

Local Records.

Bring your laundry to Brooks & Eubanks by Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Nancy Burns has been appointed postmaster at Success, in Oakland township.

Sheriff Jenkins has postponed the date for advertising land for taxes from April 5th to May 4th.

There is now a good prospect for an abundant fruit crop. Although there was a slight frost this morning but it did no damage.

Joe W. Mann still offers to pay one dollar to anyone answering his ad. in another column and making a trade. He means what he says.

For sale: A Sargent's saw-mill and carriage in good shape, used only five months, price reasonable, terms easy. Apply to T. M. Bland, Pittsboro.

The heaviest rain fell here last Sunday that we have had in several months, and the creeks were higher than they have been in a long time.

The Pittsboro nine went down in defeat before the Bynum nine on the latter's grounds on last Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 7.

We have a full stock of Columbia, Lister and Miller Guano, Phosphates, Kanit and Cotton Seed Meal on hand and will be glad to sell you what you need. W. L. London & Son.

Joe W. Mann at Bynum has just received a complete line of Men's and Ladies' Oxforas which he is selling cheap. Call and see them. He also has a big line of men's pants which it will pay you to see.

Mr. W. H. Groce, formerly of this county, died last week at the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh. He was a member of Co. D., 35th N. C. regiment, that was organized in the Hanks' Chapel neighborhood.

Is there anybody in your neighborhood who has not paid his poll tax? If so, urge him to pay it on or before the first Monday in May and thus save his vote. There is no time to lose in attending to this.

For Sale: Good grain, grass and cotton farm of 115 acres within four miles of Camnock, near good school and churches. Good dwelling and stables. Land productive. Terms to suit. Apply to John T. Oliver, Reidsville, N. C.

Atwater & Lambeth at Bynum call special attention to their line of buggies, wagons and surreys. They keep the best makes on the market and sell them at reasonable prices. They invite an inspection of their stock.

The Lockville Roller Mills offer for delivery at any station on the Seaboard, Pittsboro or Southern Railroad in Chatham or Lee county, shipment from Richmond cash with order, shipstuffs $1.60, bran $1.60, and feed oats 63 cents.

The RECORD recently published an item, copied from another paper, about cattle ticks being found on rabbits. Mr. R. M. Connell, the cattle tick inspector for this county, says that cattle ticks are never found on rabbits, and that he will give $50 to any person who will show him a rabbit with a cattle tick on it.

The census enumerators are now busy asking questions, and we hope that our readers will be ready to answer them. Everybody ought to give gladly all the information desired by the enumerators, for by these statistics much valuable information is obtained, and of course these statistics ought to be as accurate as possible.

Dr. S. Rapport will be in Pittsboro, at the Exline Hotel, Tuesday, May 3, and at Siler City, Wednesday, May 4, at the Hadley Hotel, for the purpose of examining eyes and adjusting glasses. Remember that you pay nothing for examination of your eyes in buying glasses of me, and my charges for glasses are moderate indeed.

The Pittsboro Presbyterian Church, through its officers, desires to thank the citizens of the town for their kindness and hospitality in helping to entertain the Presbytery. This appreciation extends equally to those who kindly offered to take delegates, whether the ones who were assigned to them actually came and were entertained by them or not.

If you buy your Millinery from W. L. London & Son you get the latest styles. We receive every week by express something new in Millinery. Mrs. Horne will be glad to show you.

To every census enumerator was sent a "trial" sheet to test his efficiency. On this sheet he had to take the census of ten families. In this Congressional district the census enumerator, at this place, Rev. R. B. Lineberry, was the only one who made his report in a perfect manner, as we are informed by Supervisor Pearson.

Mr. Henry M. Jones has sent to The Record the largest "Indian potato" we have ever seen. It was plowed up on his farm, about six miles southeast of this place, and weighs twenty pounds. These roots are called Indian potatoes because it is said that the Indians used to eat them, but the old colored people call them the "Devil's bread."

In another column are published the cards of Messrs. Hoyle and McDonald of their candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Senate. When this Senatorial district was formed (in 1901) it was agreed, or rather understood, that Moore and Chatham should have the two Senators one term and Scotland and Richmond one term, alternating, and this has heretofore been done. Lee county was created by the Legislature of 1907 and now Lee and Moore are both claiming the Senator, heretofore allotted to Moore, but this controversy does not affect Chatham's right to have her senator. If Lee and Moore cannot settle this between themselves, then it will have to be settled by the other counties in the senatorial convention.

London will go to Chapel Hill tomorrow to attend a meeting of the committee, of which she is chairman, that was appointed at the last State Convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to raise funds for erecting at Chapel Hill a monument to the memory of the students of the University who fought in the Confederate army.

Fayetteville Presbytery.

The 194th session of the Fayetteville Presbytery held here last week adjourned here on last Thursday night to meet next October with Oakland church in Johnston county.

During the meeting there were present 24 of the 37 ministers on the roll of the Presbytery, and 42 of the 94 churches were represented by Ruling Elders. The following is a list of the ministers who were present: Revs. H. G. Hill, D. D. C. G. Vardell, D. D., J. M. Rose, D. D., W. R. Coppedge, J. K. Roberts, L. Smith, R. S. Arrowood, J. D. A. Brown, R. W. Joplin, L. W. Curtis, A. Crawford, J. H. Dixon, L. H. Williamson, J. M. McLean, W. C. Brown, H. M. Dixon, A. R. McQueen, R. J. Beattie, F. B. Rankin, A. E. Grover, J. M. Forbis, T. H. Spence, J. McWicker and A. W. Shaw.

The following Ruling Elders were present: H. F. Curry, N. T. McLean, Duncan McNeill, J. C. McDuffy, L. McDonald, M. A. McLeod, J. H. Wicker, M. McL. McKeithan, M. H. Caldwell, W. W. McGirt, Edgar Hall, S. J. Hooks, George Wilcox, E. H. Williamson, J. D. Shaw, J. H. Currie, J. C. Williams, J. M. McIver, A. C. Ray, Redin Bryan, W. H. Edgerton, L. McNeil, Angs Fairley, D. M. Hall, E. F. McKee, C. A. Purcell, M. J. McNeill, L. T. Lane, J. H. Smith, A. C. McCormick, John M. Brown, R. H. Hayes, McLean Campbell, J. W. Hodgin, W. A. Monroe, John E. Elliot, A. G.

Thomas, J. E. Bryan, S. H. McCall, D. McNeill, D. D. McKinon and J. D. Cole, Jr.

Mr. J. McBryde Williams, of Godwin, was taken under the care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry. Reports from the various churches showed a total membership of 10,000, of which 800 were added to the rolls last year. The treasurer's report showed the following contributions for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1910:

Foreign Missions $10,641, Assembly's Home Missions $1,053, Local Home Missions $5,115, Colored Evangelization $369, Ministerial Relief $675, Ministerial Education $1,270, Schools and Colleges $3,332, Sabbath School Extension and Publication $637, To Bible Cause $210, Assembly's Home and School, Fredericksburg, Va. $217, Orphan's Home $2,981, making a total of $26,500. The salaries paid ministers aggregated $23,289.

A resolution was adopted setting apart the third Sunday in next November for taking up a collection in every church in the Presbytery for the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music at Red Springs. The sum hoped to be raised then is $10,000, and it could not be raised for a better purpose, for that institution is greatly in need of that amount and it is doing so grand a work that it richly deserves all that it can get.

Resolutions were also adopted condemning the use of Sunday mails and Sunday newspapers, and also the employment of labor on Sundays, and urging the more strict observance of the Lord's day.

Before adjournment the following resolutions were adopted: "Whereas the Presbytery of Fayetteville has been so cordially and abundantly entertained by the Church and the good people of Pittsboro, therefore be it resolved, that the unbounded thanks of Presbytery are hereby heartily tendered to our genial hosts, also to the S. A. L. Railway for courtesies in holding trains; that these resolutions be printed in The Chatham Record and read from the pulpit."

Rev. R. S. Arrowood and Rev. L. W. Curtis and Messrs. M. McL. McKeithan and R. H. Hayes were elected commissioners for this Presbytery to the General Assembly which will meet at Lewisburg, West Virginia, the third week in May.

The last time, before this, that the Presbytery met here was on the 12th of April, 1892, just 18 years ago. Only two of the ministers who were here then were here last week, they were Rev. H. G. Hill and Rev. J. M. Rose. We hope that it will not be another eighteen years before our old town will again have the pleasure of entertaining so fine a body of Christian workers.

Harmony of Dress.

A beautiful woman also studies the harmony of painting a well kept house; takes care to have the house painted with paint that will continue to look bright, clean and fresh looking. The L. & M. never becomes dingy, because only chemically pure colors are used; only the finest White Oxide made from metal; only the finest White Lead; only the purest Linseed Oil; only expert painters produce it with machinery—a thousand gallons at a time. Contrast this with the costly and crude production of White Lead Paint made by hand and labor with a stick in a pot—a few gallons at a time. L. & M. is sold by W. L. London & Son, Pittsboro, The Lambeth-Crutchfield Co., Moncure.

Some Johnson Definitions.

An exhibition of the relics of Dr. Samuel Johnson in London recalled some of the remarkable definitions that remarkable man inserted in his dictionary. Among them not the least curious was the one given for "network," which was defined as "anything reticulated or decussated at equal distances, with interstices between the intersections." Other amusing definitions are: "Cough—a convulsion of the lungs vellated by some shar serosity." "Man—not a woman, not a boy, not a beast." "Pension—an allowance made to any one without an equivalent. In England it is generally understood to mean pay to a state hireling for treason to his country."

Mere Sightseers.

"The chief trouble of the miners," says an official of Alaska, "is the lack of variety in their food. One day a young fellow fresh from his lot turned into Seattle and entered a hotel. "Bring me some pork and beans," was his request. The food was brought. "Now bring me three dozen oysters." The waiter complied. With the two dishes before him the miner proceeded to say: "Well, pork and beans, you have been very friendly to me all my days in Alaska. You have stood by me like good fellows. Now stand by me and see me eat oysters."—Kansas City Star.

A Pleasant Marriage.

The Baptist church at this place, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, was the scene of one of the prettiest marriages ever solemnized here. At that hour Miss Annie Eugenia Brewer, the youngest daughter of the late Sheriff S. W. Brewer, and Mr. Jacob Thompson were united in the bonds of holy wedlock.

The church had been tastily decorated for the occasion, the chancel and altar rail being banked with lovely flowers, the brilliant lights from the darkened interior of the church lending a most pleasing effect. Mr. Thos. C. Denison, of Raleigh, and Mr. George W. Brewer, of Durham, acted as ushers. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Ethel Johnson. The groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. J. S. Bradsher, of Roxboro, met the bride at the chancel rail, she having entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. C. S. Brewer, of Carthage. Then amid the stillness which the solemnity of the occasion inspired, Rev. R. B. Lineberry, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. A. Worth Shaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke the words which made the two man and wife.

Leaving the church to the accompanying strains of Mendelssohn, the happy couple at once drove to the S. A. L. station where they took the northbound train for Washington City and other northern points.

The bride is one of our loveliest and most popular village maidens and the groom, who holds a responsible position with the State Agricultural Department at Raleigh, is to be congratulated upon winning so charming a bride.

On last evening Mrs. Mary S. Thompson, mother of the groom, entertained a number of his friends at an elegant stag supper, which was the occasion of much merriment and many felicitations for the groom-to-be upon the approaching wedding. From 9 to 11 o'clock last night, Mrs. Mary C. Brewer, mother of the bride, gave a very enjoyable reception to the bridal party at which elegant refreshments were served.

The bridal presents were numerous, beautiful and handsome and attested the popularity of the bride and groom. Among those from a distance who were here to attend the wedding, besides the bridal party, were the following: Messrs. A. P. McPherson and C. C. McDonald and Miss Mary S. Thompson, of Raleigh, Misses Fannie T. Thompson, of Morganton and Fleta Johnson, of Greensboro, Master Francis Bradsher, of Roxboro, and Mrs. H. W. Sinclair, of Greensboro.

A Curious Bird.

As to food, the weka is omnivorous, eating everything from a pea rifle cartridge to the remains of one of his own offspring. I remember an instance of this when our dog unfortunately killed a young bird which was too small to eat. The parents made a decent show of grief over their loss and then, being quite sure that the little one was dead, proceeded to eat up its still warm remains. In camp wekas are useful as scavengers, but they are incorrigible thieves, trying to take away everything at all white or glittering, and, as they are able to move a weight of two or three pounds, it may be well imagined that a careful lookout has to be kept. The glance of mingled triumph and contempt which a weka gives over his shoulder as he walks off with your pipe is inimitable, and his whole attitude would make a most laughable picture if well drawn.—"Pioneer Work in the Alps of New Zealand," by A. P. Harper.

Advice to the Aged.

Age brings infirmities, such as sluggish bowels, weak kidneys and stager and TORPID LIVER.

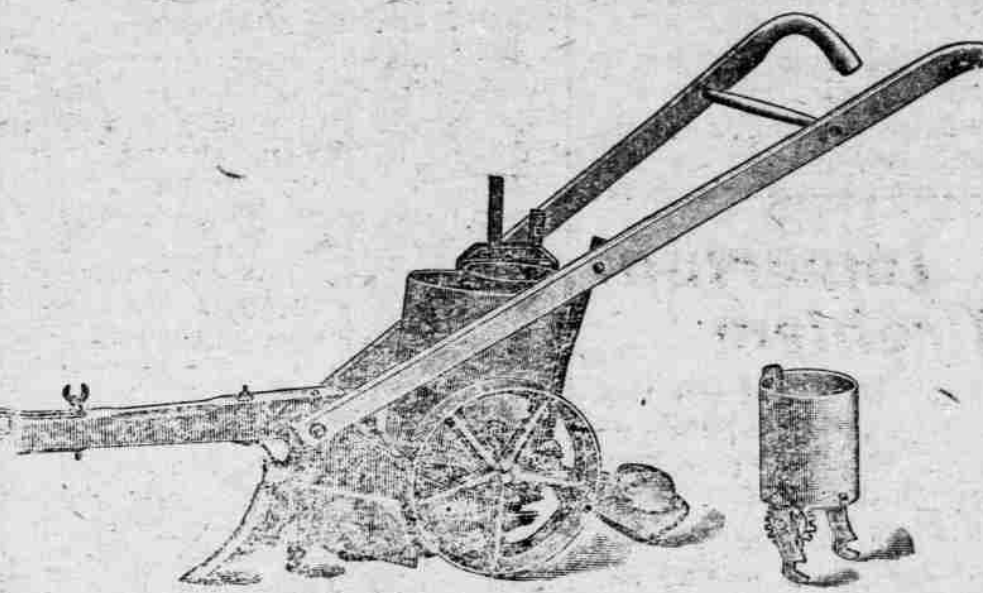

Tutt's Pills

have a specific effect on these organs, stimulating the bowels, causing them to perform their natural functions as in youth and IMPARTING VIGOR to the kidneys, bladder and LIVER. They are adapted to old and young.

DR. S. RAPPORT OF DURHAM.

Will be in PITTSBORO, Tuesday, May 3, at the Exline Hotel and at Siler City, at the Hadley Hotel, Wednesday, May 4th. YOUR EYES are surely worth more to you than the price of a pair of Spectacles. If you value your eyes, have them properly fitted at once. Delay, and your eyes may become so bad that no glasses will help them, then you will regret it all the rest of your days. That is true—every word of it. I will examine your eyes free if you will come to see me and my charges for glasses are moderate indeed. Remember the date, PITTSBORO, TUESDAY and SILER CITY, WEDNESDAY.
