SENATOR Heyburn, of Idaho, seems to be as rabid against the South as if he was a crazy man. Our readers will remember his licly declared in a speech before lated by man and machinery speech last spring in the Senate derouncing Gen. R. E. Lee and now he has broken loose again.

At a reception given to Congressman Hamer at Wallace, in Idaho, on last Thursday night the band of music, while playing a medley of popular tunes, began to play "Dixie," whereupon Heyburn rushed to the musicians and promptly stopped them, exclaiming, "This is a Republican meeting. We want no such tunes

Whether or not this high ish sovereign. ideal can be carried into practice, certainly all men must admit that it is most unseemly, and that it degrades that office, for candidates for it to take an active part in the convention which nominates them. And yet this unseemly conduct was witnessed at the Republican State convention, held last week at Greensboro!

At that convention all three of its nominees for the Supreme Court (Hicks, Skinner and Timberlake) were active participants, and this is the first time (so far as we can recall) that such an unseemly scene was enacted in the heathen Chinese and Japan, this State.
