Done in Georgia 20 Years Ago. Murphy, Special.-Robert Brown, colored, was confined in the county jail, because of an unbalanced mind. Brown claims that the cause of his becoming insane is that he has been worrying over a murder he committed ninteen or twenty years ago near Bold Springs, Ga. Brown says his right name is George Jones, and that he shot and killed with a shotgun a colored man at a dance, whose first name was Frank. He says he can't remember the other name. He says at the time of the killing Cross Mc-Han was sheriff. Application has been made for Brown to be admitted to the State Hospital for the Colored Insane at Goldsboro.

Sensational Shooting in Raleigh— The Murderer Flees But Is Run Down by Members of His Own Race and After a Trial Placed in Jail.

Raleigh, Special.—The combination of a jealous negro, a gun and a dead woman was the sensation here Thursday. At 12:30 o'clock Simon Lovejoy, very black and aged about 40, who has been a hard-working fellow and who for the past nine years has consorted with Annie Martin, a negress aged 35, and who has a son about half her age, went to the woman's house, quarreled with her about another lover and then shot her, using a repeating rifle, in which he had only one cartridge. The bullet took effect in her head, making as he saw his victim dying the murderer dashed out of the house and made a run for the country. George Lane, a well-known negro in east Raleigh, saw Lovejoy running and heard the shot and he haised the hue and cry. He and other negroes pursued and the man was chased through a truck farm, where he threw away his gun, presently getting rid of his coat and he was next seen in the pond in the old granite quarry. The quarry was surrounded. Lovejov was in the water up to his neck. He was forced to come out by his captors, who besides Lane were Ernest Riddick, Alexander Atwater and William Walton, and those brought him in a hurry to the court house, followed by a great number of other negroes, feeling being pretty high against Love-
