

AN HONEST DOCTOR ADVISED PE-RU-NA.

MR. SYLVESTER E. SMITH, Room 218, Granite Block, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Peruna is the best friend a sick man can have."

"A few months ago I came here in a wretched condition. Exposure and dampness had ruined my once robust health. I had catarrhal affections of the bronchial tubes, and for a time there was a doubt as to my recovery."

"My good honest old doctor advised me to take Peruna, which I did and in a short time my health began to improve very rapidly, the bronchial trouble gradually disappeared, and in three months my health was fully restored."

"Accept a grateful man's thanks for his restoration to perfect health."

A. W. Perrin, M. D. S., 980 Halley St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says:

"I am using your Peruna myself, and am recommending it to my patients in all cases of catarrh, and find it to be more than a mere restorative. Peruna can be had now at all druggists in this section. At the time I began using it, it was unknown."

JOHN WORTH KERN-- A SKETCH OF HIS LIFE

Nearly 69 Years Old.

December 20, 1849—Born in Alto, Howard county, Ind.

1869—Graduated from University of Michigan.

Reporter for the Supreme Court of Indiana.

1892-6—State Senator.

1897-1901—City Attorney, Indianapolis.

Defeated for Governor.

1904—Again defeated for Governor.

1905—Received complimentary vote of his party for United States Senate.

Denver, Special.—"Gentlemen, you will have to excuse me, for I must go and buy a present for my little boy. I remember that this is his birthday."

With this plea, John Worth Kern, Democratic nominee for Vice-President, left an important conference of Indiana party leaders here the other day.

"Well, I reckon that is about the only political confab John Kern ever left until it was over," said one of his fellow delegates, "and I don't suppose there is a thing on earth that could have dragged him away except some duty or pleasure for his family."

The plea of Mr. Kern for absenting himself, and the comment thereon by his close personal and political friends, well illustrates the two most striking traits in the character of the man whom the Democratic party has chosen to be the running mate of William Jennings Bryan. First of all, Mr. Kern loves his family. Next he loves the swirl of politics, and over in Indiana they tell you he knows the game as he knows his alphabet.

There will be hundreds of thousands of voters asking:

"Who is this man from Indiana, a man who never was in the halls of Congress in an official capacity and never had anything to do with Washington affairs except as the rank and file of American citizens have to do with them? In his State he has never held any higher office than Supreme Court. How then, did it come that he should be singled out to be the team mate of the man from Nebraska, singled out from the scores of men, some of wider fame, who were mentioned as suitable for the Presidency of the United States Senate and as quite suitable to the Chief Magistrate in case of accident?"

Probably the best answer is that Mr. Kern is, heart, mind, muscle and soul a Bryan Democrat, and that he can come near carrying Indiana for his party, in all political probability, than any other man that could be named. Every delegate from the Hoosier State will tell you that when the long whiskers of Mr. Kern shake with the fervency of his political pleading from the rostrum, every toss of his hair, every word that he utters, singles out from the scores of men he has been the candidate in Indiana for Governor, and twice he has polled more votes by 12,000 than any other man on his ticket. He failed of election in 1900 and again in 1904. They were brilliant failures that have become political assets and thrust him to the fore as "the first Democrat of Indiana."

With all his fine prowess as a stump speaker and vote getter, however, it is safe to say that Mr. Kern would not have been chosen the nominee for the Vice-Presidency did not fit the Bryan program and personal like the glove of the debutante.

Not in any sense is Mr. Kern to be considered a frequenter of clubs. His social instincts do not run quite in that channel, and yet he is credited with being one of the best mixers and cleverest tellers of stories in his State. He has a keen sense of humor and enjoys the sunny side of life as much as anybody. In a circle of friends he is nearly always conceded the floor and given sway to the conversation. He is a member of the University Club of Indianapolis.

Nobody has ever discovered that he has any hobby but politics, or any recreation but commingling with his family and friends. He does not play golf, go fishing or hunting or follow any game but that which is picture-squally played here in Denver last week. In that he is a shining light. He loves his law books and documents on political economy. In them he seeks the diversion which the links or the quarry offers to others.

He is rugged neither in stature nor in health, but when it comes to campaigning he can "make" more towns and delivered as many speeches in a day as the best of them.

John W. Kern was born December 20, 1849, in Howard county, Indiana. His father, D. Jacob W. Kern, was a Virginian, who removed to Shelby county, Indiana, in 1836, and lived here until 1846, when he moved into the new Northern country.

Mrs. Kern Sorry.

Indianapolis, Special.—Mrs. Kern wife of the nominee for Vice-President.

Sherman to be Operated on.

Utica, N. Y., Special.—It is stated for James S. Sherman, the Republican nominee for Vice-President that no determination has been made as to when he will undergo an operation. His physician visits him twice daily and is carefully observing his condition. Mr. Sherman is permitted to spend about two hours each day with his secretary in going over his correspondence.

Schooner Two Sisters Lost.

Norfolk, Va., Special.—A special to the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch from Washington, N. C., reports the sinking of Maul Point, 15 miles below Washington, of the schooner Two Sisters, Capt. T. M. Credle. The schooner struck a submerged buoy, which tore a great hole in her bottom, causing her to go down within a few minutes. Captain Credle and crew clung to the rigging until rescued. They lost all their personal effects.

46 Guns Fired for Bryan.

Washington, Special.—The nomination of Mr. William J. Bryan as Democratic candidate for President of the United States was celebrated by the Democratic clubs of the District of Columbia on the Washington Monument grounds. A crowd of about 200 persons gathered to witness the honorific ceremony. The announcement of the nomination was followed by a salute of 46 guns, one for each State.

MENACED BY A MOB

Kidnapper of Young Child Has Mighty Close Call

SPURRED AWAY BY OFFICERS

Glassboro, N. J., Special.—Charles Hemphill, a young man whose home is in Clayton, near here, narrowly escaped being lynched by excited residents of this vicinity who had been brought to the point of fury because Hemphill had kidnapped Cora Gar-ton, a 7-year-old child whose home is in Millville, N. J. Only a quick action of the police authorities is secretly removing Hemphill to the Woodbury jail, it is believed, saved his life.

Hemphill on Thursday last joined a Holiness camp meeting here and became, it is said, infatuated with the child. Saturday he hired a team and going to the home of Rev. Mr. Jarrell where the child was visiting, offered to drive the clergyman to the camp-meeting. The offer was accepted and after leaving the minister at the camp Hemphill returned to the Jarrell home and told Mrs. Jarrell that he had been sent for Cora. Helen Higgins, aged eight years, was at play with Cora at the time and Mrs. Jarrell not suspecting anything wrong bundled the two children into the carriage. A half hour later Helen carried running back almost exhausted and told the pastor's wife that after riding about a mile Hemphill slapped her face, put her out of the carriage and drove off with Cora.

"Wha, how's dat?" "Well, de first week she called me honey, de next week she called me dear, de third week she called me old man, de fourth week she called me fathead and de fifth week she called me a flatiron and broke two ribs, and I'm gwine to keep right away from dar."—London Globe.

ONE-EGG CAKE

One and a half cups granulated sugar, half cup butter, scant one cup sweet milk, two and a half cups sifted pastry flour, one egg, two and a half level teaspoons baking powder in sifted flour, flavoring. Beat butter and sugar thoroughly, adding a little of the milk to help make creamy. Beat egg well and add then the balance of milk. Just at this point beat the mixture with the egg beater, which makes it fine grained. Add flour last.—Indianapolis News.

DROPPED COFFEE

Doctor Gains 20 Pounds on Postum.

A physician of Wash., D. C., says of his coffee experience:

"For years I suffered with periodical headaches which grew more frequent until they became almost constant. So severe were they that sometimes I was almost frantic. I was sallow, constipated, irritable, sleepless; my memory was poor; I trembled and my thoughts were often confused."

"My wife, in her wisdom, believed coffee was responsible for these ills and urged me to drop it. I tried many times to do so, but was its slave."

"Finally wife bought a package of Postum and persuaded me to try it, but she made it same as ordinary coffee and I was disgusted with the taste. (I make this emphatic because I fear many others have had the same experience.) She was distressed at her failure and we carefully read the directions, made it right, boiled it full 15 minutes after boiling commenced, and with good cream and sugar, I liked it—it invigorated and seemed to nourish me."

"That was about a year ago. Now I have no headaches, am not sallow, sleepless and irritable any more, my brain clear and my hand steady. I have gained 20 lbs. and feel I am a new man."

"I do not hesitate to give Postum due credit. Of course dropping coffee was the main thing, but I had dropped it before, using chocolate, cocoa and other things to no purpose."

"Postum not only seemed to act as an invigorant, but as an article of nourishment, giving me the needed phosphates and albumens. This is no imaginary tale. It can be substantiated by my wife and her sister, who both changed to Postum and are hearty women of about 70."

"I write this for the information and encouragement of others, and with a feeling of gratitude to the inventor of Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

DEMOCRATS READY FOR THE BIG BATTLE

Candidates and Their Weapons.

For President—William Jennings Bryan, of Lincoln, Neb.

For Vice-President—John Worth Kern, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Main Issue—"Shall the people rule?—equal rights to all; special privileges to none."

Planks in Platform—State's rights; labor disputes on same footing as other cases in issuing writs of injunction; immediate tariff revision; income tax; enlargement of powers of Interstate Commerce Commission and physical valuation of railroads; publicity of campaign contributions; popular election of Senators; guaranteed banks; criminal prosecution of criminal trusts; condemnation of imperialism; denunciation of administrative succession; improvement of waterways and good roads; condemnation of arbitrary power of Speaker of House of Representatives; prohibition of Asiatic immigration; economy of administration.

Events of the Closing Day.

On receiving the news of his nomination Mr. Bryan declared that if elected he will not be a candidate for a second term.

The issue is joined and the Middle West is to be the battleground.

Main Democrats fear that the attack of Permanent Chairman Clayton on Roosevelt will induce the President to take the stump in defense of his policies.

Each Defeated Twice.

Denver, Special.—The ticket is completed. Bryan has twice been defeated for the Presidency. Mr. Kern has twice been defeated for Governor of Indiana. In two former national conventions Mr. Kern has been considered as a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, but failed of the nomination. He is a close personal friend and a supporter of Bryan, has been steadfast in the convention to Bryanism through all political adversity.

Happy at Kern's Home.

Indianapolis, Special.—The nomination of Bryan was not received with any evidence of enthusiasm here and in this respect it was identical with the nomination of Taft, but when it was followed by the selection of Kern for Vice-President there was evidence of generous enthusiasm on the part of the Democrats, and noticeable disappointment on the part of Republicans. It was generally conceded that Kern's selection would act as an inspiration to the party in Indiana, and as it is conceded that Indiana will be one of the battleground States this year, the Democrats were buoyant and the Republicans correspondingly depressed.

Berlin Estimate of Bryan.

Berlin, By Cable.—All the newspapers print the news of the nomination by the Democratic National Convention at Denver of W. J. Bryan for the Presidency of the United States, but most of them without comment. The Boersen Zeitung, National Liberal, says: "Mr. Bryan upon the whole is a very sympathetic personality. His great eloquence is due to a man of weight and a magnificent orator, but hardly a statesman." The Morning Post, the radical Democratic organ, says Mr. Bryan is far below the late Grover Cleveland in statesmanlike capacity.

Hearst Not to Support Bryan.

New York, Special.—That W. J. Bryan is not to have the support of William R. Hearst is indicated by the attitude of Mr. Hearst's two newspapers, the American and the Evening Journal. The two papers announce a loss of confidence on their part both in the Democratic party and in Mr. Bryan.

46 Guns Fired for Bryan.

Washington, Special.—The nomination of Mr. William J. Bryan as Democratic candidate for President of the United States was celebrated by the Democratic clubs of the District of Columbia on the Washington Monument grounds. A crowd of about 200 persons gathered to witness the honorific ceremony. The announcement of the nomination was followed by a salute of 46 guns, one for each State.

Katharine Craig, 2335 Bay St., Denver, Colo., writes: "Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am well again after months of nervous prostration."

Miss Ellen M. Olson, 411 N. East St., Kokomo, Ind., says: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, side ache, and established my periods, after the best local doctors had failed to help me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulcers, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. #### Another Oil Can Explosion.

Winston-Salem, Special.—While starting a fire in a stove by use of kerosene oil, the twelve-year-old daughter of William Owens, of this city, was frightfully burned as a result of the oil can exploding. The girl is in the hospital and her condition is serious. Her life was saved by timely arrival of neighbors who smothered out the flames by the use of quilts.

No Clue Yet in Drew Case.

Troy, N. Y., Special.—Developments Sunday in Teal Pond murder mystery, although they cleared up one of the uncertainties of Hazel Drew's whereabouts on the day before she met her death, furnished little material value to establish the identity of the girl's slayer. Where she spent the night of July 6th, the day on which she said she was going to New York, is a question the authorities are unable to answer.

ONE-EGG CAKE

One and a half cups granulated sugar, half cup butter, scant one cup sweet milk, two and a half cups sifted pastry flour, one egg, two and a half level teaspoons baking powder in sifted flour, flavoring. Beat butter and sugar thoroughly, adding a little of the milk to help make creamy. Beat egg well and add then the balance of milk. Just at this point beat the mixture with the egg beater, which makes it fine grained. Add flour last.—Indianapolis News.

DROPPED COFFEE

Doctor Gains 20 Pounds on Postum.

A physician of Wash., D. C., says of his coffee experience:

"For years I suffered with periodical headaches which grew more frequent until they became almost constant. So severe were they that sometimes I was almost frantic. I was sallow, constipated, irritable, sleepless; my memory was poor; I trembled and my thoughts were often confused."

"My wife, in her wisdom, believed coffee was responsible for these ills and urged me to drop it. I tried many times to do so, but was its slave."

"Finally wife bought a package of Postum and persuaded me to try it, but she made it same as ordinary coffee and I was disgusted with the taste. (I make this emphatic because I fear many others have had the same experience.) She was distressed at her failure and we carefully read the directions, made it right, boiled it full 15 minutes after boiling commenced, and with good cream and sugar, I liked it—it invigorated and seemed to nourish me."

"That was about a year ago. Now I have no headaches, am not sallow, sleepless and irritable any more, my brain clear and my hand steady. I have gained 20 lbs. and feel I am a new man."

"I do not hesitate to give Postum due credit. Of course dropping coffee was the main thing, but I had dropped it before, using chocolate, cocoa and other things to no purpose."

"Postum not only seemed to act as an invigorant, but as an article of nourishment, giving me the needed phosphates and albumens. This is no imaginary tale. It can be substantiated by my wife and her sister, who both changed to Postum and are hearty women of about 70."

"I write this for the information and encouragement of others, and with a feeling of gratitude to the inventor of Postum."
