

WILMINGTON will be the only city in this State that will be honored with a visit from President Taft in his present trip of thirteen thousand miles through the West and South...

Only a few of our presidents have visited this State during their term of office and they have all been most warmly welcomed and greeted with becoming honors.

A grand parade will be given in his honor and the post of honor in it will be given to the Confederate veterans, to whom a special invitation has been extended, just as was the case when President Roosevelt visited Raleigh.

ALL fair-minded men should commend the decision of Judge Anderson, of the United States district court in Indiana, in dismissing the proceedings against the proprietors of the Indianapolis News, who had been indicted by a grand jury in the District of Columbia for alleged libel of Roosevelt, Taft and other prominent men.

Without entering into a discussion of whether the newspaper men were guilty or innocent, we heartily concur with the judge in holding that they ought not to be carried away from Indiana to Washington City for trial.

When the North Carolina State convention was held at Hillsboro in July and August, 1783, that body refused to ratify the constitution of the United States, and one of the reasons or arguments urged against its ratification was the fear that men might be carried a long distance from their homes for trial in the Federal courts.

The concluding clause of Judge Anderson's opinion should meet with universal approval, and it is as follows: "If the history of liberty means anything, if the constitution means anything, then the prosecuting authority should not have the power to select the tribunal, if there be more than one to select from, at the capital of the nation, nor should the government have the power to drag citizens from distant States for trial."

His friends throughout the State will learn with deep regret of the sudden death of Hon. Jas. C. MacRae, which occurred Sunday night at his home at Chapel Hill where for the past ten years he had been Dean of the University Law School.

THERE will be a lively campaign for the Democratic nomination for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Connor. Gov. Kitchin appointed Hon. James S. Manning to fill the vacancy until the next general election, in November of next year, when the successor to Judge Connor's unexpired term will be elected.

Judge Allen is one of the best judges in this State and was an applicant for the appointment which Gov. Kitchin gave Judge Manning. He has many friends all over the State and will make the campaign very interesting, to say the least.

We are in receipt of one of the railroad maps of North Carolina just issued by the State Corporation Commission.

A glance at this map shows that the Southern Railway has more mileage than any other railroad in the State, having 1,332 miles, with the A. C. L. next with 947 miles.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack.

The Wadesboro Baptist church has begun the work of arrangements for the coming of the State convention of the Baptist churches to Wadesboro on December 7th.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by All Dealers.

Thirty-seven persons are known to have been killed and property loss is estimated at a million dollars as a result of the disastrous storm which swept through several Southern States last Thursday night.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful.

Patronize Home Newspapers. The Minneapolis Star says: "There is no better advertisement in the world for a town than a good newspaper."

Method in Her Submission. "I'd like a transfer for Fourteenth street," she said meekly to the conductor. "I can't give you one now, madam," he returned fiercely.

"He's a hateful old thing," declared her friend, who sat by her. "I wonder you took his abuse so quietly. Now you'll have to pay another fare. Why didn't you ask for it when you paid your fare anyway?"

"Because," she answered, "I have not paid my fare." - New York Press.

It was doubtless Mrs. Howe's "sympathetic nature," to which she constantly referred, that made her carry so many burdens which did not belong to her.

There was great excitement one day some years ago at a small Russian port on the Baltic. The captain of a newly arrived foreign vessel was arrested for the alleged crime of having attempted to bring a large number of dynamite bombs into the country of the czar.

"Where are the bombs?" said the judge. "On board the ship," said the police. "There is a small cargo of them."

"Go and fetch one," said the judge. "It is dangerous to touch it," said the police. "I cannot convict," said the judge, "unless I have the material evidence. Bring me a bomb."

With much trepidation and many precautions they at last brought one on a cushion of cotton wool. The judge laughed a most unjudicial laugh.

In the summer of 1840 Henry Clay went to Kentucky on his vacation. Three nights after his arrival at a certain springs a sociable game began. In the game were Mr. Clay, Josiah Blackburn, John Hardin and Sam Clay, a cousin of the statesman.

Some one has taken the trouble to search out an attribute of beauty in the common and repulsive looking bird known as the turkey buzzard.
