon on the Seaboard Air Line 7 miles from this city when the incoming passenger train met a heavily loaded freight, the two engines being stopped luckily just before they came together. The engineers caught sight of each other on a long stretch of road, and were able to stop their trains before the collision took place. Had they met on a curve, which was immediately above the result might have been fearful.

TAX NOTICE!

—Last Call—

In order to give the delinquent tax-payers of the County one more chance to pay their taxes for the year 1907 before I begin to levy and collect by process as required by law, I will attend at the times and places, as stated below, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 3:00 P. M., for the purpose of receiving your taxes. I am compelled by law to settle with the State Treasurer by the First of January, and as the State tax amounts to about $12,000.00 and I have only about $2,000.00 on hand, I will be forced to do something that I have never done before—go to levying right after Christmas. On the First Monday in January the School Board will make the apportionment to the several Public School Districts in the County, and I will have to have about $5,000.00 to pay those teachers who taught in November and December, and must have their money as soon as the apportionment is made: Silk Hope, Wednesday, Dec. 4th Siler City, Thursday, Dec. 5th Harper's X Roads, Friday, Dec. 6th Goldston, Saturday, Dec. 7th Goldston's Mill, Monday, Dec. 9th Lockville, Thursday, Dec. 10th Buckhorne (Dam) Wednesday Dec. 11th Merry Oaks, Thursday, Dec. 12th Tom Kelly's, Friday, Dec. 13th Cole's Mill, Saturday, Dec. 14th Please come forward and pay your taxes, as this is My Last Round, and unless the people do better than they did on my first round I shall be compelled to collect by process, as the money must come. JOHN R. MILLIKEN, Sheriff of Chatham County. Pittsboro, N. C., Nov. 20, 1907. Sanford Express: Last Saturday we were shown a scrap from a piece of cloth that was recently made up into a dress by Mrs. Louise Gilmore, of Oakland township, Chatham county. The cloth was bought more than twenty years ago from Mr. W. S. Russell, who was doing an extensive mercantile business at Cummeok, then Egypt. Mr. Russell charged one price for his goods and sold good material to his customers. Why the material for this new dress was left in Mrs. Gilmore's trunk all these years was not explained. Evidently she was not as fond of dress as is the average girl of today. ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE: Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Thomas J. Ivey, deceased, this is to notify all persons having claims against said decedent to exhibit the same to me on or before November 21st, 1907, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This November 21, 1907. FLETCHER E. STROWD, Administrator. LAND SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Chatham county rendered in the case entitled "Nora M. Bynum, adm'x of L. B. Bynum, vs. O. C. Bynum et al." I will sell for cash at 12 o'clock meridian on Saturday, the 30th of November, 1907, at the court-house door in Pittsboro, N. C., a tract of land situated in Baldwin township, Chatham county, containing about six acres and described as follows: Beginning on the public road leading towards Chapel Hill at the northeast corner of the home place of the late L. B. Bynum (now owned by Mrs. Nora M. Bynum) thence in an easterly direction with the said road to the line of the Methodist parsonage lot, thence south with said line to the corner of the parsonage lot, thence east with the line of the parsonage lot and J. B. Atwater's and J. A. West's lines to the public road, thence south to the land of the J. M. Odell Mfg. Co., thence west with the line of said company to the line of the said home place of L. B. Bynum, deceased, thence north with said line to the beginning. This October 30th, 1907. H. M. LONDON, Commissioner. H. A. London & Son, Attorneys.
