such a campaign.

One day we read of the bitter thing to earn their pay. denunciation of Roosevelt by Taft and next day we read of an equally bitter denunciation of Taft by Roosevelt, and each seems to strive to outdo the other in denunciation. If half that is true, or if half that is said about Roosevelt by Taft is true, then neither is fit to be President. And if what is said by each about the other is not true, then of course neither is fit for that office, because no slanderer should be nominated, and if ei-Democratic opponent the more buyer. certain.

THE attempt of some of the Republican leaders to repeal our State-wide prohibition law is meeting with very serious opposition from some of the best Republicans in this State. Recently Mr. R. L.
