Lady Who Attends Funeral of a Young Man, Supposed to Be Son of a Neighbor, Discovers That the Corpse is That of Her Own Son.

Columbia, S. C., Special.-A curious sensational situation suddenly developed at a funeral in Camden when a neighbor, Mrs. Orre, appeared at the home of a Mrs. Langley to pay her respects on account of the death of Wilber Lewis Langley, a son of Mrs. Langley who had been killed by a live wire while working in Camden for a carnival company. At least Mrs. Langley and her children and relatives and neighbors had been mourning for the dead boy as her son for several hours. Mrs. Orre, however, as soon as she went to the casket and glanced at the face of the dead youth, recognized Lewis Sowell, her own son by a former marriage. Mrs. Orre screamed with grief and terror and the attention of others being drawn more closely to the body it was recognized that Mrs. Orre was correct. A few hours later Mrs. Orre's discovery was confirmed by the appearance on the scene of Wilber Lewis himself, who returned home from the country where he had arclina School for the Deaf and and and easily accessible to the railroad, been at work, surprised to find himself being mourned as dead.

San Francisco, Special.—The trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways, against whom the grand jury returned 14 indictments on the charge of offering to bribe supervisors to obtain an overhead trolley franchise was postponed until February 1st in order to give Calhoun time to get to New York on business connected with street railways in this city.

Death Duties in England.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer's estimate of the net receipt into the Exchequer from the death duties during the financial year is £13,000,000, apart from the expected yield of £600,000 from the proposed increase of charge on estates over £150,000 and the proposed super tax on estates of more than a million each. The estimated receipt, which the last twelve years has been less by £8,-500,000 than the actual receipt, will probably be again this year much less than the yield of the duties. The estimate is at the rate of £250,000 a week .- London Daily Graphic.

President Roosevelt Makes an Authoritative Statement

REITERATES FORMER POSITION

Following Upon the Call of the National Committee For the Meeting of the Republican Convention the President Issues an Official Statement, Declaring That Under No Circumstances Will He Be a Candidate For the Office He Now Holds.

Washington, Special.-In view of the issuance of the call of the Republican national committee for the convention the President makes the following statement:

On the night after election I made the following announcement: "I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

I have not changed and shall not change the decision thus announced.

Leaves Field Clear. It appears that the President had been awaiting the call of the Republican national convention to afford proper opportunity for making is position clear and unmistakable and thus leaving the field clear for Fairbanks, Taft, Cannon, Knox, Forcandidates for the Republican nomi-

The Senate was in session a little more than an hour Monday and at 1:15 o'clock adjourned.

Very little business was transacted beyond the introduction of bills. The resolutions of Senators Clay and Culberson calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for information concerning the recent bond issue of the government came up and in the absence of Senatory Aldrich their consideration was postponed until another day.

Senator Tillman presented resolutions instructing the committee on finance to investigate the recent bond issues, but the absence of Mr. Aldrich was urged as a reason why they should not be acted upon.

A resolution calling upon the Secrectary of Agriculture for information concerning the reclamation of swamp land in the United States and abroad was adopted.

The House adjourned at 12:10 without transacting any business beyond the introduction of bills. It was stated authoratively that the house committees will not be announced this week.
