Bring us your job work. Look out for the blue X mark and renew your subscription. Harness, Leo Franks' make, just received by Brooks & Eubanks. Harvest is coming, and the home-made cradles are on hand at Brooks & Eubanks. Joe W. Mann, at Bynum, has a full line of men's pants which he will sell at rock-bottom prices. We have just received a large assortment of picture moulding. A beautiful line.—Brooks & Eubanks. Before you buy your buggy this spring, look at a "Hackney" or "Parker." Sold by Brooks & Eubanks. Bring your clocks and watches to be repaired to G. L. Kemp, next to Dr. Chapin's office, when you come to court. When you come to court next week be sure to renew your subscription. If you do not come, send it by some neighbor. We are requested to announce that there will be communion service next Sunday at the Presbyterian church at this place. Bring us your job work. All work turned out promptly and neatly at The Record job printing office. Send in a trial order. This is election year and every voter in Chatham ought to read The Record and keep posted. Only 75 cents until after the election. Joe W. Mann still offers to pay one dollar to anyone answering his ad. in another column and making a trade. He means what he says. For sale: A Seargent's saw-mill and carriage in good shape, used only five months, price reasonable, terms easy. Apply to T. M. Bland, Pittsboro. Mr. Robert C. Hatch has been elected town constable and tax collector by our town commissioners in the place of Mr. W. L. Powell who recently resigned. When you come to court next week make Auburn Bland & Co. your headquarters, where you can find a full line of fruits, confectioneries and heavy and fancy groceries. Messrs. Melville K. Perry and N. W. Dixon of this county have been drawn as jurors for the Federal court, which meets at Raleigh on the 24th of this month. Rev. V. A. Royall, pastor of the Methodist church here, is conducting a series of meetings this week. Services are held each day at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 o'clock at night. The traveling public can rent stalls for their horses cheap next week and at other times from Will T. Johnson, southwest of court-house. He has just completed a large new feed stable. Remember when you come to court next week that D. M. Smith at the old Love corner serves meals at any hour day or night. He also has cool drinks and heavy and cheap groceries. The cotton seed oil mill at this place sold last week 2,000 bushels of seed to be shipped south for planters, whose crops had been destroyed by the recent frost and who had to re-plant their cotton. The Pittsboro Machine Shops, Hatch & Glenn proprietors, are now prepared to do any kind of blacksmith and wood work. Special attention to repairing vehicles and farming implements. Good work guaranteed. Lockville Roller Mills offer in 500 pound lots bran at $1.60, shorts $1.50, oats 62 cents and corn 87 cents delivered at any station in Chatham or Lee county on S. A. L. or Southern railroad. Shipment from Richmond. Cash with order. Dr. Julius Shaffer, optician, graduate of Baltimore and registered in the State of North Carolina, will be in Pittsboro at the Exline House on the 16th and 17th, in Moncure at Dr. Strickland's the 18th, and in Goldston on the 20th, for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. We are requested to announce that there will be memorial exercises at Ebenezer Methodist church, in New Hope township, next Saturday at 11 o'clock which the public generally is cordially invited to attend. Addresses suitable to the day will be made and the graves in the adjoining cemetery will be decorated with flowers.

Wanted, a girl to run over-seaming sewing machine at hosiery mill. Apply to Box 15, Pittsboro. THE RECORD'S supplement contains much interesting Confederate matter, well worthy of being read and remembered. When you come to court next week call on John L. Council for fruits, confectioneries and cool drinks, such as milk shakes, cocoa, grape juice, &c. The kitchen of Mr. John H. Thomas, near Bynum, caught on fire from the stove flue, on last Sunday, but fortunately was discovered in time to be extinguished before much damage was done. Our fields and forests are now most beautiful to behold. The trees are in full foliage, presenting a most attractive appearance, the deep green of the cedar and pine mingled with the lighter green of the oak and hickory, interspersed with fields of growing grain. The commencement exercises at Manndale Institute, 12 miles northwest of here, will be held next Monday and Tuesday, May 9th and 10th, the latter day being commencement day proper. On Sunday, the 8th, Rev. James R. Edwards, of Sanford, will preach the commencement sermon. The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. H. A. London next Monday afternoon, May 9th, at 4:30 o'clock. The members are requested to bring with them materials for making evergreen wreaths which will be used in decorating the graves of the dead soldiers on Tuesday. At a joint meeting of the county commissioners and road commissioners, last Monday, a committee of two members of each board was appointed to inspect the bridges at Baldwin's and Fearrington's on New Hope creek and make recommendations as to the advisability of repairing those bridges or having new ones built. This committee will meet today at the above-named bridges. An election is ordered to be held at the residence of Mr. A. R. Phillips, in Bear Creek township, on the 4th day of June upon the question of levying a special school tax of 30 cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property and 90 cents on the poll. Mr. A. R. Phillips is appointed the registrar and Messrs. C. R. Neal and C. W. Phillips poll holders. Part of the district is in Moore county. The many friends here of Dr. and Mrs. William B. Chapin sympathize with them most deeply in the death of their four-week-old infant son, Henry Tarlton, which, after a short sickness, occurred at their home at Townsville, Vance county, on last Saturday afternoon. The remains were brought here Sunday and interred in the Baptist churchyard Monday morning, Rev. R. B. Lineberry conducting the funeral service. At the closing exercises of the Ore Hill graded school, held recently, prizes for punctuality were awarded to the four children of Mr. Norman A. Jones, they being the only students of the school who had been perfect in punctuality. This is a remarkable, as well as most creditable, family record. The importance of promptness and punctuality should be impressed on all children, for so many grown persons lack it so much. We are much pleased to state that the poll tax of the voters of this county is better paid up this year than usual. Sheriff Jenkins says that he does not think there are hardly 40 voters in the county who have failed to pay. No doubt the number would be very much larger if payment of the poll tax was not a prerequisite to voting, thus proving that this requirement enables the sheriff to collect more taxes than otherwise he could collect. Next Tuesday, May 10th, being Confederate Memorial Day in North Carolina, the graves of all dead soldiers buried in the town cemeteries will be decorated with flowers. The local chapter of the U. D. C. request the school children and the people generally to meet with them at 5:30 o'clock at the Baptist churchyard, everyone bringing flowers, and join with them in placing wreaths on the graves of the dead veterans buried in the various churchyards. Personal Items. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Farthing were Raleigh visitors Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffin spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Gulf. THE RECORD is fortunate in securing as its new foreman Mr. Charles A. Brown, of Raleigh, one of the best printers in the State. Mr. and Mrs. James Cates and children and Mrs. Thos. F. Petty, of Burlington, have been here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Coble. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Thompson returned Friday from their ten-days' bridal tour to Washington, New York and other northern points. Mrs. J. Henry Fell and children returned to their home in Trenton, N. J., last Saturday, after a six-weeks' visit to Mrs. Fell's parents here. Mr. Archie Poe, of Knoxville, Tennessee, has been here on a short visit to his sister, Mrs. L. R. Exline. This was Mr. Poe's first visit here in 21 years. Mad Dog Killed. One night, a few weeks ago, Mr. J. A. Stone, of Williams township, was awakened by a dog attacking his fowls. He ran out with his pistol and saw a strange dog, which he shot at, and as it ran away a colored tenant ran out of his house with a gun and killed the dog. Mrs. Stone went out to see after her fowls and took up one that had been crippled, but not killed, by the dog and the fowl in struggling either pecked or scratched her hand, and a particle of the foam or froth of the dog's mouth had got on the fowl and a small part of it got on Mrs. Stone's hand. Mr. Stone cut off the dog's head and sent it to Raleigh to Dr. Shore who, after examining it, stated that the dog was mad. Thereupon Mrs. Stone went to Raleigh for treatment, in order to escape any attack of hydrophobia, and has now returned home free from any further danger. Superior Court. The May term of Chatham superior court will be held next week and will be for the trial of both civil and criminal cases. The criminal docket is very small, there being no cases of much importance, and all will probably be disposed of in one day, which speaks well for a county as large as this. The civil issue docket, however, is quite large and not half of the cases on it will be disposed of. It would probably take two weeks more to try all the civil cases, and a special term is greatly needed. By consent of both sides the case of Stout against Perry will not be tried again until August court. This is the case that was tried last August and the jury "hung," and was tried again at November court and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff, and, on appeal to the Supreme Court, a new trial was ordered, because the judge erred in excluding some of the evidence offered by the defendants. The presiding judge will be Hon. Robert B. Peebles, of Northampton county, who has exchanged with Judge Lyon, who held our February court. The Poe Fortune. Mr. Archie Poe, now of Knoxville, Tennessee, was here last Saturday on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Maggie Exline, and also for the purpose of obtaining some information relating to the Poe family. It is said that about one hundred years ago a man, named Poe, executed a lease for ninety-nine years on some property in Baltimore that is now worth several million dollars, and that no heirs of the lessor can be found. Mr. Archie Poe has some information that induces him to think that the Baltimore Poe was his great-grandfather and he is making efforts to establish this belief. Mr. Hasten Poe came to this place many years before the war from Spotsylvania county, Virginia, and was the father of the late Oran S. Poe, Cooper Poe, Mrs. Adelaide Cotten and Mrs. Martha Harris, and it is hoped that he may be proved to have been the son of the Baltimore Poe, who is said to have moved from Baltimore to Spotsylvania county. We sincerely hope that a relationship can be traced and proved between the descendants of Mr. Hasten Poe and the Baltimore Poe, and that they may have better luck than others who have hoped to get a part of the fortunes that have been said to await claimants. Make Your Dollars Extend. Our agency will prove that thirty-five years big sales and pleased users of the L. & M. Paint will save you dollars, because when painting with L. & M. you are using metal Zinc Oxide combined with White Lead. Zinc Oxide is imperishable, makes the L. & M. wear and cover like gold. The L. & M. Colors are therefore bright and lasting. You want need to repaint for 10 or 15 years; besides L. & M. Paint costs less than any other, say about $1.30 per gallon. Sold by W. L. London & Son, Pittsboro, The Lambeth-Crutchfield Co., Moncure. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will clear the sour stomach, sweeten the breath and create healthy appetite. They promote the flow of gastric juice, thereby inducing good digestion. Sold by all dealers.

Killed by Saw Mill. Special to the Charlotte Observer. Clinton, April 30.—Geo. Cooper, a prominent farmer, was killed at his sawmill near Salem, ten miles west of Clinton, this morning. He was walking near a large belt when he slipped and fell upon the belt and was snatched on to a pulley, which crushed his head into a shapeless mass and his body was otherwise mangled. Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds to which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by all dealers. Mr. T. M. Fountain, of Wilson, had his right leg broken, his left shoulder dislocated and other wounds inflicted, one day last week, by being caught in a saw mill while it was running. HEALTH INSURANCE The man who insures his life is wise for his family. The man who insures his health is wise both for his family and himself. You may insure health by guarding it. It is worth guarding. At the first attack of disease, which generally approaches through the LIVER and manifests itself in innumerable ways TAKE Tutt's Pills And save your health. MORTGAGE SALE.
