About four weeks ago, Clarence, the little son of Mr. C. B. Crutchfield, of Moncure, was bitten by a mad dog since which time he has been taking the Pasteur treatment at Raleigh. The little fellow has now finished taking the course of treatment and appears to be none the worse for the bite.

Beginning with Monday, July 27th, the D. & C. R. R. Co., which has heretofore operated trains from Troy to Gulf, will extend its passenger train service from Gulf to Colon on the S. A. L. It will make close connection with Seaboard trains Nos. 38 and 41 in the mornings and afternoons.

The passenger coach of the train on the Pittsboro railroad got off the track last Thursday morning just before reaching Moncure, but the train was quickly stopped without any damage being done. As a result of the derailment, the train due here about 11 o'clock did not arrive until 1 o'clock.

Dr. Julius Shaffer, optician, graduate Baltimore College, and registered in the State of North Carolina, will be in Moncure at Dr. Strickland's office, July the 5th and 6th; in Pittsboro at the Exline hotel, the 7th only, and in Bynum the 8th and 9th, for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses for all the defects the human eye is heir to. The Krypbook lenses a specialty.

We are requested by President O. D. Barber to announce that the Chatham County Farmers' Union will meet in the courthouse here Saturday, July 9th, at 11 o'clock. Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, the State president, will be present and address the meeting. It is expected that there will be a large attendance of farmers to hear him. The public is invited to be present.

The Southern Railway is having built a neat and substantial railroad station at Bonlee (formerly Causey) which will be used also by the Bonlee and Western Railway Company. This new road (the Bonlee and Western) is being rapidly built towards Deep river, through the heart of Bear Creek township, and when completed, will open up a fine section of country and prove of great benefit to the western part of our county.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Claude W. Womble, a son of Mr. Isaac Womble, which occurred at his home in Hickory Mountain township on last Thursday. He was sick only four or five days with the measles and his untimely end, we might say, almost sudden death comes as a great shock to his relatives and friends. The remains of the deceased were interred in Pleasant Hill cemetery last Friday, Rev. V. A. Royall conducting the funeral services.

Yesterday was the summer solstice, or the time at which the sun is at its greatest distance from the equator, June 21st being the longest day in the year.

Mrs. C. D. Moore, accompanied by her physician, Dr. L. E. Farthing, was taken to the State Central Hospital at Raleigh last Monday for treatment.

The friends of our former townsman, Mr. Oran S. Poe, sympathize with him most deeply in the death of his wife which took place at Rock Hill, S. C., on last Monday.

The winning streak of the Bynum baseball nine was broken last Saturday in a game of ball with the West Chapel Hill team, the latter nine winning by the score of 9 to 2. The game was played at Chapel Hill.

The old friends here of Rev. R. A. Willis will regret to learn of his death which occurred a few days ago at the home of his son in Littleton. He was pastor of the Methodist church here about twenty-five years ago and is well remembered by our older residents.

Mrs. G. P. Alston drove to town from her home on Hickory Mountain a few days ago and when she reached here she found one of her pet hens comfortably nesting in the back of her buggy, having laid an egg en route. It was only after considerable "persuasion" could her henship be induced to abandon her adopted home.

On last Sunday afternoon the little two-and-a-half-year-old child of Mr. Jim Harris, of Hickory Mountain township, in some way got hold of a bottle of spirits of turpentine and before anyone knew it swallowed a considerable quantity of it. As a result, the little child is in a critical condition but it is hoped that the unfortunate accident will not result fatally.

Mr. T. M. Bland, who lives just outside of the corporate limits, has gone into the fox raising business. He has a large pen built near the creek and now has ten of the sly Reynards. Since the death of Mr. Oliver McMath, Mr. Bland is the champion fox-hunter of the county and from present indications it would seem that he is prepared to defend the title against any and all comers!

Mr. Fred P. Noe tells us the latest chicken story. Last January one of his hens hatched out a chicken and soon afterwards went to laying and later on hatched out a second brood of chickens. It was not long before the hen left these chickens but the chicken hatched out in the winter, taking pity on her half-sisters and brothers, took charge and has since acted as mother to the little chickens.

Mrs. A. J. Bynum, of this place, has a pet cat which is not only an excellent "mouser" but has recently taken to catching snakes. Yesterday morning the cat, evidently tiring of the rather monotonous pursuit of rats and such like, caught a live snake and brought it in the house and laid it at the feet of her mistress. The cat, however, did not receive a reward for her act to which she doubtless thought she was entitled.

Cutting Scrape.

There came near being a very serious cutting affair in the southeastern end of town last Sunday night. Just after services at the colored church had ended a young colored man named Will Taylor was attacked with a knife by another negro named Dave Horton and before he could defend himself in any way several bad wounds were inflicted in Taylor's neck. Dr. Chapin was called in to dress the wounds and found that the cuts were very near the jugular vein but fortunately had missed it and were therefore not of a serious nature. Horton made his escape after the assault and has not yet been arrested.

Cattle Tick Quarantine.

Mr. R. M. Connell, the government cattle tick inspector for this district, tells us that the work of eradicating the cattle tick in this county, which he has been engaged in for over two years now, is progressing very satisfactorily. As an illustration of this, he cited a day's work one day last week when fifteen farms were inspected and only one tick found on the cattle on those farms.

Mr. Connell states that on and after the first of July all cattle found to be infested with ticks will be quarantined at their stables and not allowed to run at large in a pasture. Only by doing this, he says, can the county be released from the quarantine this year, which it is his intention of having done, if possible.

Precinct Meetings.

We again call attention to the Democratic precinct meetings which will be held throughout the county next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. These meetings will be presided over by the chairmen of the various precinct executive committees and delegates will be selected to the county convention which meets here Saturday, July 2d. While each precinct is entitled to a certain number of votes in the convention, yet as many delegates may be chosen as the precinct meeting may wish.

The new precinct executive committees will not be elected at these meetings, but will be chosen at the precinct meetings July 23d when delegates will be sent to the county convention to nominate candidates for county offices. The convention here July 2d will elect delegates to the Senatorial, Congressional, Judicial and State Conventions.

Pensioners' Burial Expenses.

For the information of the family and relatives of deceased Confederate pensioners, we again call attention to the law enacted by the special session of the legislature in 1908 providing for the payment of the burial expenses of pensioners who die. As we have had several inquiries about this matter, we print below the act in full, which is as follows:

"Whenever in any county of this State a Confederate pensioner on the pension roll of said county shall die, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of such county, upon the certificate of said fact by the clerk of the superior court, and recommendation of the chairman of the pension board of said county, to order the payment out of the general fund of the county of a sum not exceeding twenty dollars ($20) to be applied toward the defraying of the burial expenses of such deceased pensioner."

A. & M. College.

In the development of North Carolina's industries, the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts is taking a foremost part. Its students are giving their lives to improving our farming, our trucking, our dairying and stock-raising. They are rapidly making their way into our factories, our electric power-houses, and our shops. They are helping to build our roads, our bridges, and our railroads. Indeed, they are just the men needed at this stage in the State's growth. We are glad to note that more young men than ever before are seeking, through this well equipped institution, a place in our industrial progress. We call attention to the advertisement in this issue.

Lightning Meets Its Match.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

Winston-Salem, June 20.—Lightning struck the shanks of William Graham, a negro, yesterday afternoon, on Eighth street, and stripped him of his shoes and socks, not injuring him, however, in any way, outside of mental anguish, so to speak, for William was surely scared. His wife, who was in the room at the time, was also uninjured. The lightning ran down the chimney during the severe electrical storm which swept through the city, and tore up the bureau, before it divested William of his shoes and stockings, besides ripping the trousers also from the ankle to the knee. Many persons in the neighborhood visited the scene and William showed them the corroborating garments.

Fourteen Strawberries Make a Yard.

Lewiston, Idaho, June 19.—In the windows of a newspaper office here there is on exhibition side by side along a yard stick, fourteen "Arizona" strawberries grown in the Lewiston orchard tracts, south of here, by R. G. Bailey, and the berries at each end of the line project beyond the end of the yard stick.

It has been demonstrated that Lewiston soil, water and climate can, and does, produce strawberries that measure fourteen to the yard.

For Raleigh Public Building.

Washington, June 21.—In the public buildings bill reported to the senate today there is a provision authorizing an appropriation of $225,000 for a public building at Raleigh, of which $25,000 is to be immediately available. The entire provision is an amendment to the house bill.

The National Farmers' Union of the United States will hold its annual convention at Charlotte in September.

Horse Displays Fine Sense.

Special to the Charlotte Observer.

Waynesville, June 18.—Several people, who were near the Commercial bank yesterday, saw the finest display of real horse sense ever seen in Waynesville, but the sight was enough to cause cold shivers to run over them. One of Colonel Jones' fine blooded horses, "on a voyage of discovery," walked out upon the ledge between the railing around the court-house and Depot street. The ledge at one end where the horse went on is about eight feet wide but gradually narrowed toward the other end. The street is some twelve feet below and a perpendicular rock wall is built up from the street to the ledge.

Without seeing his danger the horse, a large beautiful animal, while running loose in the yard back of the court-house, walked out upon the ledge and continued to go for some twenty yards until he saw that his path was growing too narrow for his comfortable advance. Attempting then to turn he saw the extreme danger of falling down the embankment, which would have meant broken limbs and probable death, the horse displayed real "horse sense," in stopping and considering what was best to be done.

After a seemingly thoughtful consideration of the whole situation, the horse began to back as if under the spell of an expert trainer. That he did until a point was reached on the ledge where the turn could be made with safety, when, bringing his feet together for a pivot he made the turn successfully and galloped off the scene. The noble animal was applauded as he left the stage.

The Plowman No Plodder.

Says the Griffin, Ga., Herald.

"No longer does the plowman homeward plod his weary way." Our contemporary is right. The plowman plods no more; and seldom is he weary. He is about the perkiest, niftiest, chipperest gentleman in all creation nowadays. Things are coming his way—coming in clusters, bunches and festsoons, we might say!

We know this must be so, because the newspapers throughout the land are ringing with it. The "Back to the farm" slogan has even the "Back from Elba" war whoop running a poor second. Everybody who is anybody, and everybody else, is patting the farmer on his broad and amply clothed back and crying, "Go it, Reuben! You are it, with a twenty-four point!"

The farmer no longer lives in a weather beaten house adorned with a leaky roof and a tumble down front porch. His fences do not straggle, hesitate and jump, in an unwhitewashed state, as once they were wont to do. His stock is not lean and hungry; and his credit at the bank is not frazzled at both ends and sagging at the middle! No, indeed!

There was a time when the farmer was a humble citizen, whose principal business was paying the fiddler and singing cheap songs in political offices. Now all that is changed. The farmer is the most independent, up-to-the-minute, got-more-where-that-came-fromish individual at large around the country! He is the cock of the walk; and it is his walk, to a large and more or less exclusive extent, moreover.

No, sir! "The plowman homeward plods his weary way" no more. He scroaches it—inside the speed limit, of course—in an automobile!—Exchange.

Connor overrules the demurrer of the American Tobacco Company to the bill of complaint and insists that if all the allegations of the plaintiff set out in the bill are made good the case is clearly one on which a jury should pass.
